STILL LEADING IN RECEIPTS.

Los Angeles Postoffice Shows the Largest Percentage for December.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The official statement of the postal receipts at fifty of the largest postoffices in the United States for December, 1903, compared with December, 1902, shows a total of $6,396,794, a net increase of $526,814, or almost 9 per cent. The largest increase was 27.45 per cent., at Los Angeles.

"I DESIRE PEACE," DECLARES THE CZAR.

Tells Diplomats He Will Do All He Can to Maintain it.

Authoritative Statement Made by the Autocrat of Russia at His New Year's Reception — Washington Officials Wonder if Manchuria is to be Annexed—Dowager of China Turns to Wu Ting Fang for Counsel.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 14.—[By Atlantic Cable.] "I desire and intend to do all in my power to maintain peace in the Far East."

These words the Czar spoke to the members of the diplomatic corps at the New Year's reception held in the Winter Palace at noon today.

The Czar made a leisurely round of the great white hall, with its beautiful colonnades, in which the representatives of the various countries had assembled. His Majesty chatted freely with everybody.

Keen curiosity was exhibited all over the room when His Majesty approached Mr. Kurino, the Japanese Minister to Russia. The conversation between the Czar and the Minister was cordial and extended. His Majesty emphasized the high value which he placed upon the good and neighborly relations between Japan and Russia, not only now, but in the future, and expressed his unshaken hope that a mutually satisfactory settlement of the difficulties between the two countries would be arranged.

It having become known that Count Cassini had been instructed to assure the United States that Russia would not interpose objections to the commercial treaty between China and the United States, or impede American rights or interests in Manchuria, the Czar referred to these instructions in a lengthy conversation with Ambassador McCormick, and laid much stress on his desire that Russia and the United States should live on terms of intimate and cordial friendship, which had existed for so many years and which he especially wished to maintain. He emphatically disclaimed the slightest inclination to hinder the development of American commerce.

Ambassador McCormick inquired concerning the Czarina, and learned that her recovery was proceeding and that no concern was felt regarding her condition.

KOREANS ADVOCATE SLAUGHTER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Seoul correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the native press is advocating the slaughter of all foreigners.

United States Minister Allen has ordered American women and children to remain indoors, and he predicts that rioting by the military is imminent.

M. Colin De Plancy, the French Minister, has advised the Emperor to take refuge in the French legation.

PEKING, Jan. 14.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The expectation of war is greatly increased in diplomatic circles here. The German Minister now regards war as a probability, although not despairing of a settlement at the eleventh hour. Heretofore he has regarded war as only a possibility. One legation has received a dispatch from Tokio saying that Foreign Minister Komura, January 11, represented to the diplomats that he expected peace to be maintained.

The appointment of Wu Ting Fang to be junior vice-president of the Foreign Office was the result of an audience to which the Dowager Empress today summoned Wu Ting Fang. They discussed foreign affairs, and particularly the prospects of war. The Dowager Empress asked for Wu Ting Fang's views on China's best policy. The appointment will please most of the other nations, as it enables them to deal with a diplomat trained in foreign methods, speaking English and able to grasp the questions presented to him. Wu Ting Fang, who has had an exceedingly gloomy view of the government's weakness since his return to Peking, now has a position in which he can exert influence for reform, though rank and age generally outweigh ability in the Chinese government councils.

Brig.-Gen. H. T. Allen, U.S.A., commander-in-chief of the Philippine constabulary, which arrived from Manila, was formerly military attaché at St. Petersburg, and will join the Russian army as an observer, in the event of war.

CONTINUES THE NEGOTIATIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 14.—Mr. Kurino, the Japanese Minister, informs the Associated Press that the Japanese reply had been handed to Baron de Rosen, the Russian Minister at Tokio, and that he (Kurino) would present to Count Lamsdorff, the Russian Foreign Minister, a duplicate copy. The Minister said he was not authorized to state the terms of the reply, but that it insured the continuance of negotiations concerning the Far East, as far as Japan is concerned.

PREPARING TO ANNEX.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Is Russia preparing formally to annex Manchuria? This is the question which is receiving much consideration from State Department officials and the representatives of the United States in European capitals. The State Department was informed today that Russia has assured the powers of its intention to respect treaty rights in Manchuria in all eventualities. The announcement of this purpose of Russia was sent to some powers in formal notes. Count Cassini did not see fit to send a note to this effect to the State Department, but stated Russia's purpose in a conference with Secretary Hay.

High officials in the State Department believe that Russia is preparing to assume absolute control of Manchuria, and regard Russia's assurances to the powers as the last stroke in the severance of Manchuria from China.

BASH WANTS A CONCESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PEKING, Jan. 15.—A. W. Bash, the American promoter who secured the Canton Hankow Railway concession, has applied for a concession for a railroad connecting Hankow and Amoy. Bash has been given a hearing by the Board of Commerce. It is said he represents a New York syndicate.

SOME RUSSIAN COMMENT.

FLEET ADMITTEDLY WEAK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Novoe Vremya, in a special dispatch from Tokio, tells of the great impression produced upon the Chinese by the determination of the United States to found consulates at Mukden and Antung. Developments are being anxiously awaited.

The Japanese are busy hiring transports. The Gazette considers that they are on the eve of breaking-off negotiations. The Viedomosti says: "God grant we may have peace." The Russ says: "Maybe our troops are numerous enough, but our fleet is weak and our stock of coal deficient. Are our opponents any better off?"

The Novoe Vremya publishes a long article showing the impossibility of Russia giving way to Japan and ends: "We are at the beginning of a fight which will be felt in every corner of the world."

LOUIS NAPOLEON WAITING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, Jan. 14.—Prince Louis Napoleon has informed a friend that he expects to be called to Russia at once, adding that war is expected by all.

"In case of mobilization," said the Prince, "my regiment would be one of the first to start. The whole of the Russian army is ready. The army does not desire war, but believes that it is inevitable. It is due to the Czar alone that hostilities have not already broken out."

Prince Louis Napoleon is a major-general in the Russian military service, and commands the cavalry division of the Caucasus at Tiflis.

PEACE NOT ANTICIPATED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Times Tokio correspondent says that notwithstanding the continuance of negotiations, the step that Japan is now taking suggests that a peaceful issue of the situation is not expected. The report says that it is believed that an imperial ordinance appointing consuls at Mukden and Tatung Kou will shortly be issued.

REPLY TO RUSSIA'S NOTE.

JAPAN'S COUNTER-PROPOSALS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Japanese Minister Takahira today called on Secretary Hay and informed him that the reply to the latest Russian note had been delivered this morning. The reply amounts to a denial of all the important Russian proposals, and sets forth Japan's counter-proposals which, it is said, are of a nature that will likely make them unacceptable to Russia. Therefore, a most pessimistic view of the future is taken at Tokio.

On the other hand, advices that come to the State Department from Paris and Berlin are all of a pacific character. The Japanese Minister has supplied to the State Department an abstract of the latest Japanese note. Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, on his part has acquainted the State Department verbally, as is his custom, with the nature of the Russian note, so that the department is fully informed, but as both these communications have been made in confidence, the officials do not feel they should make them public. Thus there has been no substantial change in the Japanese proposal or the Russian counter-proposal since they were sent out by the Associated Press in a semi-official dispatch last week.

CHINESE TROOPS MOVE.

NEW JAPANESE BATTLESHIP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Jan. 14.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail reports the gradual and extensive movement of Chinese troops toward Shanhai Kwan, in Chi Li province, probably with the view of securing the harbor of Ching Wantao, on the Gulf of Liaotung, and the coal mines thereabouts against Russian seizure.

The Daily Telegraph's Tokio correspondent says that the Japanese government, as a part of its programme of naval extension, has placed a contract for a 11,600-ton battleship.

WAR VESSELS ALL MAKE FOR SUEZ.

CANAL FULL OF FIGHTERS HEADED FOR THE FAR EAST.

Faint Hope at Tokio that Russia Will Back Down at Last Moment. Intimated that Japan's Note Was Conciliatory in Order to Gain Time.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 14.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Two large vessels belonging to the Russian volunteer fleet, carrying troops, passed through the Bosphorus today, bound for the Far East.

VESSELS AT PORT SAID.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORT SAID, Jan. 14.—The new Japanese cruiser, Kasaga, which arrived at Port Said yesterday from Genoa, has left for Suez. The Japanese armored cruiser Niasin, which sailed from Genoa with the Kasaga, has just arrived here. It is stated by the officers of the Niasin that the reports of an attempt to destroy their ship at Genoa are entirely false.

MOVING THROUGH CANAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SUEZ, Jan. 14.—Great interest is manifested in the movements of the Russian and Japanese warships in the canal. The Russia armored cruiser Dimitri Donskoi has arrived and is coaling near the British armored cruiser, King Alfred, which also is bound for the Far East.

The Japanese armored cruiser Kasaga left Port Said for Suez today and was shortly afterwards followed by her sister ship, the Niasin. At about the same time, the Russian battleship Oslabia arrived at Port Said.

BIG FIRE IN HAVRE.

Montana Town Has Great Losses.

Flames Start in Alley Off the Main Street and Destroy Business Section.

Five Hours After Danger is Supposed Past Conflagration Takes Fresh Hold.

Soldiers from Fort Prevent "Hard Cases" from Looting. Many Residences Burn.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

HELENA (Mont.) Jan. 15.—[Special.] As a result of a fire which started after midnight Wednesday, Havre, in the northern part of the State, the entire business portion of the town has been wiped out, entailing a financial loss of $250,000.

The fire started in an alley between a saloon and a business block on the main business street, just how, no one knows. In the immediate vicinity were a number of flimsy structures. There was an inadequate water supply and fire service, and by daylight, when the fire was thought to be out, the loss had reached $90,000, with half that amount of insurance.

Five hours after it was thought that the danger was over, a clerk in a drug store opened a door in the sidewalk in front of the store, and he was driven back by a sheet of flame. During the first fire, sparks had gotten under the sidewalk and had smouldered for hours, bursting into flame when the door was opened.

A high wind was blowing, and the flames soon spread from the drug store to other buildings. Efforts to stop the fire were fruitless, and not until three blocks in the business part were burned out and a block and a half of residences consumed, did there come a lull in the wind and a change in its direction. Then, when there was nothing left to be destroyed, the amazing fact came that the fire was out.

Havre is a border town and a railroad junction point, and it has many transient "hard cases." While the fire was at its height some of these men tried to loot the stores that were in the path of the fire. The commanding officer at Fort Assiniboine was asked for help, and he sent a company of soldiers to the town to prevent looting. The soldiers are on guard duty tonight.

A conservative estimate places the loss at $250,000, with about $140,000 insurance. Many people were rendered homeless, but there was no loss of life. Offers of assistance have been sent by other towns in the State.

The principal losses in both fires were:

Frank Chestnut, building and saloon stock, $10,000, insurance $6000; Stringfellow Drug Company, $12,000, insurance $5000; Sykes Furniture House, $14,000, insurance $8000; Montana Supply Company, $45,000, insurance $21,000; First National Bank, fixtures, $600; Hotel Havre, $25,000, insurance $22,500; M. A. Erlack & Son, $10,000, insurance $3000; Frank W. Sieber, bowling alley, $5000; Havre Wholesale Liquor Company, $30,000, no insurance; F. A. Buttrey, $25,000; Metropolitan Hotel $1000. About a dozen saloons and a score of private residences also were destroyed.

IRISH UNIVERSITY QUESTION.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—It is understood that a settlement of the Irish university question is imminent. The Catholic hierarchy has abandoned its demand for ecclesiastical control and has consented to accept the scheme proposed by Lord Dunraven, namely, the affiliation of the two new Catholic colleges with Dublin University.

GEORGE STORM ENDS LIFE.

Millionaire Tobacco Merchant Kills Himself, Fearing an Operation.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George Storm, the millionaire tobacco merchant and president of the Owl Commercial Company, ended his life by sending a bullet crashing through his brain this evening, in the office of his company. Five minutes before the millionaire merchant took his life, he chatted pleasantly with Peter Miller, secretary and treasurer of the company, and seemed in excellent spirits.

Miller said Storm had no business or domestic troubles, and the only explanation he could vouchsafe for the deed was that frequently, of late, Storm had suffered from fits of despondency over the prospects of an operation for appendicitis, an ordeal which he feared.

Storm organized the firm of Stratton & Storm, and was one of the bitterest enemies of the tobacco trust.

WASHINGTON.

HE TAKES TO TALL TIMBER.

Whiteside Desires to Keep His Big Tree Grove.

Two Million Dollars Can't Tempt Him to Sell.

Senator Latimore Plunging on Good Roads Funds.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senators Clapp and Nelson of Minnesota served notice on the California Senators today that they intend to oppose Senator Perkins's bill providing for the purchase or condemnation of the Calaveras Grove of big trees. They have been asked by R. B. Whiteside of Minneapolis, owner of the grove, to fight the bill. Whiteside told the Minnesota Senators that he would not sell the grove for $2,000,000, the amount named in the Perkins bill, and that if condemnation proceedings were instituted he could prove that the grove is worth more than that sum. Whiteside added that he would be here in a week or two, and asked that action be postponed until his arrival.

The Senate Committee on Public Lands has favorably considered the Perkins bill, and it was to be reported to the Senate tomorrow by Senator Burk, but in view of the notice from Clapp and Nelson, no action will be taken until Whiteside's arrival. An attempt will then be made to reach an agreement with him, either through a conference with Secretary Hitchcock, or through the good offices of the Minnesota Senators.

DINNER TO DIPLOMATS.

LARGE WHITE HOUSE PARTY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The annual dinner to the diplomatic corps was given at the White House by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt tonight. There was a large attendance, those present, in addition to the guests of honor, including Senators and Representatives who are members of the Foreign Affairs Committee of their respective houses and a number of out-of-town guests.

The President escorted Mme. De Aspiroz, wife of the Mexican Ambassador, to the table, while Mrs. Roosevelt was escorted by the Russian Ambassador.

GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT.

LATIMORE'S BIG "DIVVY."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The national good-roads movement is gaining in force. Representative Brownlow is its sponsor in the House, Senator Latimore of South Carolina is champion of the cause in the Senate. He is the author of the bill providing for a Bureau of Highways and appropriating $24,000,000 as a fund for the construction of roads throughout the United States.

Senator Latimore believes that the government can well afford to employ some of the $260,000,000 of the treasury surplus in the improvement of roads. He believes that roads, canals and harbors should be considered in the same class, and says that there is as much authority for Congress to take up the question of road improvement as the river and harbor improvements. In enterprises of the latter kind, he says, the country has already spent about $400,000,000, of which $18,000,000 has been used in constructing levees on the Mississippi River under the cooperative plan.

Senator Latimore's scheme is to distribute $24,000,000 among the States and Territories, according to population. He believes that good roads the country over will have the effect of greatly increasing the value of farm lands and also of farm crops. The general public will benefit by the improvements in getting their agricultural supplies at much cheaper rates than those now prevailing.

SERVICE PENSION BILL.

BACKED BY GRAND ARMY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—There will be introduced in Congress tomorrow, in the Senate by Mr. Dolliver of Iowa and in the House by Mr. Calderhead of Kansas, a service pension bill backed by the Grand Army of the Republic, which, if enacted into law, would give a pension of $12 a month to every soldier who served ninety days in the Union Army during the Civil War and who was honorably discharged therefrom and who has attained the age of 62 years. A like pension will be given to the widows of such soldiers in all such cases where the marriage took place before June 27, 1890.

The introduction of the bill is the result of the meeting in Washington of the Committee on Pensions of the Grand Army. The committee had an extended conference with the President during the day, and he assured them of his entire sympathy in the undertaking. They also talked with Pension Commissioner Ware about their work.

The bill, it is explained, is not designed to interfere with existing pension legislation, and it provides in terms that no soldier or widow receiving pensions under its provisions shall be entitled to a pension under any other law.

ARMY OFFICERS WAITING.

NOMINATIONS TIED UP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The nomination of Col. Albert J. Mills, superintendent of the United States Military Academy, to be a brigadier-general, vice Col. W. E. Dougherty, to be promoted and retired, will meet opposition in the Senate. In the Senate Committee on Military Affairs today objections to a favorable report to Col. Mills's nomination were made by Senators Blackburn and Scott. It is asserted by several Senators who are supporting the nomination of Brig.-Gen. Leonard Wood to be major-general that the opposition is not due to any antagonism of Col. Mills, but is a movement consistent with opposition from Senators to the confirmation of Gen. Wood. The committee passed Mills's nomination with a brief reference, and it is said it will not be taken up again until the contest over Wood's nomination has been settled in the Senate.

The failure of the Senate in executive session today to confirm the nomination of Brig.-Gen. William A. Kobbe, Joseph P. Sander, Alfred E. Bates and Wallace A. Randolph to be major-generals and then placed on the retired list resulted in the circulation of a report that they would not be given their advanced rank before retirement. Members of the Military Committee said that the nominations would be confirmed tomorrow. It was declared that no opposition had been raised to their confirmation.

THE CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—SENATE—Immediately after the Senate was called to order today, Mr. Pettus, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported the bill extending until 1906 the time for the settlement of claims of States for the equipment of troops for the Spanish-American War. The bill passed.

At the request of Mr. Hale, the consideration of resolutions touching the Postoffice Department was postponed until Monday next.

In accordance with his previous notice, Mr. Latimer of South Dakota discussed the question of good roads. He based his remarks on his own bill, providing a plan of combination between the national government and the various states for the improvement of public roads. He said that about one-third of our people living in country districts bear the responsibility and cost of maintaining the common roads. He contended that this is an unjust discrimination against them, and urged that the national government should bear part of the burden.

When Mr. Latimer concluded, the Colombian Panama resolution was laid before the Senate, and Mr. Newlands was recognized. He conceded that the President had not been bound because a reasonable time had not elapsed to turn from Panama to the Nicaraguan route. He also assented to the proposition that the United States had a grievance against Colombia on account of the rejection of the Hay-Herran treaty, but he contended that the action of the United States in preventing the landing of Colombian troops in Panama was an intervention that amounted to a declaration of war. He said also that our dealings with Colombia in the Panama affair had been in derogation of the treaty of 1846 between the United States and New Granada. He discussed at length the provisions of that treaty, and engaged in a controversy with Mr. Spooner as to the guaranty of the right of transit. Mr. Newlands contended that this guaranty did not go to the extent of authorizing the country to land troops for the purpose of attacking Colombia's sovereignty. If there had been cause for grievance, the question should, on the terms of the treaty, have been diplomatically presented. Then, and not until then, might there have been a resort to war.

DEPEW REPLIES TO NEWLANDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Mr. Newlands said he was willing to admit that the spirit of the treaty of 1846 called for the building of the canal. But even with that construction, Colombia's refusal to allow the building of the canal would not have been authority sufficient for landing of the United States troops in Panama as the result of the recent insurrection.

He said: "The honor of the United States demands prompt disavowal by the Congress of the United States, whose constitutional prerogative had been invaded by the lawless and unconstitutional acts of the Chief Executive."

Such disavowal would mean compensation in some form, Mr. Newlands added. He continued: "Had these outrages been committed by the Executive upon a great power, Congress would promptly disavow them, and shall the impotence of Colombia disqualify her from receiving satisfaction for injury inflicted on her by the unconstitutional action of this country's Chief Executive?"

Mr. Depew spoke in support of the administration in its conduct on the isthmus, and said that the opponents of the treaty were aiding the enemies of the canal. He controverted the argument that the position of the United States in recognizing the republic of Panama was a reversal of our national position on the question of secession in reviewing our diplomatic history in the recognition of new countries, Mr. Depew said:

"In the Providences of creation and decay of nations, no State ever became independent so completely, so righteously or so timely as Panama. The hour struck for her when the world was watching the clock. No President ever did a more timely or patriotic act than did President Roosevelt in his recognition and defense of the republic of Panama."

Mr. Depew ridiculed as absurd the contention of Mr. Newlands that the President had made war on Colombia.

After an executive session the Senate adjourned.

CONFIRMATIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Senate today in executive session confirmed the following nominations:

Maj.-Gen. Adna R. Chaffee to be lieutenant-general.

Brig.-Gen. George L. Gillespie to be major-general; Col. Alex McKenzie to be brigadier-general and chief of engineers.

Postmaster, California, James L. Matthews, Covina.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—HOUSE—When the House convened today, the Senate joint resolution authorizing the erection of a monument in memory of the late President Benjamin Harrison on land owned by the United States in the city of Indianapolis was passed.

The Senate bill authorizing the trustees of the Columbian University to change its name was passed.

The House then went into committee of the whole and resumed consideration of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Cowherd of Missouri moved to reduce the salary of the director of the census from $5000 to $5000. After discussion, the amendment, by a vote of 97 to 67, was passed.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

"State of Oklahoma."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Representative Robinson introduced a bill today providing for the admission of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory into the Union as the State of Oklahoma.

Rural Carrier at Concord.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Joseph C. Wayne was today appointed rural carrier at Concord and Edwin L. Sperry substitute.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] California postmasters appointed: Los Nietos, Los Angeles county, John A. Lewis; Puente, Los Angeles county, George E. Cross.

Petrified Forest Park.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The House Committee on Public Lands has reported favorably the House bill setting apart certain lands in the Gila and Salt River districts, Arizona, as a public park, to be known as the Petrified Forest National Park.

G.A.R. Pension Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A committee appointed at the last national encampment of the G.A.R. to bring to the attention of Congress some needed changes in the present pension laws met here today to draft the proposed legislation. As a body, the committee called today on the President to pay its respects and to enlist his interest and influence in securing the legislation desired. The President assured the committee of his entire sympathy in their undertaking.

Philippine Taxes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Comptroller of the Treasury has replied to an inquiry from Secretary Shaw on the subject, to the effect that the Secretary is not authorized to withhold from the separate fund remaining in the treasury as a special deposit with the treasurer of the United States for the benefit of the Philippine Islands, any sum collected by the islands authorized on account of tonnage taxes or immigrant head tax prior to the passage of the act of March 2, 1903. An exception is made to the head tax collected under the act.

Trueblood and Paine.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The House Committee on Foreign Affairs today heard a delegation including B. F. Trueblood and Robert Treat Paine in favor of the establishment of an international congress where questions of common interest to the nations would be discussed.

Consuls Provided for.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations today authorized a favorable report on the amendment to the Diplomatic and Consular Appropriation Bill, providing for the appointment of a consul-general at Mukden and a consul at An Tung at $4000 and a consul at Dalny at $3000. The House Committee on Foreign Affairs today authorized a favorable report on the bill creating consulates and providing for consuls at Mukden and Antung, China, and instructing Chairman Hitt to call the bill up in the House at an early date.

Promoting Naval Militia Interests.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The National Association of Naval Militia met today to frame a basis for legislation to promote the naval militia of the country. Later the fifty delegates present called on the President. The association approved what is known as the Hale Naval Militia Bill and the Hale Naval Reserve Bill. The Naval Militia Bill is fashioned after the Dick Army Militia Bill, and will put the naval militia on the same relative footing as the land forces. The militia will be purely State organizations.

Heard Harvey Scott.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The House Committee on Industrial Art and Expositions today heard Harvey W. Scott, editor of the Portland Oregonian and president of the Lewis and Clake Exposition Company, in support of a desired appropriation of $2,125,000 for the exposition, which is to be held in Portland, Or., in 1905. The appropriation was also advocated before the committee by Representatives Cushman, James and Humphrey of Washington and Williamson and Hermann of Oregon. A delegation from the Pacific Coast accompanied Mr. Scott.

Cruisers Leave Guam.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Navy Department received a cablegram today saying that the protected cruisers New Orleans, Albany, Cincinnati and Raleigh left Guam today for Cavite to join the rest of Admiral Evans's fleet.

Mocassin and the Elements.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Navy Department has reached the conclusion that the launching of the submarine torpedo boat Mocassin at Currituck Inlet was due entirely to the elements, and therefore will not appoint a court of inquiry to place the responsibility.

Persian Minister Departs.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Gen. Isaac Khan, the Persian Minister, who was promoted to the Austro-Hungarian mission and will leave for Vienna in a few days, called at the State Department today, officially to take leave of the Secretary of State. No announcement has yet been made of the appointment of a successor to Gen. Khan. In the interim, Baron Moucheur, the Belgian Minister, will look after the affairs of the legation.

Collector for Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Secretary Shaw has appointed James H. H. Canstan of the State of Washington collector of customs for the collection district of Porto Rico, with compensation of $4500 per annum. Canstan has been connected with the customs service in the Puget Sound and Alaska districts during the last nine years as deputy collector, and it is said he has performed excellent service.

Kahn-Livernash Contest.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The House Committee of Elections No. 1 today continued consideration of the Kahn-Livernash contested election case, involving the seat in the House from a San Francisco district. The ballots cast in the election are before the committee.

Amending the Canal Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations today considered an amendment to the Panama canal treaty directed to obtain for the United States greater concessions in regard to the jurisdiction over harbors adjacent to the cities of Panama and Colon. Both the Democratic and Republican members of the committee admit that the treaty does not guarantee the interests of the United States as fully as could be desired in the matter of harbor privileges. It is believed the amendment, in another form, will be accepted by the committee when it meets again tomorrow.

Open Colville Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Senate Committee on Indian Affairs today reported favorably on the bill to provide for the opening to settlement under the homestead law of the remaining portion of the Colville Indian reservation in the State of Washington.

Appeal for Arizona.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Delegate Wilson of Arizona appeared before the House Committee on Territories and made argument today for the Arizona Statehood Bill. His argument was devoted to the legal and statistical rights of Arizona to be admitted as a State.

France Will Tax Hemp.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Unless Congress enacts legislation removing the export duty on Manila hemp shipped from the Philippines to countries other than the United States, France threatens to impose a countervailing duty on hemp products imported from this country.

COLONY NOT EMBARRASSED.

Col. Holland, in Charge of Salvation Army Institution at Amity, Colorado, Denies Charges.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER (Colo.) Jan. 14.—Col. Thomas Holland, superintendent of the Amity Colony of the Salvation Army, emphatically denies charges of which the State Board of Charities and Corrections has taken cognisance, that the colony is suffering embarrassment financially, and that it will probably collapse, throwing the care of its 300 inmates on the State.

"The Salvation Army has already invested over $250,000 in the enterprise," said Col. Holland, "and its plans have been indorsed by some of the most influential people in the country and all the officials of the county in which the colony is located."

THROTTLING FRUIT TRADE.

Alleged that Chicago Packers Are Trying to Freeze Out Dealers by Special Railroad Contracts.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Jan. 14.—A fight against the alleged throttling of competition in the fruit and produce business by a prominent Chicago firm of packers was inaugurated today at the convention of the National League of Commission Merchants. John L. Scales of Chicago charged that a certain firm, by means of refrigerator cars which it owned and by reason of special contracts with railroads, was making an effort to secure control of the fruit business.

A set of resolutions alleging that the turning-over of refrigerator cars to one firm by contract was illegal and asking an appropriation of $1200 to fight the matter in the courts was passed.

Joseph Wright, an inspector of Chinese, and James Hodges, were killed in a freight collision near Malone, N. Y. Frank Mitchell was fatally injured.

WANTED, A GARDEN FOR GRIFFITH PARK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce has caused a letter to be written to Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, of which the following paragraphs are extracts:

"I am informed that the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Agricultural Department contemplates locating an exotic garden in Southwestern California, the purpose being to investigate the adaptability of that location to the growth of various foreign and domestic semi-tropical plants. My information is to the effect that a commission of three or four persons has been visiting various portions of this district during the past six months, and that a number of places have been under consideration. The question of the location of the garden in Griffith Park, which belongs to the city of Los Angeles, and is situated in the suburbs, has been considered by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles Municipal Art League and various other commercial and official bodies. These organizations, through you, desire to make certain inquiries and requests of the proper officials in Washington. It is scarcely possible for the city to submit a definite proposition, as the requirements on the part of the Federal officials are not known. The city, however, desires to call your particular attention to Griffith Park as a suitable place for the location of such a garden, for the following reasons: This park contains over 3000 acres, through which the Los Angeles River meanders. It ranges in elevation from approximately 500 feet above sea level to 2000 feet, containing both moist valley lands and mountain sides, both with southern and northern exposures, thus offering a great variety in soil and climatic conditions. In all probability the city will be willing to give continuous right of use to a reasonable portion of this park for this purpose.

"The Los Angeles River, rising from numerous springs almost entirely within this park, produces large areas of moist ground, and the diversion canals leading from the river toward the city are at such an elevation as to command a large portion of these lands. While no specific authority has been given, as yet, to permit free use of this water for a garden, the city certainly would seriously entertain some proposition, at least for a supply at a very moderate cost, possibly by gravity from the canals. If this cannot be arranged, pumping plants could be erected that in all probability would give satisfactory results, as the water plane is but a few feet beneath the surface of the ground in many portions of the park.

"The marked range in elevation and topographic features of the park are such that almost any desired condition can be obtained, the park covering not only the northern and southern exposures of the Cahuenga range, but also foothills and bottom lands with northern and southern exposures.

"In this location the densest population in the Southwest is situated; consequently a greater number of persons would visit the park, naturally, in this location than elsewhere. The railroads of Southern California center here, and it will be also accessible to out-of-town parties desiring to make inspections.

"The people of Los Angeles have not been particularly active in making a request for the location of a garden heretofore, because they have been unaware of the desires and intentions of the Agricultural Department in this matter, but they urgently and respectfully request that in case the Agricultural Department does contemplate the location of gardens in the Southwest that the city of Los Angeles be given due and full opportunity to present its arguments, favoring a location in Griffith Park, and time to formally submit definite proposals for assistance."

A similar letter has been written to Gifford Pinchot, forester of the Bureau of Forestry. It may be stated that Pinchot will be in San Francisco about the 16th of this month, and if the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce were to try real hard, it might induce him to return to Washington by way of Los Angeles, and so inspect this proposed location for the Department of Agriculture.

"BE SUNNY" AND CURE CANCER.

ALL THAT'S NECESSARY IS TO TAKE A SOLUTION OF RADIUM.

Latest Development in Treatment of This Disease Described by Hospital Physician Who Has Brought About Beneficial Results With Colorado Minerals.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Radium from minerals found in Colorado has been exhibited at a meeting of the Technology Club before which the latest developments in the treatment of disease by the use of liquids charged with radio-activity was described by Dr. William J. Morton of the New York Post Graduate Hospital, who said he had effected three complete cures of cancer with radium. Remarkable results were also said to have been achieved in cases of malaria and other diseases due to bacteria.

"I have experimented for six months," said Dr. Morton, "with solutions which become radio-active when exposed to radium for twenty-four hours. To give these solutions in very large doses would probably kill a human being and great care must be exercised in these experiments. Sunlight is a great curative agent and liquids charged with violet rays have practically the same effect.

"A later method is to employ solutions like quinine sulphate, which have the property of fluorescence. A patient may be given some of this solution and then, when radium in held near the body or the X-ray used, the liquid becomes luminous and sunlight may be said to flood the interior of the body. In chronic malaria, cancer of the liver and many other ailments this treatment has already shown good results.

"Up to the present I have treated cancer with radium by suspending the latter at a certain distance from the mouth of a goblet-shaped glass and applying the mouth over the affected part, and holding it there."

BIG FIRE AT HAVRE, MONT.

BUTTE (Mont.) Jan. 14.—A Miner special from Havre says that fire started in the Bank saloon late last night, which, with an entire block of other buildings, including several saloons, laundries, a bakery, two drug stores and many small houses, was destroyed. The loss was probably $150,000, with fair insurance.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
...OMA, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Another immense school of herring last night forced its way up the narrow channel connecting Nanaimo with Departure Bay, on the coast of Vancouver Island. It met the same fate as thousands of tons of herring have met before, running on the beach did the channel literally choked with herring, which were stranded to a depth of from one to five feet. Their white bodies covered the shore for miles, and a large number of Japs used tugs and scows for collecting dead herring for transportation to Departure Bay, where they were converted into guano. It is estimated then that a school of herring was responsible for the fear which reportedly actuated these myriads of small fish in thus seeking to escape their enemy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—The California Promotion Committee today approved of a plan promulgated at a meeting of the Merchants' Association for holding a world's fair in San Francisco in 1913.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS FROM THE WORLD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A high official of the British Foreign Office expressed the opinion tonight, after reading the text of Japan's reply to Russia's note, that the Far Eastern situation had reached a more critical stage. The Foreign Office, however, knowing thoroughly the political pulse at St. Petersburg, expects Russia to comply with Japan's new demands.

CROKER'S COLT CLONMELL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Richard Croker's colt Clonmell is being heavily supported for the Derby. The price against him is 100 to 3, but he has had strenuous backing at this figure, and is one of the comparatively few eligibles which have been taken at the odds offered. As a matter of fact, St. Amant, at 5 to 1; Henry First, at 11 to 3; Ajax and Gouvernant, coupled, at 100 to 15, and Clonmell, are the only candidates which have received support.

FOR WAR OR PEACE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOKIO, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Japanese officials are rapidly preparing for war, while diplomatic negotiations are in progress with Russia. It may be stated on authority that the Foreign Minister believes war inevitable, but he will exhaust every possible means to bring about peace.

OTHER BELLIGERENTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sharkey and Munroe are both training hard for their fight, the former in this city and the latter at Hot Springs. Bids of the clubs for the bout will be opened here tomorrow, and the place for the battle to be decided upon. Sharkey favors San Francisco.

MCLELLAN'S BIRTHPLACE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor McClellan said tonight: "I am a natural-born citizen of the United States, though born in Dresden. My parents were American-born, and I was born in the American legation house, under the United States flag, which is considered in law United States territory."

TELEPHERAGE FOR JAPS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Telepherage Company of this city has received a rush contract by cable from the Japanese government for telepherage machinery which will permit of rapid coaling by electricity of the Mikado's warships.

BEAUFORT WANTS A CHANGE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representative Croft of South Carolina today handed to the President a petition from business men of Beaufort, S. C., asking that J. B. Klinghorn, a white Republican, be appointed postmaster there instead of Mrs. Bomfield, a negress, who has served almost four years. The change is requested on the ground of her color.

HILL-HARRIMAN MERGER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The statement of well-informed railroad men in this city that a merger of Hill and Harriman interests is being planned is given support by the departure today for New York of General Manager George W. Holdredge of the Burlington. It was said at the headquarters that Hill and Harriman are calling all their general managers for a conference. The summoning of General Manager J. F. Wallace of the Illinois Central and Holdredge of the Burlington immediately followed.

OXNARD IN JOCKEY CLUB.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Henry T. Oxnard, known as the "Beet Sugar King," was elected a member of the Jockey Club today. Oxnard has raced horses for several years under the nom de plume of the Albemarle Stable, but he was not a member of the governing body of the eastern turf.

VOLCANO IS "MOONSHINE."

ANOTHER FAIR SENSATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fight over the millions of Charles L. Fair has developed another sensation. The French Foreign Office, the judges of the higher courts and eminent experts in international law here are already deeply involved in a problem that has arisen out of the arrests of Lucien Mas and Alfred Moragne at the instigation of Mrs. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Oelrichs for perjury, in their testimony, to the effect that Mrs. Fair survived her husband for some minutes after the accident. Their release was secured through the efforts of Senator Guerin. The French judge before whom the case was heard, asked an opinion on the legality of arrests for alleged perjury in New York from the Minister of Justice. The latter referred the matter to M. Delcasse, Minister of Foreign Affairs. M. Delcasse refused to decide the question, but passed it along to Ambassador Porter. Ambassador Porter has declined to interfere further than to refer the query to Secretary Hay of the State Department.

STOCKMEN FOR PANAMA CANAL.

Portland Convention Thanks the President.

Gov. Wells of Utah on Injurious Forest Reservation.

Legislation Against Railroads is Considered.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Jan. 14.—By unanimous vote and with great show of enthusiasm, the National Live Stock Association Convention today adopted resolutions heartily indorsing the policy of President Roosevelt with reference to building the Panama Canal.

Today the subjects of railroads and forest reserves were considered in relation to their effect upon the live-stock industry. Shortage of cars, slow time in transit and high tariffs formed the burden of a number of addresses bearing upon the first-mentioned subject. That legislation might be had remedying the exclusion of stockmen from forest reserves was the demand of every speaker on the public-land subject.

President Springer, on the opening of the afternoon session, stated that what the stockmen wanted and must have, if the railroad companies continue to withhold passes, is an elective railroad committee. "If the railroads insist on opposing us we will appoint an elective committee in every State west of the Mississippi River. We have had to spend money to learn a few things, but we have learned them. We have learned that we have power and can use it."

J. E. Stubbs of Nevada delivered an address on the subject "What Shall We Do With Our Grazing Lands?" He advocated the improvement of grazing lands by the observance of regulations made to protect the interests of the cattle man, the sheep man and the farmer. The speaker was in favor of the opening of the government reserves for use by stockmen. The development of the arid lands he particularly advocated.

Gov. Heber M. Wells of Utah was introduced and delivered an address on the topic of "The Policy of Government Relative to the Forest Reserves." He said:

"In a truly literal sense water is, with us of the arid regions, the life-blood of existence, the indispensable element without which our prosperity would vanish, our smiling commonwealth become a desert waste. We are peculiarly alert, therefore, to the benefits which anybody must recognize as the legitimate result of the protection and propagation of forests.

"We are, or ought to be, firm friends of the governmental forest reserve idea—with certain important limitations. I have various objections to urge against the policy of forest reservation as at present in vogue. Experience has shown that in the selection of many of these large tracts—so far as pertains to my own State, at least—there is the most ridiculous ignorance as to their nature and suitability for the purposes intended. Furthermore, they are altogether disproportionate in area to the needs which they propose to remedy. There is a woeful lack of discrimination and judgment in both these respects.

"The consequence is already apparent, the result is inevitable that our young men who choose to follow the soil for livelihood are compelled to go elsewhere. Certainly, the preservation of what remains of our forests and the protection of new growth is desirable, but it occurs to me that there is much which is futile and frantic in the present governmental concern over tracts which were either long since despoiled and are now much better suited to other purposes, or which are now and always will be destitute of timber growth.

"The prevailing plan of forest reserve brings us face to face with a dilemma which causes us great concern, not only for the grave reasons already cited, but for the menace confronting our important grazing industry. It is true, there are certain conditions and regulations under which the leasing of some of these reserves to stockmen may be effected. But while this modifies the evil it does not remove it. The actual purchaser or settler is still left out in the cold. He can neither lease nor buy; and yet he is of more avail than many steers or sheep.

"We look upon the question, after all, as one depending upon the survival of the fittest. Is the land more valuable for a precocious attempt to cultivate forests where they have grown but scantily, if at all, or for the making of homes for settlers and for the grazing of live stock, for which purposes its adaptability has been proved? If the former, go on with the forest reserve policy; if the latter, give the man, the steer and the sheep a chance."

F. H. Newell, chief hydrographer of the Geological Survey, addressed the convention in behalf of the commission appointed by President Roosevelt to investigate the conditions existing relative to public lands. He admitted that the time had come when something must be done relative to this matter.

Prof. Gifford Pinchot gave the convention some of his views on forest reserves and B. B. Brooks of Wyoming advocated State control of reserves and the issuance of grazing permits by the States.

A resolution was adopted expressing the thanks of the convention to President Roosevelt for his continued interest in behalf of the live-stock interests.

Jerry Simpson, the next speaker, expressed himself strongly in favor of the leasing of public lands, and urged that something be done to protect the public reserves from being gobbled up by speculators.

A new Executive Committee was chosen, which includes the following members: E. S. Feeney, Flagstaff, Ariz.; H. A. Jastro, Bakersfield, Cal., and John Sparks, Reno, Nev.

INDORSE PANAMA CANAL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Jan. 14.—The first action of the National Live Stock Association Convention this morning was to unanimously adopt a resolution indorsing President Roosevelt's policy relative to the construction of the Panama Canal. The resolution, a copy of which was ordered sent to President Roosevelt, follows:

"Resolved, that the sincere thanks of the entire membership of the National Live Stock Association, in convention assembled at Portland, Or., are hereby enthusiastically tendered President Theodore Roosevelt for his untiring and successful efforts to bring about the building of the great Panama Canal, the completion of which, in the judgment of this organization, will be the crowning achievement of the twentieth century."

Legislation in the interest of the live-stock industry was the general topic of discussion before the convention session. The legislation desired is principally in connection with the handling of live stock by railroads, the passage of the bill providing for a classified census of live stock and measures in relation to the use of government reserves for grazing ranges. Suggestions as to how desired legislation may be secured were made by the delegates.

A. S. Hallewell spoke on "Foreign Hides and American Live Stock Producers." He said, in part:

"The proposition to throw down the tariff bars that now serve to limit, if even in a small degree, the number of South American and other foreign hides that reach this country, is a serious thrust at the business of the live-stock grower. The one certain thing in a reduction of the duty on hides would be that ranchmen and stock farmers would have to foot the bills.

"The hide dealers and the tanners are not slow to make their demands for free hides. They have taken advantage of the consumer and would now put additional screws to the producer. Boots and shoes cost much less to make than they used to, but they do not cost the wearer any less. The live stock producers of the United States have a right to demand that what they produce shall enjoy as much trade protection as given to those who engage in the final process of manufacture."

A number of resolutions were adopted. One favored the passage of the pure food bill. Resolutions were also adopted indorsing the Lewis and Clarke Fair, and favoring the passage of the Congressional Appropriation Bill for the fair. A final resolution was passed, demanding the transfer of the control of government reserves from the Department of the Interior to that of Agriculture.

W. W. Cotton of Oregon addressed the convention on "The Relation of Transportation Companies to Live Stock Industry." The speaker compared the requirements in handling wheat and cattle and pictured the greater difficulties attendant upon moving stock and explained high rates in this manner. He quoted figures to show that the wheat man had to pay higher freightage on short distances, and did not have his product handled with anything like the dispatch that cattle are. The speaker declared that it was useless for the stockmen to try by legislation to get a speed of twenty miles on hour by freight trains unless they were willing to pay the extra expense. He advised cooperation between the stock raisers and railroad men rather than attempts at legislation.

On "Discrimination of Transporation Companies," L. A. Allen of Missouri, an address was read by F. S. Downs of Kansas City. It was declared that in the matter of car supply and speed in transit the roads are giving the poorest service in the history of railroads. It was held that the live stock men are suffering from unwarranted increases in rates, the refusal of passes and discrimination. The cause of this condition, it was said, was the community of interest combination, and the arbitrary action of railway magnates in trying to get all the earnings of the shipper. It was suggested that a resolution be adopted favoring legislation requiring the railroads to give better service.

A paper by B. F. Saunders of Texas on "Are Railroads Fair to Stock Raisers?" was read by F. P. Johnson. It was held that the action of railroads in relation to live stock interests was responsible to a large extent for the demoralized condition of the range stock business. The paper stated that when there was competition between the roads the stockmen fared better, but present mergers and combinations leave the stockmen without recourse.

EX-GOV. BUSHNELL DEAD.

End Comes to Ohio's Former Chief Executive at Columbus—Stricken With Apoplexy Monday.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

COLUMBUS (O.) Jan. 15.—Former Gov. Asa S. Bushnell died at 1:35 a.m. Ex-Gov. Bushnell was stricken with apoplexy Monday evening as he was about to take a train in Columbus for his home in Springfield, O. He had attended the inauguration of Gov. Herrick. He was removed to a hospital, where he lay in a critical condition until his death this morning.

From a position as bookkeeper he rose to a partnership in the Wardner, Bushnell and Glessner Company, manufacturers of farming implements, of which he became president in 1886. He served in the Civil War, being mustered out with the rank of captain. Two weeks ago he divided three-quarters of a million dollars among members of his family, a New Year's gift.

FIFTEEN CHURCHES CLOSED.

Chicago Building Commissioner Discovers Violations of Ordinances. Also in Hearst's Office.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Fifteen churches today were closed by the police on reports submitted to Building Commissioner Williams that violations of the ordinances had been discovered in each.

In addition to closing the churches, notice was served by the Building Commissioner on J. C. Eastman, manager of Hearst's Chicago American, that the structure occupied by the publication did not comply with the rules of the department. Twenty days are allowed in which to make the required alterations.

POSTPONE CONSIDERATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—From action taken tonight by the City Council at a special meeting, it is evident that Chicago theaters will not be able to reopen for some time. The meeting of the Council was for the purpose of considering the revision of the building ordinances. There has been much adverse criticism of the proposed changes in the building ordinances.

When the measure was called up Alderman Mayer moved that consideration be deferred; that all the proposed amendments be published and that the whole subject be taken up when the Council was conversant with the proposed changes. Alderman Foreman seconded the motion. The motion was passed and all consideration of the new ordinance was postponed.

EVIDENCE IN FRUIT CASES.

Merton and Stubbs Testify at Washington.

Final Arguments by Counsel Commence Today.

President Leeds Gives Notice of Rock Island Bonds.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Interstate Commerce Commission today took final evidence in the cases of the Consolidated Fruit Forwarding Company and the Southern California Exchange against the Southern Pacific and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé railroad companies. In both cases the Continental Fruit Express Company and Armour & Co. appeared as interveners. In 1900 the Interstate Commerce Commission first began hearings upon these cases and the several points at issue between shippers and railroad companies. After many hearings there was a decision on one point, viz., that of routing, and it was decided by the commission that shippers might route their fruits by any line they saw fit. In making a decision upon that point, the commission took occasion to say:

"The evidence is unsatisfactory as a basis for definite conclusions upon the following questions: Whether the defendant carriers pool their citrus-fruit traffic or divide the earnings therefrom; whether a blanket rate of $1.25 per hundred pounds upon oranges and other citrus fruits from Southern California to points on and east of the Missouri River and the minimum carload weight of 26,000 pounds are unjust or unreasonable under the provisions of the statute; whether the statute applies to charges for refrigerating, and if so, whether these refrigerating charges are unjust or unreasonable. These questions are retained by the commission for further hearing and investigation."

So today's hearing was upon the points that the commission stated it retained for future consideration, and at today's hearing there appeared J. H. Call of Los Angeles as special attorney for the Interstate Commerce Commission; W. T. Herrin of San Francisco, representing the Southern Pacific; Robert Dunlop, representing the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé, and L. C. Krauthoff, representing Armour & Co.

Only two witnesses were examined today. They were Paul Morton, vice-president of the Santa Fé Railroad, and J. C. Stubbs, representing the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific companies. Stubbs merely went over the testimony that has been thrashed over by the commission several times before, and the only new point brought out in the examination of Morton was in regard to the ownership and scope of the Santa Fé Refrigerator Despatch, which has been organized and put into operation since these cases were first brought. Morton said that this company, which is a car line, is capitalized at $6000 and all of the stock is owned by the Santa Fé Company. He said that it operates over the Santa Fé line or over any other line from which it can get business.

Tomorrow morning final arguments will be commenced before the commission, and they will be concluded either tomorrow evening or Saturday.

BANQUET TO BURT.

BANCROFT SUCCEEDS HIM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

OMAHA, Jan. 14.—A banquet was given tonight to the retiring president, Horace G. Burt, of the Union Pacific, by his friends. President Burt will retire from the Union Pacific road tomorrow, and will leave at once for Chicago.

Tonight it was officially stated that W. H. Bancroft, vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line, has been selected to succeed Burt in control of the affairs of the Union Pacific, and his appointment will be made public tomorrow by President Harriman. Bancroft will make Omaha his headquarters, but he will spend a portion of his time in Salt Lake, which is his home.

The selection of Bancroft comes as a natural sequence of the changes which have been made on the Oregon Short Line in the last eight months. That portion of the Oregon Short Line south of Salt Lake City was turned over to Senator Clark's road, known as the San Pedro line, which is to be extended from Salt Lake City to the coast of Southern California. The portion of the Short Line which remained under the management of Bancroft was of inconsiderable extent, and it has now been practically consolidated with the Union Pacific system—a plan contemplated by Harriman for some time.

The controlling power in the San Pedro line was for a long time somewhat of a mystery, and it was presumed that Senator Clark was another Richmond in the railroad world. It has become known recently that Senator Clark and Harriman were working in entire harmony, and the presumption now is that the same financial interests which control the Harriman lines now control the San Pedro.

William H. Bancroft, whose appointment as general manager of the Union Pacific is announced, has been vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line, with headquarters in Salt Lake for the past eight years. He was born in Newberry, O., in October, 1845. His first railroad service was as telegraph operator for the Michigan Southern, with which company he remained until 1868, when he entered the employ of the State as dispatcher. From 1869 to 1871, he was connected with the Kansas Pacific, when he became assistant superintendent of the Santa Fé. From 1881 to 1886, he was superintendent of the Denver and Rio Grande, when he was appointed receiver and general superintendent of the Rio Grande Western. Since then he has been connected with the Union Pacific and the Short Line.

CALVIN'S PROMOTION NEXT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Jan. 14.—The Herald tomorrow will say: "W. H. Bancroft, vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, was yesterday afternoon appointed vice-president and general manager of the Union Pacific. He assumed the duties of his office at once. Bancroft retains his position as vice-president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line. He will be the active operating head of both roads.

"E. B. Calvin, assistant general manager of the Oregon Short Line, will be in direct charge of the operating end of this road. It is believed by well-informed men that the next change will be the promotion of Mr. Calvin to be operating chief of the two systems, Mr. Bancroft being sent still further up the line.

OREGON SHORT LINE'S GAIN.

PART OF THE U. P. TRACK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SALT LAKE (Utah) Jan. 14.—The Deseret News tonight says that it is semi-officially stated that the reason for the recent hasty visit to New York of Vice-President W. H. Bancroft of the Oregon Short Line Railroad is the making of final arrangements for turning over a portion of the main line of the Union Pacific, running between Ogden and Green River, Wyo., to the Oregon Short Line and its future operation as part of that road.

It is stated that the new order will go into effect either the first or fifteenth of February. The Union Pacific trackage in question is 177 miles long.

ROCK ISLAND BOND ISSUE.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—President W. B. Leeds of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company sent a circular today to the stockholders of the company, setting forth that at the meeting to be held March 21 next, they will be asked to approve a bond issue of not exceeding $163,000,000, the bonds to bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent, and to mature in 1994. Of the total sum, $15,000,000 are to be issued forthwith; $82,025,000 are to be reserved for retiring various Rock Island bonds; $13,500,000 are reserved to be issued to provide funds to the amount of 75 per cent. of the purchase price of other companies which may hereafter be acquired by the company; $27,475,000 are reserved to be issued (not more than $4,500,000 in any one year) for the cash cost of future improvements or betterments, and $25,000,000 are to be held by the trustees to be issued from time to time as the company shall furnish to the trustees certificates stating that it has, subsequently to January 1, 1904, expended an amount of cash equal to the market value of the new bonds so issued for the acquisition of property which the railway company may lawfully acquire or in permanent improvements or betterments, including equipment on the railroads, subject to the new mortgage.

The circular sets forth that the board of directors decided it to be preferable at present to restrict refunding operations to the requirements for the ensuing thirty years. This plan was deemed better than the former proposition, which contemplated a refunding period of eighty-five years. It was also thought advisable to limit the aggregate amount of the proposed issue to a sum which should make the new bonds available for investment under the New York savings-bank law.

Union Pacific Committee.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The Executive Committee of the Union Pacific Railroad met here today, but the matter was said to have been routine in character, and no action was taken regarding an additional vice-presidency or the general managership.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS'S SON WEDS

PITTSBURGH, (Pa.) Jan. 14.—Miss Helen Cassidy of Pittsburgh and Warren C. Fairbanks, son of Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, were married tonight in St. Peter's Episcopal Church. The wedding was brilliant and a reception was given after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks tonight started for California, where they will stay for some time.

COL. MILLSOP ASSASSINATED.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14.—A special to the Republic from Dallas, Tex., says that word has been received from Roby, Tex., that Col. Millsop, one of the most prominent cattle men of Western Texas, was assassinated tonight by some unknown man, who fired through a window of the Lacy Hotel and riddled his body with buckshot. The assassin escaped.

GOV. PARDEE'S DENIAL.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 14.—Gov. Pardee denies the truth of the story telegraphed from Washington, to the effect that he was or is opposed to the big camp at Nacimiento ranch. He says that all he wrote was one letter, that if the camp had not been inspected as to sanitary conditions, then the recommendations of the Surgeon-General ought to be followed and the camp be inspected.

LABOR.

HAD TO GIVE UP SALOON.

Tie up Largest Glass Works on Pacific Coast.

Strikers Would Not Heed Plan to Settle Question.

Union Picket's Camera Smashed—Truce Off.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The works of the Illinois Pacific Glass Company, the largest glass works on the Pacific slope, are deserted and fully 1000 employés rendered idle without warning and without apparent cause. The glass blowers struck, and that threw all other employés out of work; and all for a paltry disagreement, which should have been adjusted without friction.

The trouble originated over the right of men to leave the factory at will during working hours, which is denied by the management. The factory is worked day and night in shifts. The glass blowers are allowed rests of fifteen minutes, called "tonga," at stated time during working hours. At the afternoon tonga it was found that the blowers went to saloons with young helpers and the result was bad for the boys. So the management adopted the rule, now general in the East, but the men refused to accept it. The management agreed to refer the matter to the president of the National Glassblowers' Association, but the men insisted upon the rule being revoked before referring the question. So the strike came and many poor people, and especially boys and girls, are suffering.

STRIKERS ALLOW UNION HEARSES.

RESUMPTION OF TROUBLE WITH CHICAGO DRIVERS.

End of Truce Following Iroquois Theater Fire Again Finds People Making Use of Street Cars to Get to the Cemeteries.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—The strike of livery drivers began anew today after a truce of fifteen days following the Iroquois fire. Ninety-five per cent. of the 1600 drivers of carriages and hearses are said to be out, and only the black undertakers' wagons were put into service, in lieu of hearses at funerals, while mourners were obliged to resort again to the street cars in journeying to the cemeteries.

To avoid the distressing interference with the burial of the dead, witnessed at the beginning of the strike, a modification of the strike order was made, and before the day was over hearses manned by union drivers were at the disposal of every liveryman in the city.

BIG STRIKE THREATENS.

NON-UNION MEN THE CAUSE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—A general strike of three thousand men employed on the Rapid Transit Subway may grow out of trouble with a small force of tile layers. Fifty of the latter have quit and the workmen on a power house in Fifty-ninth street followed by presenting an ultimatum declaring that unless the non-unionists now engaged in placing equipment in the building are discharged the entire force will quit. Every effort will be made to avert trouble.

Under the agreement between the Rapid Transit Contractors' Association and the Rapid Transit committee of the Central Federated Union, all matters are to be arbitrated between committees of both before a strike is ordered, but this formality was not observed in the strike of the tile layers.

NEED NOT JOIN UNION.

JUSTICE DICKEY'S DECISION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Justice Dickey decided today that labor unions cannot arrange a plan to compel workmen not affiliated with their organizations to join the same, at the price of being deprived of employment.

Three employés of the United States Printing Company brought suit to restrain this firm from discharging them, and also to enjoin Stereotypers' Union No. 1 and Electrotypers' Union No. 1 from ordering a strike of the company's employés because of the plaintiff's continuance in its service.

The printing company's shop was non-union. A boycott had been placed upon it by the unions. The company's business was injured to such an extent that it was compelled to enter into an agreement with the unions, whereby the shop was made a union one and all employés were required to join the unions.

Justice Dickey said: "I think it well that these issues should be tried out and that the injunction should be continued as to defendants other than this printing company until the case is tried and decided."

SCHMITZ ON HIS KNEES.

BAKERS' UNION MASTER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor Schmitz had to revise his appointment of baker at the City and County Hospital or have a strike on his hands. The old baker at the hospital was Patrick Gallagher, in good standing with his union, but a political exigency required a change, and M. A. Kapp was named by the Mayor. Kapp showed up on Monday, and on Tuesday a walking delegate of the Bakers' Union visited the hospital to investigate the new baker's standing. He found Kapp had a card from the Marine Cooks' and Stewards' Association, but this did not entitle him to hold a baker's position within the jurisdiction of the Bakers' Union.

SMASHED PICKET'S CAMERA.

STRIKER WAS TAKING PICTURE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive, Dispatch.] Mathias Johnson, who led the restaurant proprietors in the recent strike and then resigned from their association because his associates compromised with the Cooks' and Waiters' Union, was arrested today for smashing the camera of one of the union pickets in front of his Market-street restaurant.

Last week Johnson caught one of the boycotters taking photos of his patrons and he promptly had the fellow arrested. Today, when no police officer was near, two fellows appeared with a camera and began taking snap-shots of everyone who entered the restaurant. Johnson remonstrated with them, but they paid no attention to him. Then he kicked their camera into the street. The two men swore out a warrant against Johnson for disturbing the peace. Later one returned and again began taking snap-shots, when Johnson had been arrested. The cases will come up tomorrow.

Since Johnson forced the police to clear the crowds of union loafers from in front of his place he has done a large business. Many people walk a long distance to patronize him because of his manly stand against the offensive tactics of the Cooks' and Waiters' Union.

To Organize Santa Fe Machinists.

TOPEKA (Kan.) Jan. 14.—Representatives of the machinists' unions at different points on the Santa Fé from Chicago to California are in Topeka for the purpose of forming a division of the National Machinists' Union here. W. R. Wilson, fourth vice-president of the Machinists' Union, addressed the machinists tonight and they agreed to form the organization.

Santa Fe Firemen's Grievance.

TOPEKA (Kan.) Jan. 14.—No decision has as yet been reached by the Santa Fé regarding the claims of the firemen's grievance committee, now in session here. A number of conferences between the committee and General Manager Mudge have been held. Both sides refuse to give out the progress of the negotiations, which are understood to be regarding wages.

GORMAN DOES AS EXPECTED.

Will Not be Candidate, but Will Pass as the Democratic Warwick.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BALTIMORE (Md.) Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Gorman has practically eliminated himself from the Presidential race. This statement is made on the authority of his own party followers, hailing from important Western, Southern and Eastern States. Gorman has, in fact, arrayed himself on the side of the Democratic leaders who demand a compromise between the radical and conservative branches of the party organizations. He advised the abandonment of the monetary issue and a conservative attitude toward trusts, and he would have the Democracy endeavor to restrain the President in foreign affairs.

To fit the policy so constructed, he believes the Presidential candidate should be a Democrat who has gone to no extreme in Clevelandism or Bryanism. He wants the Cleveland votes in the East and the Bryan votes in the West. He believes that Judge Parker meets these assumed essentials of unification, and that he will be stronger than himself or any other man who might be named in New York, Indiana, New Jersey and Connecticut.

His theory of the approaching campaign is to meet Republicanism on all the old battlegrounds and with all the new weapons, and to oppose to President Roosevelt, if he is the Republican nominee, a candidate who will invite the support of conservative business men. These are the reasons that incline Gorman toward Parker.

Indiana brought the Shively boom for Vice-President eastward to the meeting of the National Committee in Washington Tuesday.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The weather in Chicago today was clear and cold. The maximum wind velocity was thirty-five miles, southwest, at 1:28 a. m.; maximum temperature 20 degrees, 6 p. m.; minimum temperature 6 degrees at 6 a. m. Middle West temperatures: Buffalo 20, Cairo 36, Cheyenne 44, Cincinnati 36, Cleveland 28, Concordia 40, Davenport 32, Denver 48, Des Moines 20, Detroit 24, Dodge City 38, Dubuque 26, Duluth 6, Edmonton 6, Grand Rapids 24, Green Bay 14, Indianapolis 24, Kansas City 48, Little Rock 50, Memphis 48, Medicine Hat 20, Milwaukee 16, Nashville 34, Omaha 36, Pittsburgh 30, Pueblo 44, St. Louis 22, St. Paul 16, Springfield, (Ill.) 30, Springfield (Mo.) 42, Wichita 48, Winnipeg 14.

"IOWA IDEA'S" NEW MEANING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DES MOINES (Iowa) Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Cummins, in his inaugural address today, gave the "Iowa idea" a new turn, and it now stands for free trade with Canada in agricultural products and for reciprocity with all the world. The Governor declared he did not believe in "standing pat." He did not believe in "letting well enough alone," as applied to any State or nation. "When any society ceases to grow better, it has begun to grow worse," he declared. The Governor told the farmers of Iowa that they would be the gainers by the admission of the agricultural products of Canada into this country, for, by so doing, he declared, a treaty could be entered into which for years to come would "make us practically masters of the imports into that Dominion."

STATE MAKE ANTI-TOXIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Jan. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "The only real solution of the anti-toxin trust is the plan of having all anti-toxin used in America made by and under the complete control of the State," said Dr. J. N. Hurley, secretary of the Board of Health. "Such a plant would cost the State $200,000. The plant must be located in the country, and be conducted with the greatest care as to sanitation and cleanliness."

LAW STUDENT'S THEFT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ANN ARBOR (Mich.) Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James Hanby, a junior law student at the University of Michigan, was arrested today, and confessed to stealing $30 worth of student's books. He is a well-to-do Philadelphia boy. He stole the books from his best friends and from students to whom he had often loaned more money than the stolen books were worth. He wrote a check for $500 on a Philadelphia bank for his bonds.

JOINT BARGAIN IN SHOES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ALBANY (Ind.) Janu. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] J. J. Lapoint and John Short, former railroad switchmen, each of whom has lost a foot, have made a queer compact. Discovering that each wears the same size shoe, they have arranged to buy their footwear together hereafter, and save money. They made the first purchase in partnership in a local shoeshop yesterday, at a cost of $1.50 each, one taking the right and the other the left shoe.

PANAMAMAS WOULD ANNEX.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Annexation to the United States was the predominating desire in Panama when I left," said Rutherford R. McCormick who returned today from a trip across the isthmus. "They all want it—the three members of the Panama Junta, who realize they would be summarily shot if the Colombian government were restored to power; the business men, all the foreign residents, hotel keepers, restaurateurs—even the cab drivers—are eager to secure the protection of this country."

McCormick, with Robert McGann, left Chicago December 23 for Panama. The two Chicagoans went to Costa Rica, on the yacht of Minor C. Keith of the United Fruit Company, and then to Colon, where they remained a few hours before continuing their journey to Panama.

MRS. POTTER PALMER RETURNS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

After almost nine months abroad, Mrs. Potter Palmer arrived in Chicago tonight. She was met at the railroad station by her son, Honore Palmer, and they drove to the Palmer residence on Lake Shore drive, where Mrs. Palmer was welcomed by other members of the family. She said she had entirely recovered from her recent illness. The trip to Chicago, she declared, had been without incident, except for the lateness of the train, which did not reach Chicago until four hours after it was due.

PROF. STARR'S YEZO JOURNEY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

Prof. Frederick Starr, head of the department of anthropology at the University of Chicago, left tonight on his way to Yezo, the northernmost island of the Japanese group. He will bring back for the St. Louis Exposition some of the Ainos, the "hairy people," who inhabit the island. He will sail from Vancouver January 21.

MANILA CHEERS COIN COMMISSION.

ACT PROHIBITING MONEY NOT ON GOLD BASIS IN EFFECT.

Constable Who Turned Pirate Escapes from Confinement and is Still at Large—Additional Charges Against Former Officials Charged With Conspiracy.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MANILA, Jan. 14.—[By Manila Cable.] The act prohibiting the importation of all silver coin which is not upon a gold basis became a law today and the members of the commission have been loudly cheered for their promptitude in meeting the demands of the mercantile classes in this respect. Action upon the supplemental act providing for a tax upon all written contracts made payable in bonds or foreign coin not upon a gold basis has been postponed for a week.

George Herman, a one time chief inspector of constabulary, who, in company with C. J. Johnson, constabulary officer, when both were stationed at Misamis, Mindanao, robbed the government and then started upon a piratical cruise on a vessel they stole, has just escaped from confinement at Cebu and is still at large. When Herman was finally captured off Bayauan by one of the parties in search of him, Johnson was found dead in the abandoned boat, having been shot the day before by the constables in a fight during which Herman shot and killed four men, escaping for the time being.

The government has decided to file additional charges against W. D. Ballantine, ex-inspector at this port, and John T. Miller, an ex-Inspector of Immigration, both of whom were recently acquitted of a charge of conspiracy to import Chinese coolies into the Philippine Islands, disguised as merchants and on false certificates.

READY TO FIGHT.

REPUBLICANS EXPECT VICTORY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PANAMA, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Authentic information from the frontier is anxiously awaited here, as the belief is widespread that the Colombians have already started to march upon the isthmus. The Panamanian troops are ready to leave on a moment's notice. Conscription has been completed, and 13,000 fighting men can be placed in the field.

There is a great bustle in the armory today, in preparation for the shipment of rifles and ammunition to the Indians of the interior, who have agreed to join against the Colombian forces. Col. Barreto of the Panamanian army said today:

"We, who were Colombians until yesterday, cannot be deceived by any tactics the Colombians may employ. We are deeply grateful for what aid Americans have given us, especially as we are now prepared to fight our own battles on land with the utmost confidence of victory.

"Four hundred to five hundred men, stationed in the only three passes available, can defeat an army. We have all the men we actually need, for the fighting will be done in the mountains. We expect to repel invasions without calling out all the available troops. The Indians will certainly fight on our side. The San Blas Indians, who are the Colombian allies, will not fight at all."

The Junta has denied the petition of the inhabitants of the island of Salandres de Providencia for annexation to the republic of Panama, as it will not be possible to protect the island in an emergency. The islanders complain bitterly because the Colombian troops who recently went there demanded $10,000 war tax, sacked many houses and treated the women brutally. For these reasons the inhabitants sought to sever connection with Colombia.

Newspapers received from Bogota contain a long letter from President Marroquin, calling upon patriotic citizens to contribute funds liberally to assist the republic in the impending struggle to regain its lost territory.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

FIRST CHOICE OF OFFICERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PANAMA, Jan. 14.—[By Central American Cable.] The first preliminary session of the constitutional convention was held today, and the first regular session will be held tomorrow.

The convention elected Dr. Pablo Arosemana, temporary president, and Dr. Louis Dereux, temporary vice-president. It was understood that Dr. Emanuel Amador would be a candidate for the presidency of the convention, but as he is a candidate for the Presidency of the republic, he declined to preside over the deliberations.

The Constitution will be ready for promulgation within ten days, when Dr. Amador will probably be elected the first Constitutional President of the Republic of Panama.

FIXING PRESIDENTIAL TERM.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—The National Business League today began a movement to amend the Constitution of the United States so as to fix the Presidential term at six years and make the President ineligible for reelection.

DEFEATS GOVERNMENT FORCES.

BUENOS AYRES, Jan. 14.—According to a dispatch from Montevideo, Uruguay, Gen. Muniz, with 2500 government troops, has been obliged to beat a retreat, owing to numerical superiority of the revolutionists. War Minister Vasquez is expected to take supreme command of the Uruguayan government troops. The government forces were defeated January 11 at

ONE PEACEFUL SPOT IN POLITICAL POOL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Hanna will get back to Washington in a few days, after having been elected United States Senator from Ohio for another term, and it was denied from the White House today that the President has any intention whatever of asking Senator Hanna to declare himself again in regard to the Presidential campaign.

Hanna's reappearance in Washington will be the signal for another outburst against the renomination of the President, but from all surface indications it merely will be an "outburst." While there is great excitement among the opponents of the President, and they are beating tom-toms with ferocious activity, especially in Washington, and distorting the utterances of various public men, at the White House everything is serene. The President, when asked any questions, merely denies that he is doing any "political tumbling," and follows his unbroken policy of having no political manager or mouthpiece.

While all this clamor is going on, it ought to be recorded that the most peaceful political spot in all Washington, if not in the entire country, is the President's office in the White House.

ONE AUCTION SALE OF OUR ORANGES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The effect of milder weather was shown in the increased demand for store fruit stock today. In oranges and grapefruit, interest was confined to fancy grades, and these brought satisfactory prices, as they are not plentiful. Common stock, more particularly in Florida oranges, was weak and neglected, and to move it sellers had to accept buyers' prices. In lemons the movement continued light, but the tone of the market on desirable fruit was steady.

At an auction sale today, twenty-two cars of California oranges were put up. The best offerings brought 2.10@2.25 for 96s; 2.15@2.35 for 126s; 2.25@2.30 for 150s; 2.35@2.50 for 176s; 2.40@2.60 for 200s; 1.90@2.15 for 216s, and 2.00@2.10 for 136s. Ordinary fruit sold at a range of 1.25@1.95 for 96s; 1.55@1.90 for 126s; 1.60@1.85 for 150s; 1.60@2.05 for 176s; 1.65@2.15 for 200s; 1.65@1.90 for 216s, and 1.50@1.90 for 250s. The regular market was unchanged.

One buyer, backed by unlimited credit, bought every share offered, and stood pat on every contract from $17 a share all the way up to $105. Later, these shares turned up in the possession of the representative of the Lawson-Rogers-Addicks pool, and finally, when the Amalgamated Copper Company found it necessary to take over $1,838,500 of the stock of Butte and Boston, Thomas W. Lawson was on the spot ready to deliver the goods.

AIMS CREDIT OF INVENTING PHONES

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

...Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dis... ...practically de... A. G. Bell of the ...telephone and ...Henry C. Strong was filed in the United States Circuit Court today in the report of the special examiner appointed by Judge Kohlsaat in 1901 to take evidence in a case in which the Atlantic and Western Telephone Company asks for $50,000,000 damages for alleged infringements upon Inventor Strong's patents.

The defendants in the suit are the American Bell Telephone Company, the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Chicago Telephone Company and the Central Union Telegraph Company. The basis for the suit is the invention to facilitate long-distance telephoning, for which Strong secured a patent in 1885. Attorney Ossian Cameron, who represents the plaintiffs, says the testimony shows conclusively that Strong was the real inventor of the telephone.

The patent which is the basis for the suit was issued for a period of seventeen years and is worth $100,000,000. The Atlantic and Western Company secured the rights of invention by purchase in 1892, the consideration being $5,000,000. It is charged in the petition that the infringement of the patent has cost the complainant $1,000,000 a month for fifteen years, and that during fifteen years rival telephone companies have continued to manufacture and sell and use a certain device, despite persistent protests from the Atlantic Company and demands for settlement.

"HEELER" WINTERS IS SHOVED ALONG.

"EVANGELIST" WINTERS, fake healer, and his gang of lieutenants, who have been taking the money of deluded people at their revival meetings in the Temperance Temple, have been ousted, and will be obliged to seek other fields. The meetings have been discontinued, owing to the storm of public censure which has arisen.

Winters and his gang are some of the most audacious and consummate fakers who have infested Los Angeles in recent years. To the pernicious influence of their "hallelujah" meetings is charged the breaking up of a formerly happy family, the horrible Bolks murder and suicide, and the attempt of a poor old man from whom they took $150, to commit suicide.

But now the hallelujah chorus is silent. The colored mammy who has been shouting "praise God" until the rafters fairly trembled, the "cappers" who have been nightly giving their "experiences" in an attempt to work up the sympathy and excitement of the audiences, and the platform bunch of fakers who have been shouting "glory to God," and singing hymns, at the same time laughing and sneering at the poor suckers who were depositing their money and jewelry on the platform—all these are silenced.

Winters and his gang have been driven from Los Angeles. The place has been made too hot for them. They have worked their graft just as long as they could—and they have taken down the clothesline hung with crutches, ear trumpets, trusses, electric belts and other similar articles, and will steal away or try their graft elsewhere, in all probability.

It is now charged that Winters has been trying to steer many of his "converts" into the Mormon Church, and that he has broken up one family at least by advising the wife to leave her husband because he refused to become the dupe of the "evangelist" horde.

Winters says he will stay in Los Angeles, that he will be ready next month with a place from which he cannot be driven—but he has said that same thing before. He said it to the police officers who made him disgorge the money he took from the simple-minded old man. But Winters will not stay—he is on the move now, and the people of Los Angeles will keep him on the move along with every other similar faker who attempts to work a graft here.

BATTLE OF RIVAL TOWNS.

GUTHRIE (Okla.) Jan. 14.—A special from Snyder, Okla., says the jealousy of the Mountain Park people caused by so many of the people of that town moving to Snyder, resulted tonight in a pitched battle, in which four Mountain Park people were seriously shot. A bridge over which houses from Mountain Park were being moved, and which is claimed by the Snyder people, was being torn down tonight by Mountain Park people. A posse of officers and citizens of Snyder went to the scene to prevent further demolition of the bridge, with the above result. Further trouble is expected.

TOKIO WAR TALK.

THINK RUSSIA MAY GIVE IN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

TOKIO, Jan. 14.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The situation is apparently unchanged. It is reported that a majority of the powers recognize Japan's demands as most moderate. Reasonable though faint hope is entertained that Russia at the last moment will make adequate concessions.

Japan's answer to Russia's latest note is described as moderate in terms, but resolute in tone, and largely devoted to a discussion of affairs conducted with Korea, Japan having been strongly advised not to fight over Manchuria alone. Foreign Minister Komura visited successively the Marquis Ito, Chief of the Private Council, Premier Katsura and the Emperor. He subsequently called upon Baron De Rosen, the Russian Minister.

NOT SPOILING FOR FIGHT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 14.—The Russian press, generally speaking, is preserving silence regarding the Chinese-American view have proved to elicit an official view have proved unsuccessful. The Novoe Vremya, referring to the Far Eastern situation, declares Russia will not accept Japan's challenge until peaceable expedients are exhausted, adding:

"If war comes Europe should understand that it will mark the beginning of a great struggle between Christianity and heathenism, the results of which will be felt in all the corners of the earth."

The Russ has begun an open polemic against war, declaring war would not afford a solution of the problem. The Russ also advocates the sale to China of the railway from Harbin to Port Arthur.

JAPAN PLAYS FOR TIME.

PACIFIC ANSWER EXPLAINED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Jan. 14.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Minister Hayashi received today the text of the Japanese reply to Russia's last note. It does not contain an ultimatum, but reiterates Japan's original demands, with what Baron Hayashi terms "a modification upon a minor point." The questions of Chinese sovereignty in Manchuria and Japan's sphere of influence in Korea are reinsisted upon.

Minister Hayashi said: "So far as I can see, the relations of the two powers regarding the dispute practically are unchanged. I have no indication of the reception this note is likely to meet at the hands of the Russian government, but I expect the negotiations will continue for several weeks."

The British Foreign officials said tonight, after reading the Japanese reply to the last Russian note, that it only takes the crisis a step further in a less hopeful direction.

A private dispatch from Tokio says that in spite of all reports to the contrary, the Japanese troops will not be thoroughly prepared to start for Korea on the scale desired in the event of such a step being considered necessary before the first week in February. This is considered significant in connection with Baron Hayashi's estimate that the negotiations are likely to extend for three weeks longer, and as supplying an additional reason for Japan answering in pacific terms. It is also pointed out that in three weeks' time Japan's new cruisers will be practically out of danger.

FRENCH PEACEMAKERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The intention to prevent the Russo-Japanese controversy drifting into war has begun to assume definite proportions, though no tender of good offices has yet been made to Japan or Russia. The cabinets of London and Paris have arrived at a quite clear understanding as to what will be done if war becomes imminent. This will not be by a tender of mediation, but a tender of good offices, mainly giving friendly advice for the maintenance of peace.

How far the other cabinets of Europe and the cabinet of the United States will give moral or actual support to the friendly representations is an open question, as the exchanges of views have been confined mainly to London and Paris; but throughout the exchanges there has been a strong sentiment that the united influence of Europe and the United States should give at least moral support to the effort. This has been one of the chief factors in the strong belief during the last few days that the issue could not result in war. The opinion today is that the parties themselves will succeed in averting a conflict; so, until it becomes manifest that they are unable to do so, no action will be taken.

NOTE LOOKS FAMILIAR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The last note of Japan, while not altogether precluding further negotiations, has a certain finality in its tone, implying that the correspondence is closed on the side of Japan. It is not believed that Russia will consider the proposed neutral zone suggested by Japan. No authoritative opinion is obtainable as to Russia's probable reply.

WAR PHANTOM DISPELLED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—An important personage, privy councilor, gives the assurance, cables the Herald's St. Petersburg correspondent, that the news received from the Far East is of such a favorable nature that any immediate danger of war is averted. The Foreign Office will issue a statement to the powers, drawing attention to Russia's inability to give the promised freedom of trade in Manchuria until the country has been brought into proper condition, safety and order.

Optimism reigns and general congratulation is the order of the day. The Russian New Year opens with the phantom of immediate war dispelled.

BUSINESS.

Bank clearings for the week ending yesterday showed a gain of nearly 40 per cent. over the corresponding week of 1903, and of more than 75 per cent. over the same week in 1902.

Dry weather in the Southwest and on the Pacific Coast was construed as a bull factor in the Chicago wheat market. The close was weak with May option at 86⅞. Corn and oats were strong. Minor stocks showed the most activity in the New York stock market, which now appears to have recovered from the war scare.

NO CASE FOR CONGRESS.

Senator Patterson of Colorado some time ago introduced in the Senate a resolution directing the Committee on Judiciary, of that body, or a sub-committee of that committee, to go to Colorado and make a thorough investigation into the conditions existing in the mining regions of that State. The resolution is now pending before the Senate.

The Colorado Federation of Labor, which is holding a convention in Denver, called "for the purpose of considering the labor situation in Colorado," on Tuesday adopted a resolution "urging the immediate passage by the United States Senate of Senator T. M. Patterson's resolution," etc. The Missouri Federation of Labor, in session at Springfield, on Wednesday adopted a resolution "demanding" that the Senate of the United States "shall pass Senator Patterson's resolution providing that the Senate Committee on Judiciary shall go to Colorado and investigate the labor troubles in that State."

It is not irrelevant to ask incidentally, in passing, who and what is the Missouri Federation of Labor that it presumes to "demand" that the Senate of the United States shall pass this measure, or that it shall refuse to pass some other measure? Is the Missouri Federation of Labor a co-ordinate branch of the government of the United States? Is it "the people," like the three tailors of Tooley street? Or is it merely a secret society, formed for the purpose of securing for its members certain advantages and privileges which it would deny to other men? Only the people, in their aggregated capacity as voters, have the right to "demand" that the legislative branch of the government shall pass this measure or that. For a secret proscriptive organization, or any other inconsequential aggregation of citizens, to make such a demand upon the highest law-making body in the land, is a piece of monumental impudence seldom equaled and never excelled.

In introducing the resolution of the Colorado federation in the Senate, on Wednesday, Senator Patterson took occasion to denounce with great bitterness the Colorado Mine Owners' Association, which organization, he declared, had been "more directly responsible than all other influences for the course of Gov. Peabody in connection with the recent strikes" in that State. "The organization," he declared, "devoted its energies to securing the extermination of union labor," and he further asserted that "great injustice has been done in the use of militia, in imprisoning men, the establishment of a press censorship," etc. Curiously enough (or otherwise) Mr. Patterson (the Senator of the limber and ever-wagging jaw,) had nothing whatever to say in denunciation of the long series of murders, dynamitings, intimidations and other outrages, of which the union miners of the Telluride district in Colorado have been guilty. It was these damnable outrages against law, against decency, and against humanity, which made necessary the invocation of the strong arm of the military, in order that human rights and human life might in some degree be protected. The union miners of that district have not been treated to measures half as severe as those which they meted out to persons who opposed them when they held the whip-hand and inaugurated a reign of terror throughout the entire district.

If the Colorado Mine Owners' Association has sought to secure "the extermination of union labor" in the section referred to, it is because union labor has made itself so obnoxious that it had to be destroyed as a measure of safety to the community. If the Colorado Mine Owners' Association were responsible for the course of Gov. Peabody (which it is not, for Gov. Peabody is himself entirely responsible for his course,) great credit would be due to the Colorado Mine Owners' Association for the responsibility; for the course of Gov. Peabody in this matter has been such as to excite the admiration and approval of patriotic and right-minded citizens in every State of the Union. The firm, strong hand of authority which he has extended to the disturbed region has served, as nothing else in the world could have served, to destroy the vicious reign of the thugs and assassins who have for years past held sway in the Colorado mining regions. If there were more Governors like Gov. Peabody in the country, there would be a better observance of the laws of the land; the rights of citizenship would be more secure; and the workingmen of the country, in common with all other classes of citizens, would be vastly better off.

As to the matter of Congressional intervention in the Colorado mining troubles, there is no need for it, and no possible warrant for it. Colorado is a sovereign State of the Union. It is quite able, as has been fully demonstrated by the events of the past few months, to take care of its own internal disorders, without the aid or intervention of Federal authority. Congress has neither a moral, a physical, nor a legal right to interfere with the conduct of internal affairs in the State of Colorado under existing conditions. It will do well to keep hands off.

WHAT TILLMAN WOULD DO.

We have learned, through Mr. Sothern's play, "If I Were King," some of the things that our old friend Francois Villon would have done if he had been King of France at the time he is said to have lived, moved and had his being. It has remained for Senator Spooner of Wisconsin to draw from the coy and retiring Senator Tillman of South Carolina a statement as to what he (Tillman) would have done in the Panama affair, if he had been President of the United States while the Hay-Herran treaty was pending before the Colombian Congress.

Senator Spooner, addressing the Senate, on Wednesday, defended the course of the President against the vicious and partisan attacks of Senators Carmack, Tillman and others. Mr. Carmack had mildly declared that "every act of the President in this wretched Panama business has been in violation of law—of statutory and international law—and of the Constitution of the United States." Mr. Spooner flatly denied this imputation, and declared that, as author of the Spooner act, he desired to express the opinion that the law had not been violated by the President in any particular. "The law," he said, "recognized the superiority of the Panama route because it is short and because it is susceptible of being made a sea-level canal." He added that "not only the business but the defense of the country may put a canal through which our warships can pass without going through locks."

Reviewing the events relating to the canal negotiations, Mr. Spooner asked whether any Senator, if he had been President, would have turned his back upon Panama, under the circumstances, so long as the treaty was pending before the Colombian Congress. He addressed this question directly to Mr. Tillman, who was on his feet. The latter replied in effect that if he had been President (which he never will be,) he would have "entered into negotiations with Nicaragua, and would have reported back to Congress for further instructions." Tillman then declared that, after having done all this, and having got the negotiations with Nicaragua well under way, he would have said to Colombia: "You are a mangy lot; get off the face of the earth; we'll take the country and build the canal."

Here, then, we have an outline of what Tillman would have done if he had been President. It must be confessed that it is a rather peculiar programme for one who assumes to criticise the course which was actually pursued by the President.

Suppose, for a moment, that the President had taken the course which Tillman declares he would have pursued if he had been in the President's place. He would have opened negotiations with Nicaragua, without the least intention of building the canal by that route. This would have been an act of gross perfidy and dishonor, as any intelligent man can see at a glance. Then he would have taken forcible possession of the isthmus, and would have proceeded to build the canal by the Panama route, without the slightest regard for the rights of Colombia or of the people who now comprise the republic of Panama. This, also, would have been an act of inexcusable perfidy.

If the President had pursued so foolish and indefensible a course as Tillman has outlined; he would not have received—nor would he have deserved—the support of his own party. And as for Tillman and the other obstructionists of the Senate, they would have denounced the President with a great deal more bitterness and violence, if possible, than they are now directing against him.

As a matter of fact, no course which the President could possibly have pursued in this affair would have met the approval of the partisan malignants who are now doing their utmost to prevent the building of the Panama Canal. They are actuated in this opposition chiefly by "pure cussedness"—a fact which is so obvious that all attempts which they can make to conceal it are futile. That they will probably be foiled in their efforts to prevent the construction of the canal seems probable. But the fact that their malicious efforts are likely to prove abortive does not render those efforts in any sense less reprehensible.

As the German Ambassador and the Secretary of War have gone out to look over a site for the location of the statue of Frederick the Great which the Kaiser has so generously proposed to present to the American nation, we are likely to see a sudden growth of jingoes in Congress and elsewhere who will shortly be making the welkin ring with their loud objections. But it isn't at all likely that the objections will count, and as the gallant old German monarch has been a long time dead there is little fear that his bronze counterpart will corrupt the spirit of liberty in our midst, or cause the Yankee nation to clamor for a change of our system of government. It will speak well for American common sense if the jingoes shall find it possible to restrain their tendency to make a spectacle of themselves and permit the statuary to be set up in the location selected without embarrassment to the donor and without a lowering of our national dignity.

The shipbuilding trust is hopelessly bankrupt, according to Attorney Guthrie, counsel for Mr. Schwab, but Mr. Guthrie's client still has the 500 pounds of bonds of the Bethlehem Steel Company, whereas the bondholders of the trust appear to question whether there isn't something yet to be saved from the wreck. As for the charges of fraud in the premises, in the case of such an abundance of smoke there must be more or less fire. And there is a group of New York financiers in the line of fire that promises to be thoroughly smoked out before the proceedings are completed. It is gratifying to know that the smudging will be continued next week.

The International Peace Congress is disposed, as it would seem, to postpone its session until next summer, but considering the rumors of trouble among our great and good friends of the Orient, it would seem as if an extra session ought to be called instanter, provided there is anyone with sufficient authority to issue the call. Unless the signs are awry there is an immediate demand for a peace talk with Russia and Japan; not to mention Colombia, which has a bad look in its eye whenever that dusky optic is turned in the direction of Uncle Sam and the fledgling republic of Panama.

There is just enough discussion regarding the ratification of the canal treaty in Congress to cause weariness to the people whose representatives are holding the subject open to debate. The canal question has, to all seeming, simmered down to the question—a canal across the Isthmus of Panama, or no canal at all; at least for a mighty long time. The people of the United States demand the construction of that great waterway; the question has been debated up the outside and down the middle for years, and from every point of view. It is time for a vote, that the question may be definitely settled one way or another.

The Civil Service Commissioners have been hearing some things about themselves that grated on sensitive ears, no doubt, but the few unkindly remarks were as nothing compared with the dull and sickening thud that accompanied the striking out of the paragraph providing for the salaries and traveling expenses of that commission from the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill. Should the strike-out stand, the commission is not likely to have to travel on foot, but to refrain from eating while making the trip.

The order issued by the Chicago and Northwestern Railway management forbidding the making up of lost time by fast trains is eminently wise. As The Times has taken occasion to remark more than once, the traveler would far better arrive at his destination several hours late than to be maimed or killed in a smash-up in a mad rush to "get in on time." The national propensity for hurrying ought to be checked in some way and the Northwestern road has made an excellent beginning.

In Berlin the situation between Russia and Japan is considered tense, but in other capitals there is still a hopeful feeling that the peace may yet be maintained in the Orient and that diplomacy may displace the deploying of battalions and the unlimbering of artillery. The postponement of the evil hour when hostilities are to begin gives continued hope that there may be no war after all. The prayers of all Christendom should continue to that end, for war is still the same dreadful thing described so graphically by Gen. Sherman.

The lack of rain should serve to educate the agriculturist and such others as would like to see a rainstorm to the value of patience with conditions that cannot be changed by wishing.

The Emperor of Korea is becoming nervous and warns his men-at-arms not to shoot should a collision ensue between foreign troops. It is a wise and able monarch who can hold his own hounds in leash when the other war dogs are howling for gore, and it is to be hoped that the Korean Emperor will be successful in his laudable efforts not to become embroiled in a row that is none of his fight.

The United States has all sorts of good offices for Colombia in adjusting her differences with the republic of Panama, but not a cent of hard cash. The time when Colombia could have had $10,000,000 from this country has permanently lapsed.

The prolongation of the dry-weather agony is taking on the resemblance to a tragedy for the cattle on the dry ranges. But for the man with a pumping plant and an alfalfa crop these are the picnic days of life.

So long as the weather man has the approval of the tourists he thinks, maybe, that he can afford to snap his fingers at the old inhabitants who have ranches that need soaking.

Considering everything, sugar-trust dividends at 7 per cent. are modest and appropriate, provided there is no water in the stock and no sand in the sugar.

THE PLAYHOUSES.

MASON OPERAHOUSE. "Happy Hooligan" is a jumble of nonsense—of insufferably nonsensical nonsense—set off with some jingling music, and some attractive costumes. That is about all there is to be said about it. It has neither wit nor wisdom. To the average person of intelligence, the reason for its being is difficult of perception.

But there are theater-goers who apparently regard as excrutiatingly funny the daubing of a man's face with lather out of a tin pail or a washtub, the squirting of water in an "actor's" face from a seltzer bottle, and so forth. Such play patrons will greatly enjoy Hooligan.

The disturbance is on at the Mason for three nights and a matinée, the engagement closing tomorrow night.

Snake Closed a School.

Study gave place to a hunt for a big black snake at the Humboldt school in Alton, Friday afternoon. While on her way to school at Fifth and Walnut streets, Miss Alma Freeman felt something tangling about her legs, and on making an investigation found that a huge reptile was twining itself about her. She had accidentally struck the snake with her foot while walking, and in an instant the snake had made a rush at the girl and started to wrap its body around her. Miss Freeman was much terrified, but managed to unwrap the coils of the snake with her hands, finally freeing herself.

She then ran to school and reported the incident to her teacher, who dismissed the classes until an investigation of the child's story could be made. Near the place where little Miss Freeman said she had had the encounter a black snake nearly six feet in length was found coiled up in some weeds near the sidewalk. The snake was killed by the teacher and the boys. The girl was much frightened, but suffered in no other way through her experience with the big snake.—[St. Louis Democrat.

FARISH OUT OF THE SNOW.

Councilman O. E. Farish of the Third Ward returned to the city yesterday morning from a trip to Arkansas, whither he was called on account of the sudden death of his mother. After concluding his sad mission at Amarilla, where his mother died, and at Little Rock, his old home, Farish visited Kansas City. There he investigated the methods of conducting the municipality and brought suggestions for changes in the Los Angeles system. "Los Angeles is the only place to live," said Farish last night. THE BAY OF SAN DIEGO.

The sunlight of the morning across the far hills broke,
From the dawn the veils of mist fell and faded as I woke;
The sea was bathed with glory in a sweep of swirling fire,
And I wandered with my soul in the Land of Heart's Desire.

In the Land of Heart's Desire, in the dreamland of my soul,
And my boat was on the shore with its rudder and its thole,
With its white sails agleam and the soft winds blowing free,
And the Bay of San Diego shining blue against the sea.

Yonder from the hills blew the blithe breeze of morn,
The scent of the lemon on its breath of lotus borne,
The scent of the lemon from the mesas blowing down,
From Chula Vista's mesas to the sun-harbored town.

The lemon was in blossom, and, shimmered in between,
Glowed the gold of the orange and the olive's flash of green;
I could see them from the waters that rippled, blue and bright,
On the Bay of San Diego in the golden morning light.

On the billows' far horizon I saw a white ship sail,
And backward o'er the hills stretched the world-wearied trail;
But the ship lured me not that beckoned to the main,
And the trail was not for me though with gold it were lain.

There was no road for me wheresoever it might lay,
Wheresoever o'er the land or the sea it stretched, that day;
All the voices of the world died and faltered, though they called,
When the Bay of San Diego held my soul, dream-enthralled.

Never dawned a day so fair and never set the sun
On a picture half so lovely when that day was done;
But, that day and this day, upchanging and the same,
'Tis still as God has made it since the first day that came.

'Tis still as God has made it in the gladness of His dreams,
With the never-ending summer that forever o'er it gleams—
The mystic seas beyond it in the sunlight's golden fire,
And the Bay of San Diego in the Land of Heart's Desire.

JOHN S. M'GROARTY.

AN.

A LITTLE WHILE.

A little while, a week, a month,
Or bright, or shadowed from Made glad with hope, fear fraught with tears;
And we shall learn the way
To crown our hopes, or fears;
For aye—for aye.

A little while, dear love, and
Our waning day will close—
Then will the spirit whisper goes,
Its dwelling perished; bid good-by,
And vanish—as the perfume
rose;
Or as a sigh.

A little while, a very little while
The days—the days fly fast—
Then, portion of the blast,
How shall we know, with nor smile
To tell us, we have met passed—
Unseen the while.

Oh, such a little while,
have we
To gentle be and kind!
Ere we shall blend into the wind,
Shall mingle with the sea—
Then, ever-seeking—shall we find?
I, you!—you—me?

WAS CALDWELL ASLEEP?

AUTOMOBILIST MAY HAVE BEEN OVERCOME BY POWDERS.

Had Been Without Rest for Several Days Before His Unguided Machine Carried Him Among Weeds, and Flames Snuffed Out His Life.

C. L. Caldwell was burned to death on his blazing automobile while probably under the effects of a sleeping powder. That fact did not develop at the Coroner's inquest held yesterday afternoon, but news which came to the Coroner later strongly indicates that that was what happened.

After the Coroner's inquiry a man told that officer that for several days before his disappearance Caldwell was sleepless. Caldwell spent much time running about in his automobile and not long before his friends lost track of him he purchased a quantity of sleeping powders. It is likely that the erratic course of the unguided automobile and the accident of fire while among the big weeds were due to the powders which had begun to take effect.

That death was produced by suffocation from inhaling flames was the report of Dr. George W. Campbell, who performed the autopsy. The jury found accordingly.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

[The Times freely publishes the views of correspondents, without holding itself responsible for writers' opinions. Be brief, write plainly when clearly. The space of 250 words, on the average, is sufficient for the expression of an idea.]

Methodist Bishopric.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13.—[To the Editor of The Times.] The woods are full of candidates for the honorable position of Methodist bishop. Among the latest prominent candidates is Dr. C. B. Mitchell of Cleveland, O. He leads his delegation to the General Conference and has the support of his entire conference. His friends are also at work in the East and in the West, where he is well known. With Drs. Day, Berry, Spellmyer, McDowell, Bashford and others of national reputation, the supply of candidates will be ample. The recent theater fire in Chicago will cause a fierce debate over paragraph 248, which prohibits attendance on theaters. The death of Mr. Cooper, who voted four years ago to abolish the rule, and the death of two Methodist ministers in that fire will stir up a feeling that will silence the objection to the rule and make its enforcement more strict. A lesson has been learned that may be heeded. The route to heaven by way of the theater is not desirable.

CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT.

TO BE HELD IN SAN DIEGO.

Backers of the game little fight- Jack Root, will be pleased to learn that a fight with Jack Britt has been made and the date for Tuesday, January Coliseum. Root has been training at San Diego for some weeks, and is said to be in fine condition now at 122 pounds. The weight is to be 124 pounds at 2 o'clock on the day of the fight.

Madden is said to be ex-champion bantam weight and hails from Brooklyn. He has been training here for some time at the Los Angeles Athletic Club under the direction of Mark Shaughnessy and they will leave for San Diego Saturday or Monday. Madden now weighs 124 pounds.

It is probable that Harry Stuart will act as referee as DeCoursey wants him, and he is acceptable to Shaughnessy. This matter, however, will be settled by the club next week. The boys will fight for 50 per cent. of the gate receipts, divided 65 and 35 per cent.

WOMAN FALLS IN A FAINT.

Excitement of Sharp Finishes is Too Much.

Haviland Gets Close Victory in Hard Drive.

Galanthus Best Winning Bet at Five to One.

When a woman faints on the stairs after the last race and hundreds do not recover their normal temperature until hours after the day is done, it's pretty near a sure thing that something interesting has occurred. This tells what did transpire at Ascot Park yesterday, for every finish was close and at least 4000 persons were there to see them. Half were women and they made the great grand stand a chatterbox of buzzing comment all afternoon and they picked more pretty jockey clothes astride of dead ones than you could shake a stick at. A good many of them tried it, too, for the women have the men sports cheated to death when it comes to plunging on the ponies.

The majority of those present both upstairs and down had a good time of it, for five favorites won and the second and third horses were generally played pretty strong. It was quite a day for betting, for the business always seems better on ladies' day for some reason, and everybody took a chance. There were no big wagers, but the sports on the whole brought more home than they took there and that is gratifying.

CLOSE HANDICAP FINISH.

The best race of the day in every way except time, was the handicap at one mile, for it brought together Haviland, Glennevis, M. F. Tarpey and Dolly Hayman. It was hard work guessing these, and considerable wise money was burnt up in the effort. With Redfern up, Haviland was made a favorite, but plenty of money went in on Glennevis and Tarpey. What these two didn't do was a sin. Glennevis set the pace, with Haviland in third place. He moved into second position at the last turn and then Redfern began to ride him. It was well that he did, for the 5-to-1 shot, Dolly Hayman, suddenly went up from third place, passed the hard-driving Glennevis and would have beaten Haviland in another jump, but the finish ended the struggle. Tarpey was outrun all the way.

Bill Curtis had a cinch in the fifth race over the Slauson course, although he had a little argument in the stretch run with the outsider, Sais. Dargie led to the last turn, followed by Sais and Curtis, and then when straightened out Bill romped over the others and won as he pleased. Eugenia B. was never in it.

HARD GUESSING RACE.

The biggest field of the day lined up for the last race, with Sallie Goodwin the favorite. She doubtless won because Toto Gratiot was loaded down with lead. Toto and Little Margaret had the early speed, but could not stand off the rush made by both Sallie Goodwin and Almoner in the stretch, and Toto even dropped behind Margaret. Skirmish was supposed to be a good thing, but never showed any signs of it after running a third of the distance.

The only good bet of the day for a winner was Galanthus in the third race, which he won at 5 to 1. Anvil was at 3 to 5 and as usual ran away with everything from the start to the stretch, where Galanthus moved up and beat him out a length. Jingler was beaten to death the first part of it, but came from sixth place at the last turn and got the peep.

In the first The Goldfinder led all the others from start to finish, but won ridden out from Dupont, who doubtless would have won but for interference all the way around. Lunar had a lot of speed, but couldn't increase it in the stretch.

SOME SPORTS KICKED.

The baby race went to the hot tip Airship, and although off next to last he sailed up through the stretch very successfully and won in a driving finish from DeGrammont. This was about the first race of the meeting that any of the sports made even a mild kick over and a number of them thought that DeGrammont really won The remarks made about this race, however, were largely from friend to friend and probably came from those who did not bet on the flying machine.

TRAP SHOOTERS MEET TONIGHT.

REORGANIZATION OF CLUB IS OBJECT OF CALL.

Project on Foot to Incorporate. Van Valkenburg Has More Extensive Scheme for Handicapping the Experts, Including Himself.

Trap shooters will gather tonight at the office of Charles Van Valkenburg, No. 314 American National Bank building, corner Second and Broadway, to permanently reorganize the Los Angeles Gun Club, which has been defunct for a little over a year now.

Several schemes have been talked over, and there is some prospect that the club will be incorporated, but nothing can be done until the trigger men get together and decide upon what suits them.

Secretary Van Valkenburg of the old Los Angeles Club has elaborated his scheme, whereby some new blood can be drawn into the bloodcurdling locally. After considering the "expert" and handicapping phases of the matter, he has decided that the most feasible way to dispose of the crack shots is to establish classes ranging all the way from 14 yards to 22, putting such as Vaughan at the greater distance, and the beginners up at the trap boxes. He is willing to stand at 18 yards himself.

Frank Howe the U. M. C. man, will be present tonight as an invited guest. He won the same fight in Portland of that now being fought by the lovers of trap shooting here, and thinks he has found a way out of the difficulty. He will probably be called upon for his views tonight.

Plans for the coming tournament will be discussed. It is generally conceded the project cannot be started off in any more fitting way than by the big shoot, but it is necessary that a good working organization be formed before any tournament can be pulled off successfully. With a club organized on business lines, several good hustlers to do the preliminary work in getting the shooters out, and so good a programme of events as there is already in sight, a great success can be predicted.

Gus Knight and a party of San Bernardino shooters will be down. Fred Mills will either be here, or will send his trophies to be contested for. J. Pane, George Garretson and Charles Julian of San Diego will probably make the trip for the two days' shoot. R. H. Wrisley and a bunch of Long Beach trap shooters will also be in town for the occasion, and with the local talent now in sight there is no reason to doubt that from eight to ten full squads can be coaxed out.

DIES AN UNKNOWN.

Unidentified Man is Struck by an Electric Car and Sustains Fatal Injuries.

A man who has not as yet been identified died at the Receiving Hospital at 1 o'clock this morning from the effects of injuries received yesterday afternoon near First and Los Angeles streets by being struck by a car of the Pacific Electric Railway Company. He wore good clothing, to which was attached a pin of the Fraternal Brotherhood, but on his person there was nothing by which he could be identified.

He was riding a bicycle along First street and turned to the right to escape being run over by an approaching wagon, when an electric car swung around the curve there and struck him, throwing him to the ground with such violence that his skull was fractured. This rendered him unconscious and he remained in that condition until 1 o'clock this morning, when he died. The only known clew to his identity is his wheel. It was a Crescent bicycle, No. 453,017.

The corpse was removed to Bresee Bros. morgue this morning to await identification by friends supposed to be here.

FOUND DYING AMID FLAMES.

Horse's Kick Kills Brewery Night Watchman.

Mysterious Fire and Loss of Twenty Thousand.

Sensational Murder Theory Soon Exploded.

The night watchman at the stables of the Los Angeles Brewing Company was found unconscious behind a row of stalls at 11:15 o'clock last night, the huge stables in flames, and as persons attracted by the fire approached the place a man was seen to run down the railroad track and disappear in the direction of the new Southern Pacific shops. The stables with all the feed they contained were destroyed, but all of the score or more of horses were saved.

Before the fire had reached the lower floor of the stable the unconscious night watchman was carried from the building and placed in a wagon in front of the brewery. He died there within ten minutes. In fact, he was practically dead when found. There was a wound on his right temple and under the wound was a fracture of the skull several inches long. There was also a bruise on the back of the head.

The dead man had been employed at the stables only two weeks and was on the pay rolls of the company under the name of Cohen, who was his predecessor, but it was stated by J. F. Rue of No. 2623 Darwin street and Phil Wurtz that the man's name was Nicholas. Officials at the brewery were entirely unable to give the name at first, but later stated that it was Jake Beisenberger.

A sensational story was started to the effect that the night watchman had been foully murdered, but this theory was exploded by an investigation which showed plainly that he was kicked by a horse. He was discovered a few moments later by a young man named Katzenberger and removed from the burning building.

The fire started in a quantity of hay recently stored in the barns of the brewing company and soon spread to the stables, paint and carpenter shops and wagon sheds. All were destroyed, together with about 300 tons of hay. The cause of the fire is a mystery, but it is attributed to hobos sleeping in the hay. Some cling to the incendiary theory.

The total loss is estimated by brewery officials to be $20,000, fully covered by insurance.

DEAD MAN IDENTIFIED.

Early this morning Deputy Coroner Williams positively identified the dead man as Jake Beisenberger, 35 years old, who formerly lived at the Strausburger Hotel on Ducommun street near Leary Lane. Beisenberger was known as a hard-working, temperate man.

Mr. Williams does not believe in the murder theory at all, but an autopsy will be held at Bresee Bros.' this afternoon to determine the exact cause of the man's death.

FIRE IN ROOMING-HOUSE.

The Santoos block on North Main street between Marchessault and Macy was damaged by fire to the amount of $500 at 10:30 o'clock last night. Either a defective flue or crossed electric wires caused a blaze which was difficult to reach. Most of the damage was caused by water. The upper floors of the building were occupied by Mrs. Youngloves as a rooming-house. On the ground floor are the stores of the Santoos Packing Company and the Cosmopolitan bakery.

LOCAL RAILROAD RECORD.

TRAINMEN CLAIM A "GRIEVANCE."

DISCHARGE OF CONDUCTORS IS NOT TO THEIR LIKING.

Ultimatum Said to Have Been Sent to Espee—Southern Pacific Separates Traffic and Operating Departments—Transfers of Agents. Railroad Notes.

Local trainmen employed on the Los Angeles division of the Southern Pacific claim they have a grievance which they will ask officials of the road to adjust. Recently members of the local committee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen have been holding meetings in room 123, Nadeau Hotel, considering the cases of three conductors discharged during the past thirty days. These men are Charles Lucas, T. R. Harlan and F. Dugas and the trainmen claim they were fired because they carried mail belonging to railway organizations on Southern Pacific trains, without transportation.

Yesterday members of local committees of the Order of Railway Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen said they had sent an ultimatum to Superintendent Ingram in regard to the cases of the three conductors and had submitted their side of the case to Grand Chief E. A. Clark of the O. R. C. at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Grand Master P. H. Morrisey of Cleveland, O., and would act on their advice.

Superintendent R. H. Ingram declared he had not received an ultimatum from the trainmen and no mention of the case had been made to him. The local committees had asked for a conference at 11 o'clock this morning and this he had granted, as it is always his custom to meet his men to discuss any questions affecting the service.

"The conductors mentioned were recently discharged," said Mr. Ingram, "but not for carrying fellow trainmen without transportation. Like all railroad companies, the Southern Pacific requires that conductors shall secure fares or proper transportation from all persons whatsoever," and the superintendent referred to the rule. "But it is absolutely untrue that these men were discharged for violating this rule."

RADICAL EXPEE CHANGES.

The traffic and operating departments of the Southern Pacific Company have been separated, necessitating several changes at various points in Southern California. It has been the custom for agents at suburban stations to act as agents for both the traffic and operating departments, the agents in a way being both traveling and passenger agents. Beginning today, the station agent of the Southern Pacific will simply look after the station end of the business and the traffic department will put new men in the field, who will be responsible only to the traffic department.

C. S. Travis, who has been agent at Pomona, will now be agent for the traffic department between Pomona and Chatsworth Park and Fernando, and J. C. O'Connor, who has been his first assistant, will be agent of Pomona station. F. Donatin, who has been at the Riverside depot, will be the traffic agent of the territory east of Pomona including Riverside, Redlands and San Bernardino. O. B. Goodwin will become the station agent at Riverside. O. J. Cohen, who has been station agent at Oxnard, will be the third traffic agent, with headquarters at Santa Ana and covering the Coast Line territory. His successor at Oxnard has not been chosen.

Agents who have taken the positions made vacant at the various points by the appointment of traffic agents simply hold their positions until those positions are advertised, it being the system of the Southern Pacific Company that employes of seniority and standing in the company shall have the right to bid for any position thrown open in their line of work. L. N. Todd, who has been the agent at Pasadena for a long time, was offered a transfer, but preferred to remain station agent at Pasadena.

TRAILERS.

About two hundred students of the High School will spend tomorrow at San Pedro in the study of sea life under the superintendence of Prof. A. J. Copp of the biological department. They will go down on special cars on the Salt Lake road.

The representatives of the San José Chamber of Commerce who are to arrive in this city today will make a trip to Catalina Island on Sunday as the guests of the Salt Lake Railway and the Banning Company.

W. R. Jerome, general agent of the New York Central Railway, with headquarters in Chicago, will arrive in Los Angeles today on his annual visit to this coast. Carlton C. Crane, Pacific Coast agent of the railroad, arrived from San Francisco yesterday and the various coast agents of the company are to assemble here during the early part of next week for a reunion.

"The Salt Lake Railway has joined the clergymen's association," said Russell Taylor, commercial agent of the company, yesterday. "By joining this association we entitle all clergymen to a ride on our lines for half fare. We do this, you see, because we expect the clergymen to railroad us into heaven in return for the courtesy."

M. F. Van Horn of the Union Pacific Company, who was called East by the death of his father, returned to Los Angeles yesterday.

Maj. Lock, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific out of San Francisco, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to remain several days.

An artistic guide to California, "The Golden State," has just been issued by the Passenger Traffic Department of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway. The book contains eighty pages of interesting reading matter about California scenes and places, and is resplendent with 180 delicately-shaded cuts.

IMPORTANT GOLD STRIKE.

DENVER, Jan. 14.—A special to the Republican from Cripple Creek says the most important gold strike ever made in the district became known today. It was on Beacon Hill. A six-foot vein averaging $250 per ton was uncovered, through which streaks run which assay as high as $350,000 per ton.

REFUSED LOAN; IS SHOT DOWN.

Ramon Dias Wounded and Will Probably Die.

Unprovoked Attack by Man Once His Friend.

Assailant is Arrested and Admits His Guilt.

As a result of a quarrel over the refusal of his victim to lend him money without security, Rafael Guillot, a Frenchman, shot and fatally wounded Ramon Dias, a native of Spain and a well-to-do citizen, at 12:30 o'clock this morning, in front of Felix Clavero's saloon on Aliso street between Los Angeles and Alameda streets. The bullet, fired from a 38-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver, struck Dias in the left side, penetrated the abdomen, severing the intestines in several places and producing a wound which in the opinion of the police surgeon is practically certain to result fatally. Guillot was arrested by Patrolman Boaz within less than half a minute after he fired the shot and before he had time to return his revolver to his pocket. He admits the shooting.

Both men had been employed for some time by a building and loan association which has offices on South Broadway and recently returned from a business trip to the North.

TROUBLE OVER MONEY.

Yesterday Guillot asked Dias to lend him $100, but the latter refused. This angered Guillot, but Dias thought nothing of the matter. Early this morning, while Dias was in Clavero's saloon with a party of friends Guillot entered and called for a drink. Dias requested him to drink with his party, but he refused and immediately left the place.

Dias remarked to his friends that Guillot was a friend of his and he wanted to know what he had offended him. He declared he did not desire the ill will of any man and stated that he would go out and call him back. He stepped to the door before Guillot had left the front of the saloon and called to him. Guillot turned and the men exchanged a few words. Then the shot was fired and Dias fell to the ground.

He was at once taken to the Receiving Hospital, where he was identified by Guillot and it was then that the man who had shot him. He declared that it was and Guillot then admitted his guilt. Guillot claims that he acted in self-defense and that Dias had tried to take from him certain papers, but the statements of several witnesses are to the effect that the shooting was wholly without provocation.

DID NOT STRIKE GUILLOT.

The members of the No. 4 engine company of the fire department were directly across the street from the place when the shooting occurred, and with Patrolman Boaz were on the scene quickly. Capt. Home went to the assistance of the wounded man and other firemen accompanied the policeman in arresting the man who did the shooting. All of them witnessed a part that Guillot's statement that Dias struck him is not true.

Guillot came to this city several years ago as secretary of the Lombardi Opera Company, and after that company disbanded he remained here. He is a widower and has been a hard drinker. He was intoxicated at the time of the shooting, although not to the extent that he did not know all that was being done around him. The victim is well known among the Spanish and French families of the city, and bears a good reputation.

The Georgetown, Colo., jury in the case of the union miners charged with conspiracy to destroy the buildings of the Sun and Moon mine at Idaho Springs retired at 6:30 o'clock.

FOUR FIRST CHOICES COME HOME FIRST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P. M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Favorite followers fared better at Oakland today, as four of the first choices came home in front. One of the best contested races was that for 3-year-olds. Military Man, the favorite, was interfered with and lost ground, but came with a rush the final furlong, winning by a head from Young Pepper, who had led from the start. Velma Clark also got up in time to win her race by a neck from Glenarven. Royalty showed much improvement, and won the last race cleverly at odds of 7 to 1 from Frank Woods, the favorite. F. W. Brode caused delay by his unruly actions in the first race and A. C. Dean, his trainer, was suspended pending further investigation, as the officials felt the horse was under the influence of stimulants. Summary:

Seven furlongs, selling: Myrtle H., 99 (Oliphant,) 10/to 1, won; Tonopah, 101 (J. T. Sheehan,) 6 to 1, second; Phrance, 91 (Kuna,) 15 to 1, third; time 1:27½. Donator, Candidate, Maud Muller, Tamm, Tom Kingsley, Honeysuckle, Capable and F. W. Brode finished as named.

Six furlongs, purse: Military Man, 115 (Haack,) 4 to 1, won; Young Pepper, 103 (Hildebrand,) 15 to 1, second; Hugh McGowan, 109 (Larsen,) 15 to 1, third; time 1:13½. Sacredine, Otis Stifel, Celebrant, Dungannon and Mystic R. finished as named.

Seven furlongs, selling: Velma Clark, 102 (Larsen,) 13 to 5, won; Glenarven, 109 (Burns,) 5 to 1, second; El Plato, 104 (Hildebrand,) 11 to 5, third; time 1:27½. Homily, Chickadee, Ulloa, Our Pride and Optimo finished as named.

One mile, selling: Heather Honey, 98, (Hildebrand,) 3 to 5, won; Rosario, 99 (Wright,) 20 to 1, second; Rosario, 107 (Bell,) 12 to 1, third; time 1:40. Feronius, Silurian, Hippomax, Pierce F., Kitty Kelly, Keyrota, McGrathiana, Prince and First Chip finished as named.

Futurity course, selling: Uletma, 110 (Larsen,) 3 to 1, won; Hard Burns, 110 (Sea,) 13 to 1, second; Pure Dale, 105 (Hildebrand,) 9 to 2, third; time 1:10½. Ethel Abbott, Lurene, Hallas, Skip Me and Mr. Palmy finished as named.

One mile and a quarter, selling: Royalty, 104 (Hildebrand,) 7 to 1, won; Frank Woods, 103 (Larsen,) 3 to 5, second; Position, 107 (Burns,) 3 to 1, third; time 2:06¼. Martin, Miss Silky, Searcher and El Oriente finished as named.

Scratched—Obie Girl.
Start good. Won ridden out. Next three driving hard.
Goldfinder was probably the best, but has nothing to boast of. Was taken out in front and handled nicely, without being allowed to run himself into the ground. Dupont off poorly and but with interference, or might have won. Lunar ran good race.

5733 SECOND RACE—Three furlongs. Purse. Two-year-old colts and geldings. Value to first, $325.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Sneak Thief.

The house of C. H. Wedgewood, No. 1324 West First street, was entered by a sneak thief Wednesday evening, and a revolver, three pairs of opera glasses and a silk waist stolen.

High School Play.

The winter senior A's, Los Angeles High School, will present a play based on Cooper's "Spy" at the Mason Opera-house in February. It will be the regular commencement play.

Special Matinee.

A special matinée of the Orpheum Road Show will be given at the Orpheum theater this afternoon. The Road Show has broken its Los Angeles records regularly, so far.

Burned at Grate.

A 3-year-old son of Lieut. G. W. Bright of Chemical Engine No. 1, was seriously burned yesterday morning. Its night dress having caught fire at a grate. The flames were extinguished by the child's mother and while its burns are painful, it will recover.

No Assets.

L. H. Austin, formerly a farmer and now a laborer of Bakersfield, declares himself a bankrupt in a petition filed in the United States District Court yesterday. His liabilities are scheduled in the amount of $806.50, with no assets beyond $50 worth of household goods.

Leg Broken.

E. J. Boreges, a hod-carrier, fell off a scaffolding with a wheelbarrow loaded with brick, at the corner of Central avenue and Turner street, yesterday afternoon and fractured his left leg. He is a man without family. The fracture was reduced at the Receiving Hospital.

Star Course Event.

Mrs. Jessie Eldridge Southwick gave another programme of readings in Simpson Auditorium last evening, her recital being the third event in the Star course of entertainments. She was assisted by Mrs. Tessie Cook Haskins, harpist; Charles A. Bowes, basso, and Miss Lulu Baker, pianist.

Colburn Not Lost.

An Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco says that Charles P. Colburn, a mining man of Los Angeles, whose disappearance was reported from Phoenix, Ariz., a week ago, was located yesterday at a San Francisco hotel. He said he went there on business.

Not Machine Agents.

Two Mexicans were arrested last night by Patrolman McDowell while they were trying to sell in Chinatown a new National sewing machine which bore no evidences of having been used. They offered it to a number of persons for $1, when it is worth easily ten times that amount or more. They refused to state where they had secured the machine.

Sunday-School Lesson.

A meeting of the Sunday-school teachers and superintendents of the city has been called for this evening at the Broadway Christian Church, opposite the Courthouse. The Sunday-school lesson for Sunday, "The Baptism and Temptations of Jesus," will be discussed by Prof. R. P. Shepherd of New Jersey. The discussion will be continued at the church service Sunday morning.

Died Unattended.

The Coroner was notified yesterday of the sudden death at Sawtelle Wednesday night of Mrs. Sarah E. Frazier, a widow, aged 78 years. The deceased had long been afflicted with dropsy and heart disease and her death was due probably to the latter ailment. Inasmuch as her death occurred so suddenly that no physician could be summoned it is necessary for the Coroner to investigate, and an inquest will be held today.

Wrong Change.

C. J. Morrison wanted a drink last night, and having no money and being unable to find a friend, he went into a saloon at First and Los Angeles streets and entered into a card game for the drinks, thinking he would be certain to win. He lost, and when the other three players demanded their drinks Morrison could not pay. One of the players knocked Morrison against a corner of the bar with such force that his scalp was cut open. It was sewed up by the police surgeon.

Blaze in Barber Shop.

A careless smoker who knocked the ashes from his pipe into a pile of rubbish at a basement window under the Los Angeles National Bank at First and Spring streets yesterday caused what might have been a serious fire. The pile of rubbish was ignited and the heat broke a large plate glass window, filled the barber shop of Fred F. Kern with smoke, and in extinguishing the flames the firemen found it necessary to direct a stream into the barber shop. The loss will amount to $150, fully insured.

G.A.R. Reception.

A joint meeting of delegates from the Bartlett-Logan, Stanton, Kenesaw, John A. Logan and Uncle Sam posts of the Grand Army of the Republic was held in the rooms of the Builders' Exchange, Stimson Block, last night, to make arrangements for the coming reception for the department commander, Gen. Shafter, and his adjutant, John H. Roberts. These officers will be in Los Angeles the 22d inst. and on the evening of that date the posts above mentioned and the Woman's Relief Corps will tender them a public reception in one of the larger halls.

Investments.

Thomas Higgins is reported to have purchased, through the agencies of H. W. Lewis and R. A. Rowan, a lot 83x132 feet, on the north side of Eighth street, 115 feet east of Hill street, with frame cottage; consideration named, $20,000; W. S. Collins and George E. Hart are reported to have purchased of Adolf Petsch, through A. T. Jergins & Co., 150x130 feet, on the southeast corner of Figueroa and Twenty-first streets, with a ten-room two-story frame dwelling; consideration named, $15,000. Lot is planted in palms and other tropic and semi-tropic plants.

Want Road Extended.

Citizens of the Boyle Heights territory along its eastern borders have numerously signed a petition to the Los Angeles Railway Company, asking it to hurry up the construction of its line to the city limits. The petition sets forth the fact that the line now only runs to the southern entrance of Evergreen Cemetery, but that the company has torn up the street and made it almost impassable from that point on to the city limits. The immediate completion of the line is urged, so that the street may be put in usable shape. The company claims that the work has been delayed because of the shortage of material for its construction.

Garden City Folks Today.

A dispatch from San José last night stated that at least 300 of the prominent citizens, in some instances accompanied by their wives, will come to Los Angeles today on the San José Chamber of Commerce excursion. The special train is expected to arrive here between 6 and 7 o'clock this evening, and the special committee appointed by the local chamber will extend to the visitors a welcoming hand. It is hoped that the Los Angeles friends of the San José people who are coming will also turn out at the Arcade depot to join in the welcome. The programme of sight-seeing and entertainment prepared for the visitors tomorrow and Sunday has already been published.

Can You Save $1 Per Week? Then Buy a Piano.

We are not an unknown concern, but the largest establishment of its kind in Southern California, and therefore when we make the assertion that every family, far and near, can afford to own a piano the public knows that the statement is true.

Consider your own case, your own home, or your own room. There is no reason why you should not have a beautiful piano to ornament the home and to afford you pleasure every day. We'll sell you a piano for less money than other stores ask for rental terms. We'll sell you a piano from $150 to $300 below the price piano dealers ask. $10 down and $5 per week places in your home a famous Wagner piano, an instrument which lasts a lifetime, and is fully guaranteed by the makers. Then, simply pay $5 per week. We have sold more pianos since advertising this department to our business than any piano house in the Southwest.

We'll furnish your house, office, room or hotel with whatever you may need—carpets, draperies, mattings, window shades, stoves, furniture, on a credit system that has no equal.

ANXIOUS FOR ANNEXATION.

Loud Clamoring at Gates of Los Angeles.

Active Independent Campaign in Progress.

Preparing for City Election. Strong Claims.

"Greater Los Angeles" is the slogan of the annexationists at both the eastern and the western portals of the city. Belvedere and Occidental Heights and Cahuenga Valley district are showing much activity in their preparation for the calling of a city election. Each of these territories is determined to get into the municipality, if possible.

Although both candidates for admission have their main desire for annexation founded on the securing of a good and sufficient water supply, there is a disposition on both sides to conduct their campaigns independently. Each one is suspicious of the proposed plan of combining forces, and if an election is called each proposition will doubtless be submitted separately.

The Occidental Heights people held a mass meeting at the Belvedere schoolhouse Tuesday night, and definitely decided on the lines of the proposed annexation district. There is a slight change from the original plan, as shown in map herewith, and Stephenson avenue or East Second street will be the south line, while East Side boulevard will form the northern limit.

This territory will include the handsome Belvedere school, a first-class building, with extensive grounds and a well-equipped school of two departments. The district also includes the old Occidental College site, and the group of cottages contiguous thereto, and the settlement to the southeast of this, as well as the new residence tract of Strong & Dickinson, known as Wellington Heights. Ex-Mayor H. T. Hazard's East Side addition is also located in this district, and although it is said he was originally opposed to annexation, he now favors it, and has abandoned his attempts to form an independent water company for these lands.

ARE "CLOSE IN."

One point that the eastern highlanders are urging in favor of their admission is their comparative nearness to the center of the city. They say the eastern lines of the proposed annexation district are only three miles from the center of the city, and that as the city has voted into its corporation tracts that lie almost twice as far from the business center, this claim should be considered. They are anticipating the extension of the East First-street electric line, so that these heights will be easily accessible, and the building of many new homes is assured if they are taken into the city.

The meeting authorized Henry Gottleber, one of the active workers for annexation, to have blue prints of the district prepared and petitions printed. These will be in readiness for the next meeting, which will take place at the Belvedere school next Tuesday evening. Immediately thereafter an active canvass of the city will be begun for signers to the election petition.

The Occidental Heights people will put forty men into the field, and feel confident they can secure the required 4000 names within a short time.

The city water department has agreed to continue the present supply of water to residents of these highlands, but it has notified land-owners there that no new services will be attached. Annexation would solve this difficulty.

AT CAHUENGA.

No less active than the people of the highlands are the residents of the valley district which wants to come under the wing of the Angel City. Last night a meeting of the "Committee of Nine" was held at the residence of John W. Mitchell, corner of First and Vermont avenue. This committee is composed of John W. Mitchell, George T. Swan, Senator Cornelius Cole, E. A. Ensign, E. C. Gird, Charles W. Brown, J. L. Plummer, L. A. Newman, J. J. Jones and J. B. Murphy.

These men have general charge of the Cahuenga annexation campaign, and have had the proposed territory surveyed. Accurate maps have been prepared, and will be attached to the petitions for the election. Last night they took up the various objections which have been raised against admitting such a large territory to the city, and prepared an answer to all these points. This will be printed and freely circulated throughout the city.

The committee in this report shows that many cities of the United States have a larger territory than Los Angeles would have, even after the admission of the Cahuenga district; that the taking in of vacant territory never hurt any city, and that if there is any objection on this score it should come from the owners of the vacant property who have to pay the taxes, instead of those who are already within the corporate limits. The committee sets forth the claim that there is an ample water supply for all the territory of this "Greater Los Angeles," and that no fire or police protection is required for the vacant lands over which there is apparently so much objection.

Like the people of the eastern territory, the Cahuenga residents are now prepared to and will begin their active canvass for signers to the election petitions. Mr. Mitchell, chairman of the committee, says the Cahuenga people prefer to conduct their canvass entirely independent of the Occidental Heights people. "We began our movement long before these people did anything," said he, "and we wish to take no chances that might jeopardize our interests. We shall insist that our proposition be presented independently."

SCRATCH FOR STRAY COINS.

SCRAMBLE FOR LOOT LOST BY BANK ROBBERS.

Rig Used by Criminals at Sawtelle Found Abandoned in Private Lane Near The Palms—Likely Came Here by Trolley.

Discovery of the horse and phaeton stolen by the Sawtelle bank robbers and used by them in leaving the scene of their crime, Wednesday morning, was the only important point developing in this affair yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff Cleveland found the horse and vehicle in the morning at the ranch home of J. M. Jorgensen, about one-half mile northeast of the Palms. There they had been abandoned by the bank robbers.

They had driven from the place where the strong box of the bank was forced open, and were obviously headed for Los Angeles. Being unfamiliar with the country roads, they took the private lane leading to the Jorgensen residence, instead of keeping to the public highway.

When they discovered their mistake they evidently attempted to turn the vehicle, but in this attempt a wheel was broken and they saw there was nothing to do but abandon the rig.

There was a hay stack adjoining the lane, and the robbers turned the horse into this before starting away.

Mr. and Mrs. Jorgensen say they heard the noise of the vehicle driving up about 4 o'clock in the morning, but they thought it had turned away again, and paid no attention to it. When they arose at daylight they discovered the broken phaeton and the horse.

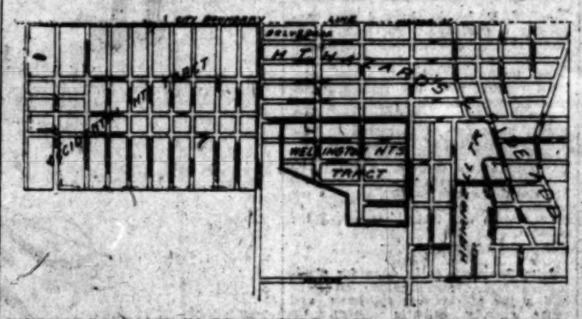
At this point it is less than a mile to the electric line, and the robbers doubtless made for the road and reached the city by one of the early cars.

The fragments of the shattered chrome steel cash box, which was blown up by the robbers, were taken back to Sawtelle yesterday by the officers who found it, and it excited much curiosity all day as it was on exhibition at the station of the Los Angeles Pacific Railway.

There were two large pieces and twelve small fragments found. All day the men and boys of Sawtelle searched with fingers, rakes and other means, in the vicinity of the breaking open of the cash box for any scattered money that might have been overlooked by the discoverers the day before.

About a week before the robbery George Axtell deposited with the bank a solid gold badge presented to him by the Masons of Michigan in recognition of his services as Grand High Priest. It contained the coat of arms of the State of Michigan, the breast plate and various symbols of the order. This was found and returned to the bank, with only a few stones of the breast plate missing.

Last night the officers were searching in the neighborhood of Ballona, having a clew in that direction; but no definite results have been reported.



DISTRICT PROPOSED TO BE ANNEXED EAST OF BOYLE HEIGHTS.

PIGEON EXECUTIONS.

County Game Warden Shooting the Flocks of Pretty Birds on the Courthouse Roof.

Thousands of pretty pigeons which make their homes in the nooks and eaves of the county courthouse have been condemned to die.

The Supervisors have delegated the County Game Warden, William Morgan, to kill as many of them as possible.

They have been for many years a pretty and a picturesque feature and have attracted much attention. Thousands of them raise their families there in the circle of influence of the statue of Justice, who stands with lifted scales on the front of the building. Some of them have been known to audaciously build their nests in her scales.

It is necessary to destroy them, however. They are not careful where they establish their public toilets and the gutters of the courthouse have become clogged. In case of a rain serious damage might be done by lack of roof drainage.

For several days past Mr. Morgan has been shooting them. He uses a Winchester rifle loaded with shot cartridges. He stands in the yard of the courthouse and takes them when they come down from their nests.

Owing to the rapid breeding of pigeons, steps will be taken also to destroy the young.

U.P. AND U.S.C. DEBATE.

The University of the Pacific will enter a joint debate with the University of Southern California. This decision was announced after the turbulent student body meeting yesterday. U. S. C. has a proud record in oratory and carried off the honors easily in the debate with Pomona. The University of the Pacific is a Methodist college at San José. The institution has recently received a large endowment through the efforts of Bishop Hamilton. The terms of the challenge are that the University of the Pacific will choose the subject, and U. S. C. have choice of the negative or affirmative side. Two men from each college will enter the debate, which is to take place in Simpson Auditorium about February 19.

SENSATION AT UNIVERSITY.

Capt. Caley Paid for Services on Football Team.

Manager Spends Thousand Dollars During Season.

Still Deficit Exists—Seymour's Tears Win.

The student body of the University of Southern California held what was perhaps the most sensational meeting in the history of the institution in the college chapel yesterday at noon.

The climax was reached when J. F. Seymour, Jr., manager of the football team, produced a check for $25, drawn in favor of D. M. Caley, captain of the 'varsity eleven, for his services as a member of that team.

Seymour was called down on a point of order before he could read the check or state the amount, but the announcement that a member of the college team, and especially its captain, had received money for playing created consternation among the students.

The check, which is on the Union Bank of Savings, is signed by J. F. Seymour, Jr., and is numbered 13,497. The date of Seymour's signature is November 23, and Caley cashed it two days later at the Citizens' National Bank.

BOARD REFUSES SANCTION.

The check was turned in to the Board of Control of Athletics of U.S.C. for its sanction, along with other receipts and vouchers, aggregating nearly $1000, which Seymour has expended in managing the university team this season.

The board refused to thus sanction professionalism in the institution, and returned the check to Seymour with the following notation, dated January 12: "The within receipt rejected by Board of Control of Athletics of U. S. C." This was signed by G. F. Bovard and Clare Ehrpeart, president and secretary, respectively, of the board.

Last night Seymour said: "D. Caley endeavored to get in on the financial end of the football management early in the season, and in order to get him to play at all I was compelled to promise to pay him for his services."

MAY HAVE RECEIVED MORE.

There is a rumor that the $25 check Seymour brought out yesterday from the skeleton closet of the U.S.C. football team is but a small part of the amount that Capt. Caley really received. It is said the real amount turned over by the football captain was $150. Of this amount his brother, E. Caley, is supposed to have received $75. According to Seymour, E. Caley got wind of the arrangement to pay his brother, Capt. Caley, for playing on the team, and so E. Caley refused to play unless one-half of the spoils went to him. The Caley brothers and Seymour finally arranged a meeting at Eastlake Park where, after much parleying, this arrangement was agreed upon.

GREAT INDIGNATION.

Faculty and students are all wrought up because Seymour took the reins in his own hands and cast the stigma of professionalism upon the school. Members of the faculty expressed regret that the unfortunate incident had occurred, but declared they were powerless to punish the men who so flagrantly transgressed one of the most sacred customs which govern athletic contests in colleges, where the strictest amateur rules are supposed to be enforced.

"The stigma will not fall upon the board of control," said Prof. Tully Knoles, "but upon those who have brought the trouble about." And that seemed to be the sentiment of the other members of the faculty who were approached on the subject.

The excitement which the developments of the day caused did not subside with the adjournment of the meeting, but all afternoon the halls swarmed with students. The class rooms were practically deserted, and the whole student body seemed demoralized.

The meeting opened bright enough, with the singing of the school song, beginning, "We're a jolly band of college boys." But the scene changed quickly, and one of the most hotly-contested word battles in the history of the school was on.

AN EXPENSIVE SEASON.

It was all about young Seymour's management of the football team for the season just closed. Although the U.S.C. team had no regular coach, Seymour succeeded in spending nearly $1000, an unprecedented amount, at the local school, and with all that turns in unpaid bills to the amount of $77.

The Auditing Committee of the Board of Control looked over Seymour's accounts and declared them to be correct. There was, however, a large number of students who thought that Seymour's accounts should be more thoroughly investigated in view of the fact that in other seasons the football team had with fewer games than this year been a money maker for the athletic fund.

As soon as Guy Dyar, president of the student body, called the meeting to order, Prof. Minear read the report of the Auditing Committee showing that $77 was still due and unpaid.

Charles Broderson, a member of the football team, got the floor and made a strong speech against the adoption of the report, and moved that it be laid on the table. Seymour was on his feet in an instant and vigorously declared that the accounts were correct, and defied anyone to show any discrepancies.

"I have here," said he, in my pocket a check for money paid for services of the captain of our team." He was about to produce the check when he was declared out of order by the president. He appealed from the decision, but the chair was sustained.

SEYMOUR'S ACCOUNTS CORRECT.

Prof. Knoles declared that the Auditing Committee had gone over Seymour's report very carefully and found it correct.

Charles Scott of the Board of Control said he was satisfied all the money had been expended for the team, whether wisely or not he had no opinion, but he thought it would teach more careful methods in the future.

Broderson again spoke in favor of laying the report on the table, and the motion carried. Then Seymour moved to read the items on the report, but the students voted against him. Seymour finally got permission to speak for two minutes on his promise that he would not indulge in personalities.

SEYMOUR'S TEARS WIN.

Up to this time Seymour had been full of bravado and fight. He even called Broderson, his chief opponent, a prevaricator and insinuated worse things. Now he began to weep. Copious tears streamed down his cheeks and pattered softly on the floor. He was all meekness now.

"Everything looks honest on its face," he said, between the sobs. "No one can prove a single dishonest transaction. This is the first time I have been charged with dishonesty anywhere, let alone an institution where honesty and fair play are supposed to prevail. I ask to be vindicated of this suspicion at your hands. Don't you think this is right; don't you think it is fair?"

Seymour's speech and Seymour's tears won the day. The report was taken from the table and adopted almost unanimously, and Seymour is happy.

WORLD'S LARGEST ORGAN IS HEARD.

PUBLIC IS GIVEN CHANCE TO HEAR ITS VOICE.

Foundations of Its Home Are Shaken by Its Wondrous Notes. Will be Shipped to St. Louis Next Month—Gigantic Pipes.

The Los Angeles Art Organ Company, successor to the Murray M. Harris Organ Company, is holding a series of "at homes," in order that the general public may inspect and hear the largest organ in the world, which is nearing completion at the factory on East Seventh street. Yesterday was devoted to the newspapers and ministers of the city and a goodly representation was present during the afternoon and stood spellbound while the heavy chords vibrated through the immense room, causing little thrills to creep up and down the spines of the listeners. The great instrument was played by Arthur Scott-Brook of Stanford University, who will remain with the organ until after the World's Fair. It will be shipped to St. Louis about February 10, and some conception of its size may be obtained from the fact that it will require over 30,000 feet of lumber to pack it for shipment. It is a church itself in size, as large as a four-story dwelling house, 30 feet wide and 43 feet long. Climbing about in it, one is almost lost in the maze of stairways, ladders, pipes and bellows.

Yesterday afternoon, when the place was shaken to the foundations by the notes of this huge organ, only one-fourth of it was being used. The other three-fourths are not yet completed. Although the amazement of the spectator was [illegible] glimpse of the [illegible] and his ears were deafened by the torrent of sound which threatened to beat him back through the door of entrance, he was even more awe-struck upon passing the organ and beholding the gigantic pipes fifty feet long and weighing 1500 pounds each. These pipes will never give forth their thunderous tones in this city, as the reeds for them are being made in the East. No programme was given yesterday, as the organ is not completed and has not been tuned for finer work, but those who understand the playing of the instrument were allowed to touch the keys, that they may say later, when this organ has become famous, that they have played upon it.

The action room proved an interesting place because the great console of the organ is being finished there, with its myriad of stops and appliances, banks of keys and foot pedals.

In addition to this main console there will be an automatic console and the scores are now being made up in the music room out of heavy rope paper. The rolls of paper are first stencilled and are then cut by hand and one piece of music for this organ makes a roll about two feet in diameter. The automatic console was seen in the finishing room and though simple and smaller than the other console is a beautiful piece of work. So interesting is the factory that to go through it means a steady walk for almost half an hour. Next to the music room is the pneumatic room, where about a dozen girls are employed, working principally with leather and glue. Glue plays an important part in the manufacture of the organ. Then there is the voicing room, where the pitch is obtained, and the pipe stop room, the chest room, the pipe room and the mill room, all of them large rooms with many employés busily at work.

NEW CONVENT SITE.

Bishop Conaty Buys Land at Hollywood, Forms New Parish and Relocates Priests.

In pursuance of the general policy outlined by Bishop Conaty for the advancement of the interests of the Roman Catholic Church in the diocese of Monterey and Los Angeles, comes the announcement that he has purchased for the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart a tract of fourteen acres fronting on Western avenue, in the eastern part of Hollywood. The price is given as $10,000, and this land is to be the site of the new academy and novitiate of this sisterhood. Substantial buildings will be erected.

Another important change is announced in the formation of Hollywood as a separate parish. The bishop has appointed Rev. D. W. J. Murphy as rector of this new parish, and his duties are to begin at once.

Father Murphy began his work in the priesthood in this city, and for the past four years has been an assistant at the Cathedral parish. Prior to this appointment he has been serving as the vice-rector of the Cathedral of St. Vibiana. He is director of several of the Cathedral societies, and chaplain of the Los Angeles Council, Knights of Columbus and of Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Other changes in the clergy of this diocese are announced as follows: Rev. John J. Sheehy, assistant at St. Andrew's Church, Pasadena, takes charge of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Coronado Beach, vice Rev. William Bitter, who returns to his former work in Kansas.

Rev. Jeremiah Enright is appointed temporarily to succeed Father Sheehy at Pasadena. The churches at Compton and San Pedro are to be in charge of Rev. Ramon Ferrer, and Wilmington and San Pedro will be under the care of Rev. Patrick Smith. The new Indian chapel at the Sherman School will be in charge of Rev. J. O'Brien, who has been an assistant at the Banning Indian School.

ZION MISSION BEGUN HERE.

"Elijah" After Recruits in Los Angeles.

Woman Evangelist to Run Local Institution.

Dowie's Trip up Mt. Lowe Impresses Him.

When Dowie goes, he will leave in Los Angeles a Zion-trained, city-broke missionary who never smelled pork chops, to gather in recruits for "Zion."

Although it is true, as "Elijah" said, that he will not plant another Zion city in California, a mission will be established in this city.

Its head is a lady missionary, if you please; she's been here several days waiting for the arrival of "Elijah II."

Her name is Sarah Hill. She's some pumpkins in Zion. Her official title there is Evangelist Hill.

With Evangelist Hill is another Zion recruitess.

She is a deaconess; her name is Anna Richert. Whether a deaconess is of more import in Zion than an evangelist is not known.

The plan is for Dowie himself to give the work a grand send-off at a public meeting Sunday afternoon. In the evening, one of his prime ministers in waiting will take the reins. Then, while enthusiasm is at white heat (maybe) Evangelist Hill will come to the bat and keep the movement going and whoop it up for Zion.

One Brother Winters must go away back and sit down. He's not a cheese sandwich in this feast.

There are a few of the faithful already here. Mrs. L. A. Wilkinson of No. 630 East Twenty-third, who was healed in the bat of an eye in San Antonio of consumption, has been holding meetings here in a small way.

Evangelist Hill will blow it wide open, however.

She will hold meetings Sunday morning and Sunday afternoon of each week. At one of these meetings at least, she will teach the simple little trick of "divine healing."

During each week she will hold "cottage meetings" around at the homes of the faithful.

Yesterday Deaconess Richert and Evangelist Hill spent a large part of the day with "Elijah," talking over the details.

[illegible] from the Van Nuys [illegible]

All the details were arranged beforehand by Mr. McMillen of the Pacific Electric, who is a friend of Deacon Lupton, the railroad man in charge of the Dowie party. His son, Jesse McMillen, personally conducted the party.

Dowie was delighted with the trip and with Mount Lowe. Many times he expressed his wonder and interest in the place and in the marvelous railroad. He announced his intention of writing a description of it for an early number of the Zion publication, "Leaves of Healing."

Many other travelers have furtively taken notes of that trip on their cuffs and burst into rapturous descriptions for magazines, but which somehow never appeared in the magazines. Dowie, however, seems to have very fair to middling luck getting his contributions accepted by the "Leaves of Healing."

The party returned in time for luncheon at the Van Nuys.

In addition to his regular party, covers were laid for a few others, including Jesse McMillen, Mr. Adams, a representative of the Nickel Plate Railroad, Deaconess Richert and Evangelist Hill.

After luncheon Dowie was obliged to give his attention to a mass of business relating to Zion City, which, of course, still has his supervising eye.

Late in the afternoon a carriage was called, and he went driving with Deaconess Richert and Evangelist Hill. They returned about 7 o'clock, and had dinner in Dowie's suite at the Van Nuys.

This morning at 9 o'clock, Dowie will leave for Santa Monica, where he will spend two days resting. He will return to the city Sunday morning.

The Dowie meeting will be held at Hasard's Pavilion at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Admittance will be only by ticket; there will be no need to go unless you have a ticket; you won't get in.

The evening meeting will be conducted by J. G. Excell, one of the deacons. It will not be at Hazard's Pavilion. The hall has not yet been engaged.

'PHONE RATES ADVANCED.

Home Company Raises Commercial Tolls from Four Dollars to Five Dollars Per Month.

The rumor that the Home Telephone Company had raised its rate on commercial 'phones, printed in The Times, was verified by a director of the company yesterday. Henceforth the basis of rental for commercial 'phones of this system will be $5 a month, an advance of $1 over the rate that prevailed up to the first of the year. No change will be made on the rate for residence 'phones. This will not affect old subscribers yet, as they subscribed on three-year contracts on the $4 basis.

Director Thomas W. Phillips stated yesterday that in the telephone business rapid expansion, such as has come to the Home company in the short time since the building of its plant, means a constantly-increasing ratio of expense in conducting the system, and the advance in rate on the class of 'phones above mentioned was decided upon as necessary to keep the system up to the highest standard of service, and still pay a fair rate of interest to the stockholders on their investment. There will be no further rate raising at present.

The Home Telephone Company operates 11,000 'phones, and a striking illustration of the extent to which telephone are used in the daily routine by the Los Angeles public is the statement that the switchboards of this one company receive as high as 100,000 calls a day. It is said that within ninety days the Home company will have completed its long-distance connections with all the principal points of population in Southern California, from Santa Barbara to San Diego.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

It was given out yesterday that measures are being taken quietly to rid the crib district of the last of its denizens.

The attention of the Park Commission was called to criticism of the Superintendent because of the cutting of trees in Prospect Park.

After nearly forty years there is to be a further probating of the Temple estate. John Temple, one of the earliest pioneers, died very many years ago, but because then valueless a piece of property was omitted from the inventory. Now it is worth money.

Mrs. Margaret West, the mortgage expert, was held up at San Francisco and compelled to make good the forgery she committed in Los Angeles, when she gave a bogus check for her tickets on the steamer. It is probable that she will be brought back.

AT THE CITY HALL.

MUST FORSAKE LITTLE PAREE.

AUTHORITIES WILL NOT ALLOW WOMEN TO RETURN.

Measures Quietly Taken to Utterly Stamp Out the Nameless Evil. City Attorney Believes the Situation Far from Discouraging.

Quietly and without ostentation measures are being taken to utterly stamp out the crib evil.

It is the determination of the authorities to prevent further traffic in souls in the red-light district.

Last night it was given out that the conditions now prevailing in the crib sections are not to be taken as an indication that the women of the half world will again be allowed to people Little Paree. The information was vouchsafed that measures are being taken which will prevent a return to the old conditions under whatever guise.

The consistent aim of the City Attorney has been to eradicate the evil without the beating of tom-toms or any plays to the galleries. Every day the office is informed of the prevailing conditions and the police force stands ready to carry out any orders that may be given.

City Attorney Mathews hopes to carry through the reform without persecuting the unfortunate women of the tenderloin.

For reasons best known to the officials who are handling the crib evil it has been thought inadvisable to state for publication just what steps are being taken to frustrate the plans of Ballerino and the other owners of crib property. But the fiat has gone forth that the women must not return to their old haunts.

Building Superintendent Krause made another inspection of the crib district yesterday. He intends that his orders regarding the remodeling of the International Hotel building shall be obeyed to the letter.

PARK BOARD.

SUPERINTENDENT CRITICISED.

Superintendent Louis Legrand of the Park Department has come in for severe criticism from persons residing near Prospect Park. They represented to the Park Commissioners that the little park was being ruined by the destruction of trees under orders from the superintendent. Reference was made to the rigorous pruning of the rubber trees in Plaza Park, which occasioned such a stir some months ago, and the Commissioners were given to understand that Prospect Park was being mutilated.

Commissioners Jones and Rice were yesterday appointed a committee to make an investigation and report to the board at the next meeting.

Complaint has also been made to the board because Superintendent Legrand does not observe regular office hours. As the superintendent's home is outside the city limits persons who wish to consult with him on park business find considerable difficulty in locating him.

Regarding the work in Prospect Park the superintendent stated yesterday that he had ordered the removal of eucalyptus trees that were overshadowing and crowding out more valuable trees and shrubs.

The Park Commission instructed the department secretary yesterday morning to purchase a horse and saddle for the foreman in Griffith Park in order that he can more efficiently patrol the large territory. The commissioners are afraid that fire will break out on the parched hillsides and destroy the undergrowth in the park.

Ninth Street Curve.

For the present at least Ninth street at the intersection with Figueroa street will not be straightened. There is a jog in Ninth street at this point of about one hundred feet and a petition was presented not long ago asking that the street be straightened in order to obviate the dangerous street-car curves. Yesterday the Board of Public Works made an inspection of the street and decided that it would be impracticable to make the change requested. The board made a long trip through the city and inspected a large number of streets regarding which petitions are now pending.

Gas and Light.

It is probable that the Gas and Light Committee which has been dormant for several months will revive sufficiently today to hold a session for the purpose of considering the plan to illuminate St. James Park. Residents of that vicinity are desirous of installing a lighting system similar to that in use at Chester Place.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

OLD SPANISH DAYS RECALLED.

PART OF TEMPLE ESTATE NOT YET DISPOSED OF.

Daughter Died in Paris, the Widow Has Disappeared and the Remnant of the Vast Fortune May Now Revert to the State.

When John Temple died his will was probated in San Francisco, and, as was then thought, the large estate of one of the earliest of the Los Angeles pioneers was finally disposed of. But it was not.

The wedge-shaped Temple block takes its name from John Temple, the Englishman who was among the earliest of the settlers to come to Los Angeles when it was in the pueblo stage of its existence. Temple street also is a memorial of him, and the present water system is, in a way, a monument to the memory of John Temple, and for the unfortunate aftermath he was in no way responsible. Temple could not get iron pipes for his water mains, so he had wooden ones made, and these—or some of them—were extant until a very recent date.

When Temple passed away and his large holdings were distributed under the will, one piece of real estate was intentionally overlooked, and now the Public Administrator has filed his application for letters in order that this last remaining piece of property may be dealt with in a legal manner.

When the Temple will was probated in San Francisco in 1864 there were about two acres of land facing the water at Wilmington. This city in embryo was not as close to Wilmington then as it is now, and the land was not worth anything, anyway. A little while before his death Temple offered William H. Workman the greater part of the block on Broadway between Fourth and Fifth streets for $300, but "Uncle Billy" told him that he could get good farming land cheaper than that.

This odd two acres at Wilmington was so remote and of such little value that the expense of hiring horses to go there would have been more than it was worth, and consequently it was never appraised with the other property, nor included in the inventory of the estate.

But in the intervening years land values have advanced, and although Wilmington frontage isn't worth a fortune, this particular two acres is worth perhaps $2000. There is quite an amount due upon it for taxes, and at the present it is perilously near the date when the property could be disposed of at delinquent sale.

These taxes will have to be paid, but before that is done a search will be made for any heirs of John Temple. After his decease his widow and daughter went to live in Paris—a big jump from the simplicity of the Mexican frontier—and there Miss Temple died. What became of Mrs. Temple and whether or not there are other heirs is not known.

But this little bit of acreage is setting the wheels of inquiry going. British Vice-Consul Mortimer has taken the subject up, inasmuch as Temple was an Englishman, and is seeking information in the old country regarding the relatives, if there are any, of the Los Angeles pioneer.

And after the lapse of nearly forty years the real owners may yet come by their own.

MRS. WEST LOCATED.

SHE FORGED A CHECK.

Mrs. Margaret West, alias Brown, alias Rose, in which latter name she is supposed to be traveling, has been heard from at San Francisco.

When she and her daughter took passage on the steamer Centralia, and went on board at Redondo, she paid for the tickets with a forged check for $66 and some cents. The local agent of the Independent Steamship line discovered at the bank that he had been given a bit of bogus paper, and at once telegraphed to San Francisco.

The company's agent was on hand ready to welcome Mrs. West, or Mrs. Rose, when the Centralia steamed into port, and was about to annex the eight trunks belonging to her and her daughter in lieu of passage money. Then Mrs. West protested that there must be some mistake. The agent said there was. The lady protested some, but had to pay the $66 in cold coin. Then both passengers were allowed to proceed.

It is now known that the woman was bound for Aberdeen, Wash., but it is most probable that she will be brought back from there, or anywhere else that she may seek refuge.

The trouble over this particular case, and the main reason why Mrs. West was enabled to pile chattel mortgage upon chattel mortgage upon the one piece of property, is alleged to have been the result of creditors in the past who cared little about her being brought to punishment, but did think a great deal about getting their money back.

When brought to task, Mrs. West would return the money and the creditor would be too pleased to take any further steps toward her prosecution. As a result, she has involved a lot of people to a large amount in the aggregate, and at the last added forgery to her other offenses.

GETS HER DIVORCE.

WANDELL'S QUEER IDEA.

Mrs. Fannie Wandell was granted her divorce from Alonzo Wandell by Judge Trask yesterday, on the ground of desertion. But the desertion was merely the culmination of numerous differences that had existed during the married life of the parties.

Mr. Wandell was an old man even when he married this, his second wife, in 1882, and was over 70 when he left her a year ago. Many of his ideas had become childish while he retained the combative qualities of a younger man. He thought, among other things, that his wife ought to die before he did, despite the fact that she was much younger than he. As she was hale and hearty and showed no immediate intention of shuffling off, and his years were against him, that was an especial grievance with him.

FORTUNATE COLOR.

MAUD PARRISH ACQUITTED.

A 19-year-old colored girl named Mrs. Maud Parrish was yesterday acquitted in Judge Smith's court of grand larceny, and, considering the forcefulness of the evidence, she was fortunate in having several things other than the evidence tell in her favor.

The Parrish girl and another colored girl named Mrs. Sarah Langley went on a debauch with an old man named Preston, who looks about fifteen years over the 55 he pleads guilty to, and a youth of 19 who lives with him. The old man had drawn $164 from the bank that day and had it in a purse in his pocket. But during the carnival the money disappeared, and though $66 was found next morning on the floor the balance was never recovered.

The Parrish girl secured the services of Hiller B. Blair, also colored, as her attorney. His summing up to the jury was terse and to the point, and he gave just a light touch to the time-worn "oppression of my race" business, which seemed to impress the jury. Maj. Donnell put up a good fight and made a lucid argument, but the jury took but little time to arrive at a verdict of acquittal.

Mrs. Sarah Langley is to be tried on the same charge today, and whether the luck will change or not, remains to be seen.

THEY PLAYED EVEN.

FOUGHT FOR A STOVE.

A case came before Justice Young yesterday that forcibly illustrated the knowledge that the average person has about law.

Mr. and Mrs. Loree, who reside on Twenty-third street, purchased a stove a few weeks ago from Jacob Joseph, a dealer on Main street. Of course, they bought the stove on the supposition that it was all right in every way, but after getting it home they maintain that it leaked, smelt bad, and wasn't at all the success they had anticipated. They say that they tried to get their money back, but that was against the business principles of Joseph. Then they adopted another method, and here is where the tangle began.

The Lorees sued out a writ of attachment and on that writ got $15.75, being the amount of the claim with costs at that time. The amount was turned over by Deputy Constable C. B. Williams to the Lorees, holding that it was in satisfaction of the claim. Then the Lorees nipped into court and squared up so far as he was concerned. The following day, however, the defendtnt put in his denial and had the case set for trial, and the plaintiff, beginning to realize that there was a cog loose somewhere and still not wishing to take any chances at having to let go of the money he had recovered, waltzed into court and filed a notice of dismissal.

But the filing of the notice to dismiss didn't dismiss worth a cent after he had got possession of Joseph's good money by process of the court, and yesterday the case came to trial. The plaintiff, Loree, was conspicuous by his absence. After waiting for one hour for the plaintiff to appear Justice Young gave judgment for $15.75, the exact amount that had previously been annexed.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

CRIMINAL INSANE. Judge Smith yesterday set February 6 as the date when a jury will try A. Hercules on the insanity charge. If then found to be insane he will be sent to Highland until he recovers, when the murder charge will still stand against him. He shot and killed Foreman Segrue in the Redondo Electric Railway Company's workshop.

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION. The South Pasadena Woman's Improvement Association has incorporated to promote literary, social and educational interests. The trustees are: H. Augusta Walker, Jennie R. Collier, Pattie W. Alley, Mary P. Rust and Ada J. Longley.

NEW LUMBER COMPANY. The Vernon Lumber Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000, of which $10,000 has been subscribed. The directors are: George A. Carter, C. A. Lathrop, S. L. Higgins, C. A. Brown, Emerson Strong.

PLAIN DESERTION. Sarah A. Hickok was granted a divorce from Edward J. Hickok by Judge York yesterday, on the ground of desertion. The husband abandoned his home.

BABY ADOPTED. Baby Maxwell was adopted by Violet Mollison before Judge York, and henceforth the child is to be known as Dorothy Faith Violet Mollison. The child was born in this city, but the father is dead and the mother left the little one and went to Salt Lake City. She forwarded written consent to the adoption, however. Miss Mollison, who has now taken charge of the infant, is closely interested in mission work at Feniel Hall.

GOES TO JURY. Arguments in the damage suit of Margaret Cordiner against the Los Angeles Railway and the Traction companies closed yesterday afternoon in Judge Wilbur's court. This morning the jury will be instructed and then will consider the verdict.

EX-SERGEANT JEFFRIES SUED. The Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank began suit in Justice Young's court yesterday against W. T. Jeffries, ex-sergeant of police, to recover on a note for $200 given on July 10 of last year.

TRANSFER COMPANY. The Garden City Transfer Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $10,000, of which the full amount has been subscribed. The directors are: Edward D. Silent, G. H. A. Goodwin, Francis J. Thomas, J. Schneider, and John F. Sullivan, all of Los Angeles.

MISDIRECTED MONEY. J. M. Flowers is suing C. M. Anslyn and his wife before Judge Conrey for $354 and $2000 as exemplary damages. There was a contract between the parties under which Anslyn, who is a contractor, undertook to build two cottages on Twenty-third street, near Romeo. Flowers agreed to advance money for the material, and Anslyn was to receive the difference between the actual cost of construction and the contract price of $950. Flowers handed over a check for $355 to Anslyn to pay a lumber bill, and this amount instead of being so applied, was taken by Anslyn and applied to his own uses. Inasmuch as he contends this amount of money was coming to him he avers his right to do this.

CASTRUCCIO ESTATE. The will of the late James Castruccio, Italian consular agent, was admitted to probate yesterday, the entire estate, valued at $50,000, being left to the widow, Mrs. Clothilde Ginnocchio Castruccio. The five children are expressly excluded from sharing in the estate for the reason that testator says he knows that they will be well cared for by their mother.

SENT TO HIGHLAND. E. W. Brinckman, an advertising solicitor, who has labored under the delusion that he was Jim Jeffries, was yesterday ordered committed to Highland. His ideas are all adrift, and though he is good natured and talks sensibly to some extent, yet on every subject his mind is badly twisted.

NERVOUS DISEASE. Mrs. Sarah F. Hinckley, who has lived at Santa Monica, where she has some property, was sent to Highland by Judge Wilbur yesterday. There was some doubt as to her being insane, but her nervousness trenched so closely on it that it made little difference. On one occasion the patient said that she tied a string around a cat's neck and hung it on the fence, and she didn't know why she did it except that she had to yield to the impulse. At times, too, she showed an inclination toward suicide, and that convinced the examining physicians that her proper place is under close watch.

POLICE COURT.

POOLROOM CASE SLOW.

The entire day yesterday was consumed in Justice Austin's court in securing three jurors for the trial of "Col." F. D. Black, charged with conducting a poolroom. To secure the three, the list of sixty men summoned was exhausted, and an adjournment taken until this morning. The principal trouble with the talesmen was that they all believed Black guilty. Robert Pierce, a co-defendant with Black, having been arrested in the place at the time of the raid, was not present when the case was called. Justice Austin sent for him, administered a stinging reprimand and increased his bail from $200 to $700, and as the increased bond had not been filed at noon, Pierce was locked up during the recess.

Gray Again.

John Gray got forty days for stealing a revolver from a saloon, where he had a job of cleaning spittoons and other equally esthetic chores. On Wednesday Gray was given thirty days for carrying concealed deadly weapons. He got so busy explaining how he had bought the gun for 50 cents that the officers began to suspect that he had stolen it. A very limited investigation developed the fact that he had taken it from a closet in the saloon where Bonzo, the bartender, had placed it.

Trolley Sleepers.

The Holland Palace Car Company of Indianapolis has received the first of the sleeping cars which it has had built at Wilmington, Del. The car cost $20,000, and has ten compartments, with upper and lower berths. It is possible to ventilate each compartment separately, and the electric lights in the compartments are installed so that they can be raised and lowered at will. The dressing rooms have every convenience, even the most minute details being provided, such as electric cigar lighters in the men's rooms and electric hair curlers in the women's rooms. Another car of similar build has been shipped from Wilmington, and will arrive at Greenfield before the end of the month. The cars are named respectively Theodore and Francis, after the sons of President Holland and Joseph Selvage, of the company. The cars are so arranged that when ade up for day travel they are chair parlor cars. At night partitions are placed, roll curtains brought up from brass slots in the floor, and ten compartments, each with a single lower and upper berth, are made. Each car carries 600-horse-power motors, and is capable of making 65 to 70 miles an hour. It is figured that the car can leave the Indianapolis or Columbus terminal at 11 o'clock at night and arrive at the opposite terminal at 6 the following morning. The Holland company already has a contract for twenty-four sleepers, part of which will be combination diners and sleepers.—[Finance.

NERVOUS PEOPLE.

SOMETHING YOU OUGHT TO KNOW.

"No nerves and never irritable." This is what our well known druggists, The Owl Drug Co., say people report after taking Vinol. "It is remarkable," said a member of The Owl Drug Co., "how many people buy sedatives and all sorts of opiates to quiet and deaden the nerves, when they are weakening their entire nervous system by doing so.

"Nerve troubles are easily cured. It is simply a case of treating the general weakness, not the nerves alone, and that is just what Vinol does in the most direct and simple manner possible. It cures nerve troubles because it builds one up and makes one strong all over. It invigorates the entire nervous system, makes new blood and vitality.

"Vinol contains no drugs, and you know what you are taking—simply the medicinal curatives found in cod liver oil disso.ved in a delicious table wine and a little organic iron added. It is fast superseding old forms of cod liver oil and emulsions because it is so delicious to the taste and has such marvelous vitalizing power."

Such letters as the following prove what Vinol will do: Mrs. Elizabeth Richards of 32 E. Montcalm street, Detroit, Mich., writes: "I was very weak and suffered from nervous prostration, tried all sorts of medicines without relief. I have now taken four bottles of Vinol, and it has brought back my health and strength."

Miss Lizzie Leary of Burlington, Vt., says she was a nervous wreck, and Vinol restored her to perfect health.

Miss Edythe M. Perry of St. Paul, Minn., says Vinol cured her of nervousness and insomnia.

And so we might go on quoting from hundreds of just such letters; and it is for this reason that we say to every nervous, run down and debilitated person in Los Angeles, try Vinol, and if it does not cure you, come back and get your money. The Owl Drug Co., 320 S. Spring St.

EVENTS IN L

SHAKESPEARE'S "Twelfth Night" revived in the East this winter with Viola Allen and other prominent theatrical people, is to have a presentation in Los Angeles next week. The actors of this pretty comedy in this instance one had better say actresses—will be the girls of the Cumnock graduating class. The drama will be produced next Wednesday evening at Cumnock Hall, preceded on Tuesday evening by a semi-public dress rehearsal. There will be twenty characters upon the stage. The only man in the company is Ernest Phillips, who enacts "Orsino." Mr. Phillips is a professional actor, and was formerly with Madame Modjeska. "Twelfth Night" will be staged by Barnett Holme, of London. Mr. Holme was a short time ago stage manager of the Lyceum and Comedy theaters of England's capital, and has been stage manager with Forbes Robertson. He has had much experience in the production of pastoral plays, bringing out the celebrated Shakesperean "Memorial Plays," at Stratford-on-Avon. Thirteen different works have been staged on the boards under his management, and one of his successful efforts was the original production of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's "Eleanor," which he brought out at the Court Theater of London. "Twelfth Night" will be his first presentation in Amer-

The members of Mr. Holme's amateur company are cast as follows: Sebastian, Miss Fern Palmer; Antonio, Miss Lottie Livingstop; Valentine, Miss Edna Reed; Sir Toby Belch, Miss Orra Gardner; Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Miss Emma Bates; Malvolio, Miss Maybel Sherman; Pavian, Miss Fay Maxson; Festa, Miss Eva Twelfth Night" will be produced Elizabethan form. On account of smallness of the stage and lack of facilities, but one setting will be used throughout the play. Special scenery has already been painted for some of the acts, but it has been found impracticable to use it. The representation will be a landscape by Moran, accurately copied.

The class of 1904 has been working quietly but industriously on their Shakespearean effort ever since the middle of November. In addition, they have carried regular class work, and have made their lives rather strenuous during the past two months.

One of the especially difficult parts requires much preparation and hard study. Miss Cecily Praeger, who will play as Viola, has been working diligently at Cumnock School for three years. She has done much reading, and has made dramatic ability, and is admirably suited to the role. Miss Gardner has a difficult task in the correct portrayal of Sir Toby Belch, a rollicking old English knight who is usually under the influence of liquor, and at all times uproariously endeavoring to be funny. Ernest Phillips has been with Madame Modjeska, whose distinguished actress was playing "Viola," and he has been seen as Ferdinand, in "The Tempest."

Wyman Nuptials.

This evening at 8 o'clock Miss Mabel Wyman and Elliott Wyman were married at St. John's Church, Adams street, by Dr. George Dowling. The church was handsomely decorated by the girls of the Altar Guild. Papyrus was used along the altar rail, and from the center in the altar hung bouquets of carnations, tied with violet ribbons; under the central arch, a basket of carnations tied with ribbons suspended, and all about the church smilax was festooned and hung in graceful loops from the altar rail to the central aisle of the church were rows of violet tarleton, daintily studded with asparagus plumosus, the ends of which were held by two of the ushers. During the ceremony the Lohengrin "Bridal March" was rendered by a quartet, and the benediction was pronounced, the march from Tannhauser was rendered. The bride was very dainty and pretty in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine, with accessories of the correct vogue. She wore a veil and real lace, made by Mrs. V. Martin of Oakland, was attended by Miss Wyman, sister of the bridegroom, and Dr. Lelande. The latter wore a lovely gown of lavender tissue de soie, with trimmings of chiffon and gold lace. The bride's bouquet was of violets, making a pretty contrast against her dress. Mr. Wyman was best man and Dr. Lelande was the groomsman. Fred Forrester, Arthur

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

SHAKESPEARE'S "Twelfth Night," arrived in the East this winter by Viola Allen and other prominent theatrical people, is to have a presentation in Los Angeles next week. The actors of this pretty comedy—or in this instance one had better say actresses—will be the girls of the Cumnock graduating class. The drama will be produced next Wednesday evening at Cumnock Hall, preceded on Tuesday evening by a semi-public dress rehearsal. There will be twenty characters upon the stage. The only man in the company is Ernest Phillips, who enacts "Orsino." Mr. Phillips is a professional actor, and was formerly with Madame Modjeska. "Twelfth Night" will be staged by Garnett Holme, of London. Mr. Holme was a short time ago stage manager of the Lyceum and Comedy theaters of England's capital, and has been stage manager with Forbes Robertson. He has had much experience in the production of pastoral plays, bringing out the celebrated Shakespearean "Memorial Plays," at Stratford-on-Avon. Fifteen different works have been played on the boards under his management, and one of his successful efforts was the original production of Mrs. Humphrey Ward's "Eleanor," which he brought out at the Court Theater of London. "Twelfth Night" will be his first presentation in America.

The members of Mr. Holme's amateur company are cast as follows: Sebastian, Miss Fern Palmer, Antonio, Miss Lottie Livingston; Valentine, Miss Edna Reed; Sir Toby Belch, Miss Orra Gardner; Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Miss Emma Bates; Maria, Miss Mabel Sherman; Favian, Miss Fay Maxson; Feste, Miss Eva Olivia, Miss Edith Low; Miss Cecily Praeger; Maria, Miss Brigden. As has been said, Ernest Phillips has been entrusted to take the part of Orsino. Besides there will be a number of minor

"Twelfth Night" will be produced in Shakespearean form. On account of the richness of the stage and lack of facilities, but one setting will be used throughout the play. Special scenery has already been painted for the production, but it has been found impracticable to use it. The entire action will be a landscape by Corot, accurately copied.

The class of 1904 has been working quietly but industriously on their part, a herculean effort ever since the middle of November. In addition, they have carried regular class work, and have made their lives rather strenuous during the past two months. One of the especially difficult parts is that of Sir Toby Belch, which requires much preparation and hard work. Miss Cecily Praeger, who will play Viola, has been working hard at Cumnock School for three years, has done much reading, and has dramatic ability, and is admirably suited to the role. Miss Praeger has a difficult task in the humorous portrayal of Sir Toby Belch, a rollicking old English knight who, under the influence of liquor, becomes uproariously endeavoring to be funny. Ernest Phillips will play Madame Modjeska when the distinguished actress was playing Orsino, and he has been seen as Ferdinand, in "The Tempest."

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lelande of No. 1 Bonnie Brae street, entertained at dinner Tuesday evening. The table was made attractive with cut flowers and ferns. Those present were guests: Lieutenant, Mrs. Guy Davidson, Mrs. S. H. Hookstraten, Mr. Hamilton and the Misses Marguerite and Dorothy Lelande, Ruth Davis.

A pretty dinner was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Banning at their home, No. 418 North Broadway. Covers were laid for twelve and the affair was delightful for its informality.

—o—

Luncheon.

Mrs. C. Wilson of No. 1522 Hayward entertained at luncheon on Wednesday. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Wilson's hospitality were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. C. W. Bogarth, Miss Lally and the Misses Marguerite Abell.

Wyman Nuptials.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Miss Mamie Wyman and Elliott Wyman were married at St. John's Church, Adams street, by Dr. George Bowling. The church was prettily decorated by the girls of the Altar Guild. Papyrus was twined about the altar rail, and from the center of the altar hung bouquets of white carnations, tied with violet ribbons. Under the central arch, a basket of carnations tied with ribbons of violet hung suspended. Ferns and smilax were festooned and caught from the altar rail to the side of the church were bouquets of violet tarleton, daintily tied with asparagus plumosus, the ends of which were held by two of the ushers during the ceremony the Lohengrin "Bridal March" was rendered by Miss Bendiction was pronounced the march from Tannhauser was played. The bride was very dainty and sweet in a beautiful gown of white chiffon cloth, with accessories of lace and real lace, made over white taffeta. She carried bride roses. Miss Martin of Oakland was bridesmaid and wore a lovely gown of white tissue de soie, with trimmings of lace and gold lace. She carried bouquets of violets, making a pretty contrast against her dress. Mr. Wyman was best man and Dr. Forrester, Arthur Heineman and Harry Folsom assisted as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sherwood of No. 920 South Union avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyman are popular in Los Angeles society, and ever since the engagement was known, they have been the recipients of much attention from their many friends.

Mr. Wyman is a prominent young business man, being connected with his father, Francis Wyman, in the Union Lime Company. Mrs. Wyman is a graduate of Stanford University and a bright and attractive girl, and Los Angeles will now have added to its list another sweet young matron. The couple departed for paris unknown, but will be at home at their own little home, corner of Twenty-seventh and Dalton streets, which, by the way, was the gift to the young couple of the bride's mother and father. The couple were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts in cut glass and silver.

O'Neil-Dupre.

Yesterday evening at the Pico Heights Congregational Church, Miss Mamie O'Neil, a popular young woman of Pico Heights, was united in marriage to Eugene Dupree of the Pacific Electric Railway Company. The young couple have a wide circle of acquaintances in the city and a large number of invitations were issued. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. J. M. Schaefle. Leaving the church the happy pair was showered with rice by many friends, gathered to wish a pleasant honeymoon. After a month spent in travel, Mr. and Mrs. Dupree will be at home at No. 713 Central avenue.

Popular Bride-to-be.

Miss Nina Bridwell, who is to become a bride on the 26th inst., has many pretty little things planned in her honor for this week. Miss Bridwell will marry Dr. Arthur Marsh of Globe, Ariz., where they will make their future home. On Monday afternoon, Mrs. F. A. Summers entertained with a shower, in honor of Miss Bridwell, at her Hermosa Beach home. The living room was a bower of green, ferns and potted plants being used and the dining-room was in red and green with scarlet geraniums and twining ivy.

Last night Miss Emily Engstrom of South Hope street gave a kitchen shower in honor of this popular bride-to-be, who is well supplied with all kitchen utensils as a result. After the shower, the guests were entertained with progressive flinch and the tally cards were dainty heart-shaped affairs with hand-painted Cupids dancing gaily over them.

The dining table where the guests were served, was decorated with violets, the fragrant blossoms forming a centerpiece, while bouquets of violets with names attached made pretty place marks. The lights were shaded with purple and bows of satin ribbons made an attractive finish. The guests were the Misses Kate, Grace and Cora Parker, Josephine Johnson, Mary Guard, Charlotte Teal, Ellen Anderson, Wynette Bayley, Edith Knox, Josie Nordhoff, Bessie Chingdieg, Maude Lillie, Marie Smith and Ellen Anderson and Mrs. C. S. DeLano and Mrs. Ina Knox.

On Saturday afternoon the Misses Parker of Bonnie Brae street will entertain with a shower, the character of which is unknown, as it is to be a surprise.

Miss Wynette Bayley of No. 1002 Burlington avenue, entertained with a flinch party yesterday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Bridwell. The guests present besides the bride-to-be were the Misses Helen Coombs, Clara Parker, Grace Parker, Teresa Park, Susie Beach, Annie Pease, Tuttle, Thresher, Maude Little, Maude Phelps, Alice Sieboth, Jessie Robertson, Ethel Kennedy, Beatrice Duff, Edna Maxwell, Julia Wyman, Emily Engstrum, Edith Knox, and Duncan.

During the afternoon refreshments were served, and the house was made attractive with pink carnations and ferns.

—o—

Iroquois Whist Club.

Mrs. M. J. Turner entertained the Iroquois Whist Club last evening at her residence, No. 433 West Twenty-second street. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion and punch was served at the tables. After several hands of cards were played refreshments followed. Prizes were awarded to the winners, Mrs. J. G. Murphy receiving a beautiful bisque statuette, Mr. Truax a pretty match safe, and George Turner a three-leaf clover inkstand. Those present were: Mrs. F. Darmody, Mrs. M. Swindell, Mrs. Tennie Merry, Mrs. H. R. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murphy, Mrs. C. Brown, Miss Ella Relug, Miss Ida Sharpless, Miss Marion Dunn, Mr. Ettling, Mr. Truax, Mr. William Madison, Mr. Will Lowery, Mr. George Turner and Master Earl Swindell.

—o—

In Honor of Miss Brotherton.

Miss Ella Barnes of North Vermont avenue entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Myrtle Brotherton on Monday evening. Miss Brotherton recently returned from Berlin, and is one of our many charming brides-to-be.

—o—

For Miss Carnahan.

Mrs. George L. Cole of No. 1425 South Hope street gave a luncheon Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. T. Carnahan of Denver, who is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. Eben Smith of West Seventh street. Other guests were Mrs. Willard Stimson, Mrs. George Montgomery, Mrs. John H. Norton, Mrs. John P. Stearns, Mrs. Charles Stimson of Seattle, Mrs. Charles Taggart, Mrs. Oliver P. Posey, Mrs. John W. A. Orr, and Mrs. Walter Raymond of Pasadena.

—o—

Series of Luncheons.

Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, Mrs. Albert Crutcher and Mrs. Clifford Page of No. 2619 Orchard avenue have issued cards for two luncheons to be given on the 26th and 27th of January. They will entertain about one hundred guests at each luncheon, and these affairs promise to be among the most delightful of the season, with such charming women as hostesses.

—o—

Ramona Whist.

The members of the Ramona Whist Club were entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Ralph B. Hain at her home, No. 2435 Monmouth avenue. Those present were Mmes. George W. Randall, John Rollar, Brackett, J. H. Phillips, Harry R. Wheeler, Thomas Fitch, Jr., George G. Hale, Warren S. Young, F. K. Egbert, Pelton, Voss, W. W. McLeod, Dr. Grace Wyckoff, and the Misses Lulu Crawford, Olga Hewitt and E. M. Allen.

The house was prettily decorated with roses and ferns. Lunch and bon-bons were served during the afternoon, and later salad and coffee at the card tables.

—o—

Whist Party.

The members of the Concordia Club entertained last evening with a whist party at their rooms, corner Figueroa and Sixteenth streets.

—o—

Coffee and Music.

Mrs. Lyman A. Craig of No. 803 West Thirtieth street entertained informally yesterday afternoon with a delightful coffee and musicale. Mrs. W. G. Jobson and Miss Alice Jobson assisted in receiving. An excellent musical programme was rendered by Mrs. Richard Downey, Mrs. S. B. Silverwood, Miss Ethel Tufts and Miss Franklyn Taylor. There were about twenty guests, and as the hostess is planning a number of similar events she expects to entertain all her friends.

—o—

Notes and Personals.

Miss Grace McPherron left Saturday on the Owl for Berkeley University to complete her college course.

Guests attending Mrs. Frank Cattern's and Miss Newton's card party on Saturday will kindly leave the Short Line car at Rollins street, where provision is made for crossing Fair Oaks avenue.

Miss Rose Louise Black is now at home at No. 2110 South Grand avenue and will receive on Fridays.

Mysterious Music.

One of the most interesting phenomena is to be observed in the bad lands of Arizona. Out in the midst of an alkali plain there is a desolate formation of rock covering only about an acre in extent, and from these rocks, or rather from beneath them, there issue sounds of music as though an organ was playing, and the strains are echoed from every direction. The place has never been excavated or fully explored, and the theory of scientists is that there is a peculiar formation of stalactites in a cave there with an opening somewhere through which the wind plays upon these stalactites, producing the music. The Indians claim, however, that a cathedral was at one time built upon this place, and that there was a bad priest placed in charge of the cathedral, who abducted Indian women and children. One night the ground opened during a violent storm and the earth closed in over the top of this cathedral. The Indians believe that the music which comes from the ground proceeds from the ghosts of those who were interred at the time of the earthquake.—[Detroit Tribune.

Beauty is Within Your Reach

BEAUTY depends so much upon what you do that it is practically within reach of every woman. In her really great series of papers, "The Fountain of Youth," Doctor Grace Peckham Murray shows plainly how beauty is the result of a woman's care of herself. She tells you just what is to be done to the hair, teeth, eyes, complexion and hands to make even a plain woman attractive. All of her suggestions are healthful and sensible. They not only make a woman look better, but they make her feel better. They show that health and attractiveness go together. They analyze a woman's charm and tell her how to obtain it. No such remarkable series of papers has ever been published. No woman can afford to ignore them. Every woman who wants to be attractive should get The Delineator and read these papers.

MRS. OSBORN

has become the smartest dressmaker of the best dressed set in the world. She is no mere dressmaker—she is a creator of styles. She knows how to tell what she knows, and she tells it in The Delineator. What she writes is in addition to seventy new designs by The Delineator's own staff. She tells this month, as it has never been told before, the real secret of the new skirt, just how long and how full it should be, and how it should hang. She also tells about the famous "trotter" skirt.

The True Love of Music

is so intense that it follows the great songsters into their intimate, daily home lives. The second of the prima donna series treats of CALVÉ, who of the world's great singers probably has the most interesting personality. No woman who knows of CALVÉ can fail to be interested in this story of her life.

"Just get The Delineator" and see how many things there are in it which help to make a woman's entire life worth while. You will then know why it is the most necessary magazine for women.

YELLOW "EVIDENCE."

Made-to-Order Witnesses Against Detectives Who Had to Shoot the Choissers or be Shot, Weave a Fabric of Contradictions.

THE examination of the detectives charged with manslaughter in killing the Choissers after the officers had been fired upon twice has proceeded far enough for the facts to be considered. The prosecuting coterie of yellow journalists, private detectives and specially-retained counsel have produced already their best, and as they admit, their most damaging testimony, and the result has been nothing but a stench in the nostrils of law-abiding citizens. The heavy guns have been fired, and, as was expected, they have been found loaded with blank cartridges, making sound and smoke and nothing else.

The witnesses have shown evidence of coaching and preparation, but upon the evidence being matched up and put together it has been found that each of the witnesses so contradicts the others upon important and absolutely essential details that no reliance can be placed upon any of it. Clough, a waiter, who claims to have observed the shooting from the elevated perch furnished by a slippery door knob, to which he adhered with his prehensile toes, is left hanging in midair by the testimony of the other witnesses. Clough claims to have stood quietly upon a door knob and to have stuck his head through a transom within about four feet of Murphy, who stood below him with a drawn revolver. He studiously endeavors to avoid testifying to the shooting, except as to the number of shots, which he says were three. But four bullets were found in the hall and in the body of the younger Choisser. He says that immediately after the conclusion of the firing and within a fraction of a second, he rushed through his door and into the midst of the smoke and flying bullets and that he remained by the body of Choisser until the officers came from the station.

GLARING DISCREPANCIES.

That any man would stand quietly within four feet of a prospective shooting scrape and take his chances upon being hit is somewhat past belief. But when Roscoe went on the stand he said that he reached the body very shortly after the shooting and that Clough was not there and did not appear for some time thereafter. The redoubtable Atkinson testified that the boy took his father's burning vest off, and his companion, Mix, testified that the blazing vest was off and lying on the bed. Five witnesses have shown that the vest was not removed until the Coroner arrived, and that neither Mix nor Atkinson could have seen the body with the burning vest lying two feet from it on the bed, as they say. Atkinson further puts the younger man into a vest as he sees him going down the hall, and when the younger man's vest is produced it is absolutely intact. Four unprejudiced witnesses swear that the man was clothed only in a shirt and trousers. These are but a few among the numerous and glaring discrepancies that show that the witnesses are relating accounts of transactions which they did not see.

The yellow organs of the opposition to the police department have published lamentably unfair comments and false accounts of the testimony. They entirely fail to mention the fact that Rice, a witness, who, like Clough, pretended to have been looking down a side hall out of a transom, when cross-examined presented the painful spectacle of a man who had testified twice and related accounts as different as if the accounts did not refer to the same incident. In his story before the magistrate, Rice attempted to say that he saw the younger Choisser in the hall and saw the shot fired at him. Rice was compelled to admit that, before the Coroner, when asked if he saw anyone through his transom, he said he did not. As to whether he saw or did not see a man when he looked through his transom, is a circumstance about which he could not be mistaken, and his testimony before the Coroner that looking from his transom he saw nothing, but upon hearing a shot he jumped down and remained in hiding until the shooting was all over with, must be taken as the truth.

MAKING THREE OF FOUR.

It further develops that all of the coterie of witnesses prepared and relied upon by the private detectives working for certain newspapers, at the examination stated positively, and adhered tenaciously to the statement that only three shots were fired in the hall. They seem to do this because, without making an examination of the physical facts, the yellow journals took the position that no more than three shots were fired in the hall in order to cut out the possibility of young Choisser firing a shot, the detectives having said that they fired three shots. But in each case it is shown that before the Coroner the witnesses stated that there were four shots heard in the hall, and four bullets were found in the younger Choisser and in the wall of the hall. The prepared and coached nature of the whole testimony is shown by this one simple statement. The unprejudiced witness, Roscoe, who seemed to have no feeling and to desire to tell only the truth, is the only one of the lot who says there were four shots. All of which demonstrates to a moral certainty that the witnesses have been wrought up to the point of telling a thing under oath which the physical facts absolutely disprove.

Seeing their case tumbling to pieces, the anti-police newspapers are devoting themselves to attacks upon the counsel for the detectives and to false and distorted statements of the testimony. The business people of the community are relying upon Justice Chambers not to be influenced by any such prejudiced statements.

DAMPER ON GOOD WORK.

The officers are complaining bitterly that this prosecution puts them in a most distressing position. When called upon to arrest offenders against the law, they are expected to go into dangerous places and to do their duty fearlessly and without thought of personal danger. They are given simply the right to protect themselves in a dangerous position which is not of their own seeking. If in addition to exposing themselves hourly to the dangers which accompany making any arrest, they are compelled to be tried for their lives and liberty, and to be subjected to the vicious assaults of yellow newspapers and partisan demagogues, they say they do not feel that same certainty and bravery that they would feel if satisfied that they would be upheld in doing their duty. Officers say that if they are to be vilified, imprisoned, tried, lied about and held up to public scorn and derision when honestly attempting to do their duty; that if in addition to facing the dangers accompanying the arresting of any armed criminal they must meet the things that Murphy, Hawley and Cowen have met; if they are to be branded as cowards if they fail to go into a dangerous situation and to be stigmatised as murderers if they do go into a desperate situation and there defend themselves, it will completely demoralise every police force in the West.

One officer of unquestionable nerve and tried bravery said yesterday:

"I have always been willing to take my chances in doing by duty. I have been shot at, cut, and never have given the danger a second thought, because I was laboring under the impression that if necessity compelled me to act, I would have the backing of all law-abiding citizens. But if tomorrow I had to arrest a dangerous criminal I would not feel the same willingness to take my chances that I used to. I have thought heretofore that if he shot at me I had the right to shoot back. But now if he shot at me, before I dared to shoot to protect my life or to finish my arrest I would have to get permission from the yellow newspapers. I am going to try to do my duty, but I cannot help feeling that I am being made a coward by the fear of being vilified, hounded, put in jail, and maybe in the penitentiary, for honestly doing my duty. We have to go against some pretty tough propositions, and I get my share of them. If I let one of them get away from me because I do not shoot, I am damned for an incompetent; if I am shot at and return the fire I am damned for a murderer. I am damned if I do, and damned if I don't. If anybody thinks it is a pleasure to walk into the room of a stranger whom you are informed is a criminal, when you do not know whether he is going to fire or not, I want some of them to try it. The one thing that has always braced me up to the willingness to go anywhere I was ordered to go was the idea that if I did my duty as best I knew how, I would be upheld by my employers, the people of Los Angeles. But now that some of the newspapers are trying to take that consolation away from me, it makes the difficulty and the danger all the greater.

ENCOURAGING CROOKS.

"And let me tell you, the crooks all over the United States know what is happening in Los Angeles. They have got it into their heads that the police of Los Angeles in the future will be afraid to make arrests, or even to pull their guns to defend themselves. They think that hereafter they can resist officers in Los Angeles, and that the public will applaud them for so doing. Crooks usually think that when an officer says, 'Come along,' they had better come if they expect to remain airtight. You are going to see some terrible tragedies brought about by the insolence of the criminal element, and by the feeling of security that this newspaper howl is giving them. They think we are afraid to take chances now, and maybe they are right. If I have got to be tried for manslaughter and spend my little savings in defending myself in court for shooting a crook who has shot at me, I am afraid I would not shoot. God knows it is bad enough to have to kill a man in the line of one's duty and in addition to that if I have got to be hounded as a criminal, it is next door to hell."

If an old and experienced officer whose bravery has been tested a hundred times talks this way, how must the situation affect the general run of police and peace officers throughout Southern California?

HATS OFF TO CRIMINALS.

A patrolman who has one of the worst beats in the city, said yesterday:

"I carry my gun on my beat where I can get at it. I have some of the worst 'yeggs' and hobos in the United States to run in. They all of them think they are heroes now, and that if they take a shot at me they will get their pictures in the papers with a halo around their head. They know I dare not shoot if they shoot at me, because I have a wife and family, and I cannot afford to hire lawyers or to be suspended and my wages cut off. I know that I dare not turn loose at one of those crooks even if he has shot at me, because if I did I would have all the perjurers and anarchists along the street trying to shut me up in the pen. If this thing keeps up I guess I will have to begin to take off my hat and be nice and pretty, and let these heroes and saints do as they please on my beat.

"I thought I was getting paid for keeping such people in subjection, but it seems that I am not. I suppose that if one of those crooks gets me some night, I will be buried with a copy of the yellowest sheet spread on my coffin, and go down in history as a man who was justifiably killed because he had the audacity to try to arrest a crook."

BATTED BY CAR WAS VETERAN.

WALKING ON TROLLEY TRACK MAY PROVE FATAL.

West-bound Train on Los Angeles-Pacific Strikes Soldiers' Home Inmate Near Sawtelle and Inflicts Serious Injuries—Well-known in Santa Ana.

Joseph W. Bair, a member of the Soldiers' Home, is apparently dying from injuries received yesterday morning when a trolley car struck and threw him.

The car was west-bound on the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway not far east of Sawtelle. Bair was walking between the tracks. When the motorman vigorously sounded the gong the old man seemed to be confused. Instead of stepping away from the track on which the car was he stepped directly onto the car's pathway.

It was too late for the car's speed to be slackened to prevent striking the man. It struck him and threw him toward the other track.

Bair was removed to the Soldiers' Home hospital. It was found that two ribs were broken, and that he had received internal injuries which the surgeons last night thought would prove fatal.

The injured veteran was for many years a resident of Santa Ana, where he is well known. He was a native of Illinois, but enlisted for Civil War service and served in Co. K, Fifth California Cavalry. He was admitted to the home in April, 1895. He is unmarried. He has a brother, James Bair, in Greenbush, Ill.

KILLED AND ATE A SQUAW.

Authentic Tale of Terrible Starvation Among Canadian Indians North of Lake Nepigon—Relief Work.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—A dispatch to the Inter-Ocean from Port Arthur, Ont., says that an Indian has arrived in town and told a terrible tale of suffering among the members of his tribe, north of Lake Nepigon. One family was so destitute that they murdered a young squaw, 25 years of age, and the rest of the family ate her. His tale was corroborated by three white traders who arrived later. A. W. Patterson, a Hudson Bay factor, arrived and he also told the same tale.

A train was at once started for the scene with food, but it will take four days at top speed to reach the Indians. Two constables also left to look into the murder case.

MEXICAN MONEY NOT RECOGNIZED.

DECISION IMPORTANT TO AMERICAN MERCHANTS.

Court Denies Application for Receiver in Cobre Grande Copper Case—Carnegie Increases Donation for Phoenix Library—Irrigation Matters.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX, Jan. 13.—In Nogales District Judge Davis has rendered an interesting and important decision affecting the question of legal tender. Payment had been refused on a check calling for the payment of $1000, Mexican money. The holder of the check, a Nogales merchant, sued for the value, but the court ruled against him.

Judge Davis, in his decision, said that, as Mexican money has no recognised value under our laws, the amount named could not be considered in the light of a specified sum, and the holder, though an innocent purchaser, could not collect through the United States courts.

The decision is of extreme importance along the international line, as much paper of the kind under question passes between Mexican buyers and American merchants.

VICTORY FOR GREENE.

W. C. Greene has scored another victory in a decision of the Supreme Court of Arizona denying the application of Axel Halienborg of New York and others for the appointment of a receiver for the Cobre Grande Copper Mining Company. This is affirmation of a judgment of the District Court delivered at Prescott. The Cobre Grande Company was the predecessor of the Greene Consolidated Copper Company in the ownership of the rich mines in the Cananea Mountains of Northern Sonora, Mex. The larger part of the shares of the Cobre Grande Company were sold to Greene by a trustee in Phoenix, at something about $2.50 a share, together with $100,000 distributed as bonus among the lawyers that had been on the side antagonistic to Greene. Halienborg, who had several thousand shares in the trust pool, declared the sale collusive and fraudulent. He fought to annul it and to reestablish the Cobre Grande company, together with its claim to ownership of about half the mines now operated by the Greene company. Though the Greene interests admit their anxiety to possess the Cobre Grande stock, they allege it was simply for the purpose of cutting off injurious litigation and that the Cobre Grande company's option upon the Cananea property had expired because of failure to make stipulated payments. These payments, according to the opposition, had been blocked by Greene.

Another affirmation was that of the judgment of the lower court in Johnstone against Robertson, the former appealing from the granting to Robertson of a certificate of election to the lucrative office of justice of the peace of Phoenix precinct. The election was decided for Robertson (Dem.) by only a few votes.

IRRIGATION MATTERS.

Arthur Powell Davis, engineer in charge of the Tonto Basin dam construction, will remain in Washington till the end of this month, in charge of the offices of the Geological Survey's hydrographic division, during the absence of the chief engineer, F. H. Newell, now attending the cattlemen's convention in Oregon. J. H. Kibbey, counsel for the Salt River Valley Water Users' Association, will start for Washington Saturday, there to join President B. A. Fowler in conference with the Interior Department officials, in devising a plan for the settlement of the many legal questions that will materialise in changing from the old to the new water system in the valley. The farmers of the north side are already forming district irrigation associations and are looking toward the acquirement of the various canals now held under corporate ownership. Congress has passed the bill permitting Phoenix, Tempe and Mesa to bond for $100,000 for the construction of a road to the dams. The government will use about $50,000 for the same purpose, and it is hoped that the full amount of the bond issue will not be needed. The road built by the government into the pine forest of the Sierra Ancha Mountains, is to be extended by Gila county into Pleasant Valley, giving that section direct wagon communication with Globe.

LIBRARY FOR PHOENIX.

Andrew Carnegie has given Phoenix $25,000 for the erection of a public library. This news came yesterday in a telegram from Washington from President B. A. Fowler of the Phoenix Board of Trade. The matter has been in the hands of the Women's Club of Phoenix for about two years. A year ago Carnegie offered $15,000. This was rejected, as Tucson had secured $30,000. Carnegie's library secretary explained that the smaller offer came through the difference in population, according to the 1900 census, which gave Tucson about 7000 and Phoenix only 5540. Then the Women's Club gathered together documents showing that a population of fully 20,000 centered at Phoenix, and that the city had about 15,000 inhabitants, whatever the census may have said.

BRIEF NEWS BITS.

The city schools of Phoenix are more than crowded, despite the erection of four new buildings within the past two years. The average attendance is about 1500. The High School is crowded so that fifty students can find no room in the assembly room. It has been determined to hold an election for the purpose of passing upon a $30,000 bond issue, to be used in building an addition to the school and in the purchase of an additional block of land.

The latest reports from Washington are that the prospects for Statehood are not as rosy as they might be. It is stated that many of the votes given the Omnibus Bill last year in the House were under the assumption that the bill must fail in the Senate. It will therefore be more difficult for the bill to pass the lower House.

SOCIALISM IN PRACTICE.

HOW IT IS DRIVING PEOPLE AWAY FROM AUSTRALIA.

The Colonizer, a London journal devoted to colonization and immigration, in its October number prints the following from the Globe:

The steadily increasing number of departures from New South Wales and Victoria for Canada, South Africa, and even Great Britain is beginning to awaken alarm in the commonwealth. The steamers of the White Star and other lines are continually leaving Australian ports with full passenger lists, and nearly the whole of the passenger accommodation has been booked for several weeks to come. During the first six months of the present year, according to official reports, no fewer than 14,227 persons left New South Wales alone for ports outside the commonwealth, the emigration exceeding the immigration by 2116. In addition, there has been a large influx of New South Wales and Victorian population into Western Australia. This is one of the immediate effects of Socialist Labor legislation in the Mother State and Victoria. The people who are leaving Australia are no mere birds of passage. They are mostly a class who have been born or long settled in Australia, many being steady, competent tradesmen; not a few belonging to the ranks of master craftsmen, others being pastoralists, farmers, station hands—in fact, the very men of which the commonwealth stands in most need. Scarcely any are trade unionists. The non-unionist, under the new order of things, has no place in Australia. The New South Wales industrial arbitration court and the Victorian wages boards each refuses to recognize his existence. He must either join a trade union or—starve.

In the New South Wales provinces the population during the decade 1891-1901, has remained almost stationary, or has shown only limited increase, while during two succeeding years there has been a marked decline. Well may it be said that these facts afford a scathing commentary on the Socialist Labor policy of the existing State government. "Here," we are told, "is a country whose State industrial institutions are now run solely in the interests of the worker; whose politicians leave no stone unturned to meet his every demand; in which, out of all countries in the world it might be thought that labor had found its elysium; and yet the workingman, as well as his employer, finds he cannot make a living in it." Not in a land capable of supporting the whole of the European populations several times over! The Socialist Labor party is the declared enemy of private enterprise and free labor. Only within the last two or three days a deputation waited on a member of the State Ministry in place of the State Premier, who was absent, to ask that the manufacture of wire netting might be included in the list of State industries, and received a sympathetic reply. If a State wire-netting factory is established all the private workers must be closed. It is the same with the docks. Private enterprise is ready to supply the port of Newcastle with some dock accommodation urgently required, but the Socialist Labor party insists that it shall be provided at the cost of the State, and when it is pointed out that further State loans will be difficult to obtain the reply is: "Increase the taxation on capital." No wonder the capitalist, as well as the laborer is anxious to leave a country in which they are treated as enemies of the public welfare.

How different was the situation a few years ago, previous to the advent of the Socialist Labor party in state and federal politics. As Mr. Reid, the leader of the Federal opposition lately pointed out, Australia is the only new country in the world which was not attracting population. Between 1861 and 1891 the additions to the Australian population had been between 700,000 and 800,000, but during the last ten years the excess of arrivals over departures had been only 5000. At this rate of progress it would take 1200 years to reach the level attained ten years ago. In one state (Victoria) where there had been the most legislation to make the people happy, in the one state in which there had been all these efforts to do justice to the working people—wage boards and taxes to promote colonial industries and so on—people had cleared out of it more extensively than they had out of the other five states. In the last ten years Victoria had lost 110,000 people. Official statistics show that the excess of emigrants during the period 1891-1901 was as follows: Victoria, 112,579; South Australia, 18,318, and Tasmania, 1248. During the same period the excess of immigrants was: Western Australia, 130,133; Queensland, 21,221, and New South Wales, 9423. With the commencement of Socialist Labor legislation under the administration of Sir John See, New South Wales began to share the fate of Victoria, and appears destined to lost the greater portion of its most capable population within the next few years unless the prohibitive restrictions on labor and capital become modified, if not removed. No wonder that thoughtful men, like the president of the Sydney Chamber of Commerce, ask: "Has New South Wales ceased to attract the desirable immigrant, the man with more or less capital, or he whose sole fortune is represented by strong hands, a clear head, and a brave, stout heart?"

The whole root of the difficulty is to be found in the system of payment of members, which has assisted in the creation of a low-class type of professional politician—men of the Hyde Park demagogue species—who are rushed into the federal and state parliaments by the votes of the mob, manhood suffrage being the rule in all the states in which adult suffrage has not been adopted. Fancy the tag-rag and bobtail of London aiding in the return of members for the various metropolitan constituencies. Yet this is what takes place in Australia. Hence the heavy state borrowings of the last few years and the boast of the New South Wales minister for works that he has expended five millions in providing employment for the state workers. It is a most disquieting condition of affairs. No wonder that the new rule of Mr. Irvine was welcomed in Victoria as a factor in lessening the power of the Socialist Labor party; but much of his work is neutralised by the subservicency of the federal prime minister, Sir Edmund Barton, and the New South Wales premier, Sir John See, to the very class which, headed by men like Tom Mann, denounce the Victorian premier as the archenemy of freedom and industrial progress.

China's Need of Railways.

All recent writers are agreed that one of the most pressing needs of China, politically, strategically and commercially, is the means of rapid transit. Already failing into disrepair or taxed to their utmost capacity in congested areas, the wonderful waterways of the country do not provide those facilities which are necessary for the development of China's potential resources. Travel by shallow rivers and canals is invariably slow, often dangerous. Days and weeks are consumed in penetrating the interior, and large tracts of country far distant from the centers of population are uncultivated, or lie with their mineral treasures untouched because of the lack of communication.

Thousands starve annually in one province, while there is an abundant harvest in an adjacent province—merely because transport, at all times difficult, becomes impossible at times of dearth or famine. The import trade of China is restricted because the cost of transit, added to the native customs levies, makes it impossible for foreign goods to penetrate to the far distant interior. The export trade is limited in like manner, and the purchasing power of the people is thereby reduced.

It is claimed by the advocates of railways that improved communication would enable the central government to exercise more efficient control of the provinces, would enable the officials to put down rebellious movements in their incipient stage, give the government the ability to concentrate quickly masses of men upon threatened points in times of war, distribute the people from congested to less populous provinces, provide facilities for famine relief, develop interprovincial trade, and create channels for the distribution at cheap rates of "foreign goods entering at the treaty ports."—[Engineering Magazine.

A Great Speech.

"I was in Washington when Congressman Bullock made his great speech trying to collect the Indian war claim, years ago," said Pat Murphy last night, as he stroked his chin and affected a meditative air. "It was great! As he spoke pictures came into my mind, and I could hear the rustle of the palmetto fronds, and see Indian braves creeping through, making their way like serpents to the camp-fire of the little handful of Florida soldiers. Gen. Bullock illustrated his speech. He took out his big pocketknife and brandished it to show how the boys fought. I was in the press gallery, and, would you believe it, one of those beastly newspaper men said right in my hearing, 'Listen to the old man; he thinks he's down in Florida standing on a bale of hay, and making a political speech.' Say, look here,' said I, 'Florida is my State, and that is one of my representatives, and you want to go slow how you talk,' and I scowled at him, but the duffer only smiled, so he did, and what excuse is there for a fellow to hit a smiling guy? But it was a great speech, and that fellow said so when he wrote about it for his paper."—[Florida Times-Union.

Billy Goat's Letter.

One of the curiosities of the New York postoffice is the mail that arrives there from time to time addressed in varying form to "The Billy Goat, New York City." It would seem that such mail must be consigned to the waste heap, if not to the dead letter office, but as a matter of fact it has been regularly called for during a period of several years. Nor is this mail sent by cranks. On the contrary, it bears the letterheads of substantial business houses in the financial district.

"The Billy Goat" in question is really James Julius Callen, though few know him save by his peculiar nickname, which was given him because he sells dusters made of goat hair. The dusters are said to be particularly good ones, and the peddler has a number of regular customers. It is not known just how his mail-order business originated, but it is well established that a postal card or letter addressed "Mr. Billy Goat," or something like it, in care of the general delivery, will fetch him or a duster. It is also said that if you call out "Billy Goat!" anywhere on Nassau street, near Wall, it will bring him as a flash.

The old fellow, with his long white hair and frail body, is often seen in the downtown postoffices, where he is never recognised. He refuses to discuss himself, but is only too ready to talk business or religion.

Nobody at the postoffice pretends to know how Callen came to establish his right to "Billy Goat" mail, but it suffices for the present generation of clerks that he has done so, and when he presents himself daily at the general delivery he gets his letters as a matter of course.—[New York Mail and Express.

Two Old Men.

Edmund J. James, the president of the Northwestern University, was traveling some months ago with a clergyman. This clergyman, a man about 60, looks older than he really is—a fact of which he hates to be reminded.

At a small rural station an aged and bept farmer, panting violently, boarded the train.

"I have had to run," he said, "nearly half a mile to catch these cars."

"Then, addressing himself to Prof. James's companion, he went on:

"It's a bad job, sir, when old folks like you and me has to run."

The clergyman, frowning, asked the farmer how old he was.

"I'm eighty-six," was the reply.

"Oh," said the clergyman, "there is twenty years' difference between you and me."

"Goodness, sir," exclaimed the old man, "you don't mean to tell me you're a hundred and six."—[Boston Post.

KILLING LAMBS AND YEARLINGS.

KERN COUNTY STOCKMEN HEAVY SUFFERERS FROM DROUTH.

Ranchers Anxious to Sell Cattle. Little Planting Done Owing to Dry Ground — Standard Oil Company Resumes Work on Big Pipe Line.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Kern county is experiencing a severe drouth. The rainfall to date this season has been insignificant and unless there is a change for the better in a short time the farmer will suffer and sheep men and cattle raisers will be in great distress. At this time last winter 2¼ inches of rain had fallen. This year only 24-100 of an inch of rain has fallen in Bakersfield. Usually at this date the mountains surrounding this city are covered with snow, but reports from the Tehachepi region say no snow has fallen. The Kern County Land Company and other large farmers have made little attempt to plant owing to the dry condition of the ground.

So far the cattle have been kept up well, but with difficulty. The land company during the winter receives large shipments from Arizona, New Mexico and Mexico, but this year the receipt will be reduced. A large trainload of cattle is expected Sunday from Belen, N. M., and this will be the last shipment unless the weather changes. On Bear Mountain there has been little rain, just enough moisture to start the grass, but hay is being purchased in the city for the stockmen.

Cattlemen are slaughtering their yearlings. The worst sufferers from the drouth are the sheepmen. They are killing their lambs as soon as they come. Many ranchers are anxious to sell their cattle. If rain should come within the next month it will save the crops and provide food for stock.

STILL WISHES TO END LIFE.

LELA DOUGLAS SORRY POISON WAS NOT STRONGER.

Admits She Was Infatuated With Sinclair Who Induced Her to Run Away from Home—Friends Will Aid Her Now.

FULLERTON, Jan. 14.—Lela Douglas, the beautiful 19-year-old girl who made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide yesterday while on a train from San Diego, does not repent her rash act and intimates she will make another attempt at self-destruction if given the opportunity. Miss Douglas admits she was infatuated with Sinclair, the man who induced her to run away from home, and says she would have married him notwithstanding his alleged shady reputation. It was when she was brought home and away from Sinclair that she decided on taking her own life and vehemently declared she was sorry the poison was not stronger.

She denies the statement that she was ordered out of San Diego and denies that she was ever arrested, but acknowledges that her relatives have done all they could for her. She says she could not be happy to remain here. She has made a partial promise to her mother that she will try to be amenable to better influences, and appreciate what her relatives have done and are doing for her.

Miss Douglas's mother is very bitter toward Sinclair, who, with a woman, she claims exerted a bad influence over her daughter. She blames him for her daughter's trouble and says his letters pleading with her to forsake home ties and go to him finally accomplished their purpose. Miss Douglas has lived here with her relatives over a year. She made few acquaintances and it was stated tonight that probably a lack of interest in her may have bred in her a spirit of unrest. Sinclair comes in for strong denunciation here for his part in the girl's misfortune. It is believed the influence of friends will prevail with Miss Douglas and she will remain here and settle down to some permanent employment.

WORK STARTED ON NEW ROAD.

SAN DIEGO EASTERN RAILWAY PROJECT TO BE PUSHED.

Location Survey Begun by Two Corps of Engineers—Capitalists Interested and Are Buying Residence Property—Great Secrecy Is Maintained.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 14.—In the reincorporation of the San Diego Eastern Railway Company, whose articles were filed today, a capitalization of $10,000,000 and $222,000 subscribed, the names of four additional men are named on the directorate—C. W. French, A. A. Purman, H. H. Peters and George F. Fishburn. French and Purman are Ohio railroad promoters, woh have announced their intention of staying with the San Diego-Yuma Railroad proposition. This afternoon French bought a $11,000 residence property at National City, not far from the proposed railroad route.

H. T. Richards of Los Angeles will have charge of the location survey from Pacific Beach to Yuma, via this city and National City. Two corps of engineers began work today. The road is to be constructed by a company organized for the purpose. Peters is the Chicago millionaire who is building the $300,000 hotel here. Fishburn is cashier and a director in the First National Bank.

The real-estate men are making the most out of the railroad boom. A guessing match is on as to what person or syndicate is behind the proposition, it being understood that at least some of the eleven directors are financially able to subscribe the amount of stock credited to them. All hands are sworn to secrecy.

CORONADO BEACH.

TELEPHONE IMPROVEMENTS.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

HOTEL DEL CORONADO, Jan. 14.—The Sunset Telephone Company is making important improvements in its service on this side of the bay. Many of the wires are being placed in cables.

Among yesterday's arrivals were G. E. Sturgis, Baltimore; M. H. Ross and wife, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Adriance, New York; S. M. Kiser, Chicago; M. Miller, Los Angeles; George E. Barnard, Boston; Mrs. R. W. English, Denver; Mrs. I. B. Wallace, Chicago; A. Martin and child, Denver; S. M. Weller, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hyman and Miss Emma Hyman from Chicago have joined Mrs. Hyman's sisters, who arrived here recently.

The New York people at the hotel include Mrs. G. H. Talmair, Miss Wilson, Miss Etying, R. L. Courson, Hugh H. Baxter.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

For the last two days Los Angeles has had as a guest Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of Alexandria, Va., who is recording secretary of the National Congress of Mothers, vice-president of the National Council of Women, as well as general superintendent of the National Florence Crittenden Mission. It will easily be seen from these many and various titles that Mrs. Barrett is one of the foremost women in America interested in the welfare of women and children of the country, and she is also possessed of the most magnetic and gracious personality.

In speaking before several of the child-study circles of the city, she quickly puts herself in sympathetic touch with every mother amongst them, by her earnestness in the cause, by her wide grasp of the subject, herself the mother of six children, and by a certain inborn eloquence which reminds one of those old-time southern orators of her native state.

Mrs. Barrett responded to an invitation to speak to the Child-study circle of the Normal School yesterday afternoon. She congratulated them upon the fine organization of the work in this state, an organization which has made California the banner State of the Union in this regard. She spoke of the great pleasure it afforded her to see the interest and enthusiasm of the mothers here and she bade them God speed in their efforts to help the mothers and children of their state.

She pictured in touching fashion the need of giving a helping hand to the ignorant and poverty-stricken mothers, and not forgetting the poor forsaken ones who were clinging in desperate fashion to children without a father's name.

Mrs. Barrett has been making a tour of the western states to study the conditions in which she is interested, and has been entertained by the governors of all the states through which she has passed. Her tour has included, Minnesota, North Dakota, Spokane, Portland, Seattle, San Francisco, and other points. In New Mexico and Arizona she even visited the Indian women out on the reservations to see what measures could be devised to help and enlighten them.

From here she expects to go to Nevada, and thence to Salt Lake City, where she will make an investigation of the situation of the Mormon women.

Several years ago Mrs. Barrett traveled from Ireland to Russia, visiting the institutions for women and children in every country of Central Europe.

Mrs. Barrett will leave Los Angeles tonight, and this morning will be a guest of the Friday Morning Club. A handsome reception was arranged for this interesting guest by Mrs. W. W. Murphy, and the presidents of all the child-study circles of the city. Monday afternoon, but Mrs. Barrett, being delayed in her journey, did not arrive, and the reception was minus the chief attraction.

Child Study Circles.

The child study circles of the city are showing increased activity and interest every day, the meeting of the Normal School Circle yesterday afternoon including an embarrassment of riches, as the circle was fortunate enough to have an address from Mrs. Charlotta Holt-Hinneman, formerly a very prominent club woman in Chicago, besides having present Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett.

Mrs. Hinnman spoke on the subject of "Justice in Education," and though she said she was only an honorary mother, as she had no children of her own, her talk was one of the deepest value to any woman, mother, aunt or otherwise, who has anything to do with the bringing up of the rising generation.

Some delightful music was furnished by Miss Lawrence, and an informal social time followed the regular programme.

The Garvanza Child Study Circle met at the home of Mrs. William R. Myers, on Avenue 66 Monday afternoon, when Mrs. Eliza Tupper Wilkes spoke on the subject of "The Training of the Will," and music was furnished by Mrs. Street. Later on the Garvanza Circle will hold an evening meeting, to include both fathers and mothers, and it will take place in the entertainment room of the Garvanza Villa. Mrs. Kate Tupper Galpin giving a talk on the "Relation of the Public School to the Home."

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the Sentous Circle Monday afternoon with an interesting talk on "Lunches for School Children," by the domestic science teacher, Miss Pierce, the mothers taking part in the discussion which followed.

The brand new kindergarten at the Union school was the rallying place for the Union Child Study Circle on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Willoughby Rodman spoke on the subject into which she is throwing her whole soul at present, "Arbor Day." Much enthusiasm was developed at the meeting, and the Union school may be among the foremost in their efforts on that occasion.

Ruskin Art.

The subject for the regular meeting of the Ruskin Art Club Wednesday morning was "Italian Painting of the Seventeenth Century," the programme being led by Mrs. L. J. McQuade, Mrs. Charles Hunley, in her first appearance before the club gave a delightful talk on Bologna, the eclectic and naturalistic schools of painting, and the Caracci as individual artists. A clear and instructive paper on Domenichino was read by Mrs. J. F. Krauss.

Mrs. G. L. Hutchinson gave an interesting and sympathetic biographical sketch of Guida Rene, and Miss Lether Lewis followed with a descriptive account of his principal paintings. Miss Edith Alderson gave a paper on Guercino and Carlo Dolce. Caravaggio was delightfully handled by Mrs. A. G. Fessenden; and Salvator Rosa by Mrs. W. T. McFie.

HOOLIGAN'S LUCK CHANGES.

For a few moments last evening it looked as though "Happy Hooligan's" usual "luck" was to attend his appearance at the Mason Operahouse. Hooligan arrived as per schedule, but his "grip" containing his "stage clothes" was delayed in transit; consequently the impatient audience concluded that he had again been "pinched." Fact was, "de cop" was in the box office—in the person of Deputy Constable McCulloch—armed with "hold-up papers" issued at the instance of a former member of the Hooligan company. This exattache complained that his salary claim had not been paid. "Hooligan" produced a receipt in full from the claimant, however, and the box receipts remained unmolested.

Doctor Harrison
If you come to us we give you a thorough examination and consultation absolutely free, and truthfully tell you if you can be cured.
Call at our entrance, 607½ South Broadway, and take one our pamphlets. It contains a large amount of descriptive information, which cannot go in general print. Do not fail to get one. The facts are made plain.
Kidney and Bladder Trouble
Dr. Harrison & Co. are phenomenally successful in these troubles; every case that comes to them is carefully examined and the true cause found for existing conditions. It is then easy for us to treat the case understandingly; not all cases are easily understood; not all men know how to treat them. Our experience for years has taught us just how to cure the very worst of these troubles; our success in curing demonstrates the positive proof of our ability.
Stricture
Pain is entirely eliminated under the treatment we have solely developed and perfected for the absolute cure of stricture, thus doing away with the use of a knife, and leaves the urinary passage in a healthy condition, doing away with all irritation and congestion of the kidneys and bladder.
Contagious Blood
May be transmitted to the system before the disease appears. It may manifest itself in sores, pimples, ulcers, sores, falling hair, scaly skin, painful joints, copper colored spots on the body, sores in the mouth, sore throat, falling out of hair, dozens of these and other symptoms are sure of being followed to take advantage of our free offer, which will tell you at least taint of poison in the blood, and we will give you a cure, and we will give you a written guarantee that will be for the term of your natural life. Our treatment is entirely vegetable, through twenty-one years of practice, and is free from mercury or iodides, contains no injurious drugs, and is the only positive and permanent cure of the kidneys and bladder.
Vital Decline Can Be Cured
About nine years ago here in Los Angeles, I wrote and published the first responsible information on the TRUE CAUSE and CURE of premature weakness. I pointed out the direct connection of the various weakness of the organs, and proved to the profession that in these cases which heretofore had practically resisted all treatment, that nine-tenths of the prominent specialists in the country have adopted my methods, with marked success, while at the same time advertisements have been continually copied, often word for word, by specialists all over the land, who know absolutely nothing of our system or thoroughly understanding the true cause of this trouble have not acquired result by removing the trouble by natural and scientific means.
Varicocele and Its Results
Any case of varicocele which is left without proper treatment will result in complete loss of one-half of the vital power; besides there will be a constant drain by the unaffected side, often producing complete loss of power. The effect upon the circulation, nerve centers, dragging sensations, etc., are produced. Varicocele produces a bunch of large, knotted veins on the affected side. They can be readily distinguished by the feel. We only require from 5 to 7 days to guarantee a radical and permanent cure of every case of curing varicocele 10 years in Los Angeles, and will show you over 1000 of the actual cured cases among Los Angeles' best citizens. We will be pleased to show you if you are interested. Don't pay any money, only on results. We will show you the actual cured cases among Los Angeles' best citizens. We do not use electricity, but cure in one week, with no failure, and in the shortest way out. We have been 21 years in this city.
Contracted Disorders
Of all the diseases peculiar to man, contracted disorders are the most annoying and try, hit and miss treatment, administered by good friends, as well as by general practice, and most of the wounds be specialists. It is a common thing to hear the story of the average patient telling his experience, and the result of so-called treatment he has been "up against." A large majority of these cases come to us with all the original disease and part or all of the "complications" from delay and mistreatment. We generally have to cure them after the following conditions have developed: Chronic discharges, stricture, gleet, chronic bladder troubles, diseased prostate, sores, swellings, etc. Many of these whose confidence and mind are also diseased through failure and fraud, have become timid to trifle with these disorders, go to a doctor who knows how to cure them in the sh

SANTA MONICA.

FATHER DECLINED TO HELP.

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 14.—Isaac Fossum, the young man arrested on the steamer Santa Rosa yesterday morning by City Marshal Barretto, has been taken back to San Diego, charged with tapping a till. While in jail here Fossum telegraphed to his father at San José, saying "Am in trouble at San Diego; come at once." But the father replied, "Cannot come; write me particulars." The young man intimated that he had been in difficulties before and said he guessed the "old man" was tired of helping him out.

FOR BETTER WATER SUPPLY.

The action of the Board of City Trustees in behalf of a better water supply has at last aroused the Artesian Company to action. R. C. Gillis and E. P. Clark of Los Angeles, prominent members of the Artesian Company were here today, accompanied by City Superintendent Mulholland, of the Los Angeles water department, and a representative of the West Los Angeles Water Company, for the purpose of ascertaining what improvements are necessary to give Santa Monica a first-class service. It is understod that the supply for Hollywood, the Soldiers' Home, and Santa Monica is to come through one large main from the West Los Angeles company.

TO BRING BACK BURGLARS.

Sirof Arretto and George Gilmore, the two boys who escaped from Whittier reform school and committed several burglaries at Ocean Park last week, will be brought back from the school Friday or Saturday and given a preliminary hearing before a local magistrate.

K. OF P. INSTALL.

District Deputy Grand Chancellor of Los Angeles installed the officers of Pacific Lodge, K. of P., last night as follows: C.C., Fred L. Hart; V.C., H. Goetzsen; P. L. H. Case; M. of W., George E. Williams; I.G., W. Nevel; O.G., A. J. Myers; M. of W., H. I. Pritchard; K. of F., H. Bennett; M. of E., H. J. White.

BROKE HER ARM.

Mrs. S. A. Wheeler of No. 129 Sixth street, fell from the back porch of her residence yesterday, breaking her left arm.

SANTA CATALINA.

TOURISTS COMING.

AVALON, Jan. 14.—The travel this fall and winter has exceeded that of any previous year by over 50 per cent., but most of the visitors remained only one day. Now the hotels and cottages are rapidly filling and Manager Fletcher of Hotel Metropole is preparing for a larger influx of eastern tourists than have ever visited the island.

IMPROMPTU MUSICALE.

The Metropole guests were treated to a delightful impromptu musicale last evening, fellow guests furnishing the music. Miss Loraine Beatty of New York sang a number of songs; Miss Ellet of Des Moines, Iowa, sang "The Rosary"; Carl Vrooman sang several humorous numbers, accompanying himself on the guitar; Mr. Merriman contributed a number of piano solos and a song, and Messrs. Vrooman, Merriman and Hough gave a trio.

SEASIDE NOTES.

Col. J. M. Healy of Philadelphia is at Hotel Metropole.

William H. Perry and H. H. Adams of Providence, R. I., and W. H. Wright of Helena, Mont., are at the Grand View.

W. M. Caldwell, cashier of the Los Angeles Savings Bank, was a visitor to the island today.

Mrs. Sigmund L. Ackerman of San Francisco, with her family, joined friends at Hotel Metropole today.

Miss Myra Hershey and Mrs. J. F. Greenough of Los Angeles are guests at the Metropole.

SAWTELLE.

SCHOFIELD-BUCHANAN.

SAWTELLE, Jan. 14.—Yesterday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Scofield, Miss Mabel Lillian Scofield was married to John Henry Buchanan, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George Taylor. Only the relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan will make their future home in Sawtelle, at the corner of Indiana avenue and First street.

"THE SHADOW OF A SOUL" is the title of an article to appear in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday. The article will relate the circumstances of a very remarkable scientific discovery made in a Washington laboratory.

AUTOMOBILISTS will be interested in an article in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday describing a new school for chauffeurs which has just been established in the East.

"THE PRESENT STATUS OF SCIENCE" is the title of a valuable article which will appear in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday. It is written by a Bingen English scientist.

MISS BELLE SUMNER ANGIER will tell the readers of The Times Magazine the coming Sunday how to care for trees and plants.

DOLLAR COMPANY QUITS FIGHT.

SELLS BIG STEAMER AND WILL CARRY NO MORE PASSENGERS.

To Devote Itself Exclusively to Freight Traffic—Pacific Electric May Parallel Espee Tracks Into San Pedro—To Float Olympian.

SAN PEDRO, Jan. 14.—The sale of the large passenger steamer James Dollar, owned by the Dollar Steamship Company of San Francisco, to the Alaskan Navigation Company, has been consummated. The price paid for the vessel was $132,000. Following closely upon this sale is the statement of the Dollar company that it will retire permanently from the passenger-carrying business and devote its vessels exclusively to the freight and lumber traffic. What significance this action of the Dollar company will have upon the action of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's preparations to start wholesale yards along the Coast in competition with the steam-schooner syndicate, is a matter of considerable discussion and conjecture among large wholesalers operating extensive lumber yards at this port.

The Dollar company owns a larger number of independent steamers than any other corporation. Among the fleet are such staunch vessels as the Robert Dollar, Grace Dollar, Melville Dollar and Newburgh. All these vessels have been carrying passengers and their accommodations are extensive. Should the Dollar company discontinue carrying passengers on its boats the independent owners will lose a valuable ally in the fight for supremacy in the wholesale lumber business, against the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, should it come to a fight.

It is stated upon reliable authority that the revenue derived by the independent owners from the passenger-carrying business amounted to over $400,000 for the year 1903.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC PROBLEM.

It has been reported that the War Department has stopped the Pacific Electric Company from building its tracks across the bay from Wilmington. This report is erroneous. No definite application for any certain route over the bay has been made by the Pacific Electric. The United States engineers have recommended certain bulkhead and pier-head lines between San Pedro and Wilmington. These lines have not been finally established, but generally follow the contour of the Southern Pacific tracks between the two towns and are about 300 feet to the west of these tracks. It is said there is no objection by the War Department to permitting the Pacific Electric to build its trackage over this 300 feet. The only objection that might arise would come from the Southern Pacific Company.

The Pacific Electric has a large force of men at work grading and preparing the roadbed for the spur from Compton to San Pedro and is making excellent progress. During the past year the Pacific Electric obtained valuable water front concessions here which it cannot well afford to vacate, and the completion of the road into San Pedro is essential to holding these franchises.

NEWS NOTES.

Representatives of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Dredging Company are here removing the machinery from the hull of the dredge Olympian, which was burned last October. Divers have been employed to repair a hole in the hull of the Olympian and an effort will be made to float her.

J. P. Evans, of Mitchell, S. D., and Capt. L. J. Newton of Cadillac, Mich., were visitors here yesterday.

A marriage license has been issued to Frank Green of San Pedro and Mary Anna Dalson of Wilmington.

C. H. Foley of Butte, Mont., is visiting D. W. Lynn.

The local W.C.T.U. met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Scott, the president. The society will give a social January 22, to raise funds for the organization.

CLAREMONT.

FIRE DEPARTMENT PLANS.

CLAREMONT, Jan. 14.—After many years without fire protection, Claremont is to have a fire department. L. T. Gillett, L. N. Smith and George A. Gates, as a committee, are taking steps to secure a good hose-cart and between five hundred and a thousand feet of two and a half inch hose, the apparatus to cost from $500 to $600, and to be in working order within thirty days. A volunteer corps of young men, students or residents, will be formed.

ORANGE SHIPMENTS.

The Claremont Citrus Union is packing and shipping an average of two cars per day of oranges. The management says a larger amount of fruit is coming in than was anticipated.

Charles E. Bent, '03 Pomona College, who has been engaged in newspaper work at Pomona since June, has taken a position with the Northwestern Life Insurance Company.

EL MONTE.

TRAMP CHANGES CLOTHES.

EL MONTE, Jan. 14.—A tramp entered the home of Mrs. Mary Anderson yesterday and was found prowling about by her son, the rest of the family being absent. When discovered the intruder made a hasty exit. A suit of underclothing and a shirt were taken from the clothes line, and the hobo's discarded garments left in their place.

George Metcalfe of El Monte will be married Thursday, January 21, to Miss Muriel Anderson of San Dimas. Mr. Metcalf is a well-known young rancher, a native of California. Miss Anderson has been at the home of P. F. Cogswell for a year.

AZUSA.

MRS. BURDETTE'S ADDRESS.

AZUSA, Jan. 14.—The Azusa Woman's Club held an open meeting in the Presbyterian Church Wednesday afternoon. A large number of the members of the clubs of Monrovia, Glendora, Irwindale and Covina were present as guests of the local club. Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of Pasadena delivered an address, her topic being "The Junior Citizen." Her talk was an eloquent plea for higher ideals in the education of the young. She laid special emphasis on the influence of parental example, calling attention to the present need of a simpler home life, of reform in divorce laws, and for higher moral standards in all the daily relations of life. She also referred to the part that woman's clubs are taking in the line of the reforms she asked for, and argued that the only clubs that are permanently successful are those that have for their end and aim something beyond mere self-improvement and culture.

Mrs. Burdette was the guest of honor at a luncheon party given by Mrs. C. S. Ayres, president of the Azusa Woman's Club. The other guests were members of the executive committee of the club, including Mmes. W. S. Bridges, V. M. Greever, C. H. Lee, C. R. Gatton, Frank W. Hall, W. A. Sheldon, W. W. Heth and Ralph H. Holmes.

POMONA.

PLENTY OF SHADE TREES.

POMONA, Jan. 14.—An ordinance has been introduced by City Trustee Lobinger to provide for the uniformity of shade trees planted along the different streets and avenues. It is stipulated that residents may choose the variety of trees that shall be planted on their particular streets, but if no choice is made within six months, the City Council may select.

BUSINESS CHANGES.

A. B. Avis has purchased the hardware business of Roller Naftel and Son. Mr. Avis recently came here from Vineland, N. J., and is a brother to Postmaster W. M. Avis. Mr. Roller will return to his former home in Crowley, La., he having purchased considerable property there.

MINOR NOTES.

G. L. Travis of the local Southern Pacific office has been promoted to the position of commercial agent for all the company's territory between Pomona and Los Angeles, and some outlying sections between San Fernando, Tropico and Chatsworth Park.

C. W. Griselle has sold his fruit and grocery business to Jansen & Fountaine.

TOURISTS TASTE SEASIDE JOYS.

TREATED TO OLD FASHIONED FISH BARBECUE.

Many States Represented at the Feast—Work to be Begun on Electric Railroad Extension—Personal News and Gossip.

LONG BEACH, Jan. 14.—A party of nearly a hundred, practically all of them tourists from the East, spent Wednesday at Portuguese Bend. They went on the power boats Meteor and Fashion, and were guests of the officers when the hour for lunch came. These gentlemen had prepared for them a genuine, old-fashioned fish barbecue dinner, an artist in such affairs having been imported for the occasion. So well were the visitors pleased that they organized during the afternoon and tendered their hosts a formal vote of thanks for the novel and delightful entertainment. In the party were: D. Paul Shul, Chambersburg, Pa.; Effie Henderson, Bloomington, Ill.; Addie M. Sweet, Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Debolt, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. M. E. Mass, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. William McMillan, Eugene Van Sittert and Miss Williams, Des Moines, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Keasey, Colfax, Iowa; Miss Ellen Lomas, Wisconsin; G. H. McClure, Pennsylvania; C. C. Rowland, Belle Plaine, Iowa; A. Downs, Minneapolis, Minn.; Charles Moburg, St. Helena, Cal.; J. Boyer, J. P. Miller, York, Neb.; Mr and Mrs. A. M. Sutton, Inez, Neb.; Mrs. George P. Copeland, Elizabeth C. Baier, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. H. C. Bates, Margaret Bates, Pueblo, Colo.; W. R. Lees, Minneapolis, Minn.; Allen Aldrich, Providence, R. I.; W. Redburn, D. M. Wormley, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lyburger, Mrs. M. L. Maxgood, Long Beach.

CONTRACT SIGNED.

A. B. Rothrock of this city was the lucky man in the contest yesterday over the grading of the Pacific Electric branch along Redondo avenue. He signed the contract this morning and will commence the work at once. This line runs north from the Alamitos Bay line along the ocean front east of the park to Seventh street and will ultimately form a loop through the most thickly-settled portion of the Alamitos tract.

GATHERED ON THE BEACH.

Ed. East of Pine avenue and Sixth street, this city, was one of the passengers on the wrecked Whittier car last evening, but was fortunate in escaping with some comparatively insignificant bruises.

M. D. Cooper of Garner, Iowa, is visiting Long Beach friends and will probably spend the remainder of the winter here.

C. L. Hoover has returned from Peris, to which place he went to visit the Good Hope extension, in company with some other heavy holders and the representatives of eastern capitalists.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bishop of Rhinelander, Wis., are Long Beach visitors. Mr. Bishop is editor of the New North.

A. L. Selig, assistant manager of the Edison Company, is here today looking after the affairs of the company in this city.

MONROVIA.

TWO SERIOUS ACCIDENTS.

MONROVIA, Jan. 14.—Yesterday A. Moncrif of Duarte was driving, when his horse became frightened and ran away, throwing him from the vehicle and breaking his leg.

While unloading a wagon of empty boxes at the Duarte packing-house, a truckload of boxes fell upon John N. Lewis's arm, breaking the bone above the elbow.

MOVING WINDSOR HOTEL.

The Windsor Hotel, which for a number of years has stood idle near the Santa Fé depot, has been purchased by Alexander Mackenzie, who is moving it to the corner of Myrtle avenue and Walnut street. It will be entirely remodeled.

The Graves real estate agency report the sale of five lots, northeast of White Oak avenue, to Frank Jones. Also a lot on East White avenue to Herbert Spies of Long Beach.

OCEAN PARK.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL.

OCEAN PARK, Jan. 14.—One of the largest real estate deals made recently in Ocean Park has just been consummated. C. J. Wilson has sold to James Henderson of Los Angeles the property at the corner of Pier avenue and Ocean Front, popularly known as "The Wave" property. The consideration was $21,000. The proposed construction of the big bathhouse is having a beneficial effect on Ocean Park and realty interests here in general. There is a feeling of assurance that the $150,000 project will be carried to a successful conclusion.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Daniel Reynolds, private night watchman at Ocean Park, was taking his revolver apart yesterday, when the weapon was discharged, the bullet passing through the fleshy part of his leg.

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.

The Los Angeles-Pacific Railroad Company has planned extensive improvements to its property here, and work has been started. The plan contemplates the erection of a $2000 passenger depot at Pier avenue. Warehouses and freight depot are also to be built, and possibly business buildings for rental bordering the right of way. The work now in progress is the construction of a ten-foot sidewalk along the tracks for a distance of 1000 feet, from Pier avenue to Hill street.

HEREROS SCARE GERMANS.

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—The threatened rising of the Hereros tribe, numbering from 30,000 to 40,000 men, news of which has been telegraphed here from Windhook, Damaraland, German Southwest Africa, excites apprehension at the Colonial Bureau and Foreign Office, as the German forces on the spot are only 1900 white troops.

MAKE PEACE WITH YOUR STOMACH.

You Are Certain to Lose If You Attempt the Use of Force and Violence.

You cannot force your stomach to do work that it is unable and unwilling to do. It has been tried time and time again with always the same result. The stomach is a good and faithful servant; but when pushed beyond the limit it rebels. Some stomachs will stand much more abuse than others, but every stomach has its limit; and when that limit is reached it is a very dangerous and unwise proceeding to attempt to force it into doing further work. The sensible and reasonable course is to employ a substitute to carry on the work of digestion and give the stomach an opportunity to recuperate and regain its lost strength.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only perfect substitute to take up and carry on the work of tired, worn-out stomachs. They are natural and easy in their work and cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. They contain all of the essential elements that make up the gastric juice and other digestive fluids and will digest any food that a strong, healthy stomach will, and do it in the same time and in the same way. They work independently of surrounding conditions and the fact that the stomach is weak or diseased does not influence them at all in their useful and effective work. They will digest food just as well in a glass jar or bottle as they will in a stomach. You can see that for yourself by putting one of them into a jar with a square meal and some water to enable it to work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by thus relieving the stomach of its work, enable that organ to rest and recuperate and regain its health and strength. The process is perfectly natural and plain. Nature will heal the stomach just as she heals a wound or a broken limb, if she is not interfered with and is permitted to do her work in her own way. All interference is prevented by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by druggists everywhere at 50 cents a box and if you are afflicted with dyspepsia, one box will make you feel fifty times better. You will forget you have a stomach and rejoice in the forgetfulness. No druggist would be so short-sighted as to try to get along without Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, for they are so popular and are so well known for the good they have done and the happiness they have caused that any druggist caught without them would lose the confidence of his customers and be regarded as below the standard. His business would suffer as a result and his patrons would go to other stores and buy their other drugs there as well as their Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

AN EXHIBITION OF COOKING BY GAS

will be given in the lecture hall of our Gas Appliance Department this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Ladies are invited to attend.

These exhibitions are very instructive and we are sure that even the best of housekeepers will be benefited by attending.
